THE RIGHT HONOURABLE SIR LAURENCE PARSONS,

EARL OF ROSSE, BARON OXMANTOWN,

ETC.,

THESE ANNALS OF SOME OF HIS ANCESTORS ARE, BY HIS LORDSHIP'S PERMISSION, DEDICATED.

THE compilers of this work have undertaken to tell, with what care and exactness they can, the history of the Wilmer family and its descendants.

The task was begun at the request of several members of the family, who were desirous of having some record of their ancestors, and to their encouragement and support it owes in some measure its successful accomplishment. The genealogies that it contains will, it is believed, be found to be reliable, for no evidence other than that of the most undeniable character has been admitted. This statement, however, does not wholly apply in the case of the various families that are descended from the Wilmers, many of the pedigrees of which have been compiled from information derived from living members of those families. This has involved a very large amount of correspondence, the results of which have been carefully sifted and, as far as possible, verified. Yet it is difficult to collect satisfactory evidence in this way, and the family annalist who is concerned with persons living in the present and last centuries is beset with greater difficulties than he who, dealing with an earlier age, draws his information from such pure and generally accessible sources as the public records. "Only those persons," says a writer in the Archeological Journal, "who have embarked "upon such arduous undertakings can realize what the "family historian has to encounter, and those persons who go "conscientiously to work can say with truth with the old “writer, ‘What toil hath been taken as no man thinketh so “‘no man believeth but he that hath made the trial.’”*

It is unnecessary in this place to give a full list of the authorities from which the earlier portion of the pedigree has been compiled; for these will be made sufficiently clear by the footnotes and Index II.; yet it may be mentioned that exhaustive searches for wills have been made in the principal registry of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, in some of the minor courts at Somerset House, and in the probate registries of York, Lincoln, Peterborough, Northampton, Lichfield, and Worcester. Extensive use has also been made of the public records, the whole range of county histories, the Gentleman’s Magazine, and the manuscript collections and numberless genealogical and topographical books in the British Museum and Bodleian Libraries. The sources of information which have been at once the most prolific and the most useful, as well from an antiquarian as from a genealogical point of view, are the Chancery proceedings, wills, parish and other registers, inquisitiones post mortem, close rolls, and feet of fines. Of these sets of records, the Chancery proceedings and wills are probably the most important; for the former were given upon oath, and entered into the minutest details respecting persons and property. In the case of the latter, the testator, while making his last dispositions with a view to death, either imminent or prospective, could have no motive in stating other than the simple truth. The majority of wills in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries were made within a short time of death, when the testator was “sicke and weake in bodie,” which was probably the reason why in so many instances they did not bear his signature.

Registers are almost, if not quite, of equal value; for they supply minor details for the pedigrees of which the broad lines and the sequence of the generations are proved by Chancery proceedings and wills. The registers and records of the Society of Friends are so minute and precise that it is possible to trace from them alone the pedigree of every old Quaker family in existence from the seventeenth century downwards.

It is a subject for regret that so few old family papers and diaries exist, for they would have served to relieve the dryness and monotony which are more or less inseparable from almost every genealogical record; but it must in justice be remembered that "this work is intended to be, not a mere "temporary vehicle of amusement, but a permanent storehouse "of authentic information, to which reference may hereafter "confidently be made."

The compilers have each undertaken a separate portion of the work, and for his own part each is responsible. The Quaker branch of the Wilmers, with its numerous derivative families, was naturally chosen by Mr. Green, who had peculiar advantages for acquiring information about members of the Society of Friends, to which he himself belongs. The history of this part of the family is related in Chapters XIV. to XVIII. The remainder of the work, consisting of Chapters I. to XIII. and XIX. to XXIV., with the pedigrees, appendices, and exhaustive indices, fell to the share of the other compiler, who, in order to secure uniformity of treatment, prepared the whole of the manuscript for the press. He also undertook the work of correcting the proofs, and he desires to thank Miss Mary Foster and E.-P. Holmes, Esq., for the constant help that he received from them in that part of his labours. He and Mr. Green also wish to acknowledge the large amount of assistance and kindness that they have met with on all sides during the progress of the work. Where they are indebted to so many persons they cannot own their special debt to each; but there are some names that have a higher claim than the rest to be noticed, and they are these:—Mrs. Herbert, of Helmsley Hall; Mrs.
Mildred, of Chigwell; Mrs. John Sterry; Robert Pryor, Esq., J.P., D.L., of High Elms; H.-S. Grazebrook, Esq. (see p. 40); J.-Challoner Smith, Esq.; Richard Savage, Esq. (see pp. 88 and 380); Lieut.-Col. Louis-Worthington Wilmer; Horace Wilmer, Esq.; J.-J. Howard, Esq., L.L.D., Maltravers Herald Extraordinary; Samuel Woods, Esq.; John Harman, Esq.; William Boyd, Esq., who gave the compilers much assistance with the public records; the Rev. John Richardson, Vicar of Barking, who twice searched the voluminous registers of his parish for entries relating to the Wilmer family; the Rev. C.-B. Norcliffe, who gave access to his large genealogical collections (see p. 135); and the incumbents of the following parishes, who gave permission for their registers to be searched, and in some cases themselves made the search:—Braunston, Bromley - St. - Leonard's, Broughton, Budbrooke, Coleshill, Coventry (St. Michael's), Ellesborough, Everdon, Foleshill, Gamlingay, Haseley, Hatton, Upper Helmsley, Meriden, Moulsoe, Olney, Ryton-upon-Dunsmore, Sherborne, Staverton, Stratford-le-Bow, Sywell, and West Ham.

The general arrangement of this volume is so simple that it will be readily understood even by the few to whom it may be strange, and the reader has been assisted by cross-references wherever they seemed likely to be of use. For the sake of convenience in treatment, the family has been split up into various branches, each of which is distinguished by a special letter, as will be explained below (p. xv., § 3). The relation of these branches to one another is clearly set forth in the key pedigrees at pages 18 and 172, which are furnished with numerous references to the text.

It has been considered advisable in almost every case to give an English rendering of deeds and records when the original documents are in medieval and contracted Latin, which would be unintelligible to many readers. But where the documents are in English the old mode of spelling and the quaint phraseology have always been retained.
While the compilers desire to thank those of the general public who have subscribed for copies of their work, they think that their thanks are not so much due to members and descendants of the Wilmer family, because it is for their benefit that this history has been written. They cannot, however, forbear from giving expression to their surprise and disappointment at the apathy and indifference displayed by so many in regard to anything that concerns the past, and that relates even to the history of their own immediate ancestors. Although one of the few extant branches of the Wilmer family has refused to give to the compilers its countenance and support, yet nowhere is this indifference more noticeable than in the case of some of the principal families which represent the now extinct Yorkshire Wilmers, and of which, in some instances, not a single individual has subscribed for a copy of the work, or afforded the information which has always been applied for. If these persons “thrust aside the mouldering relics of their predecessors,” and have no care to possess themselves of this history of their ancestors, which has been offered to them in a convenient form, and, through the generosity of some of the supporters of the undertaking, at an almost nominal cost, then the compilers can only think and say with the ancient writer, “If any there be which “are desirous to be strangers in theire owne soile & forrainers in “theire owne citie, they may so continue, and therein flatter “themselves; for suchlike I have not written these lines, nor “taken these pains.”

As it has been stated above, the object of the authors of the History of the Wilmer Family has been to give to its descendants an authentic record of their ancestors; and it is to be hoped that the result of the work will be to incite their children and their children’s children to hand down to their descendants in far-off generations a name as unsullied and a shield as un tarnished as those which they have inherited from their forefathers.

§ 1. The name of each successive representative of a family, or branch of a family, is printed in old English type; and Roman numerals of the same type are placed before such names in order to render the order of succession clear.

§ 2. Large Roman numerals (e.g., I.) are placed before the names of children of persons printed in old English type, small Roman numerals (e.g., i.) before the names of grandchildren, and Arabic numerals (e.g., 1) before the names of great-grandchildren.

§ 3. Each branch of the Wilmer family, as well as each of the chief derivative families, is distinguished by a special capital letter, which is enclosed in square brackets placed immediately after the names printed in old English type; the object being to show at a glance of what branch of the family any particular person is a member; while reference to the key pedigrees will show the relative position of that branch in the general pedigree.

§ 4. In chapters III. to VII. and IX. to XVIII., in addition to the special letters just mentioned, Roman numerals are enclosed in the square brackets that follow the names printed in old English type. These numerals show in what degree the persons to whose names they are attached were related to William Wilmer [A], of Ryton (see p. 17), the common ancestor of all the Wilmers treated of in the said chapters. Thus:—Robert Wilmer [III B] denotes that Robert Wilmer was a member of the Sywell branch of the Wilmer family, and was third in descent from William Wilmer [A]. In chapters XIV. to XVIII. the Roman numerals are printed in italics to show the presumptive relationship to William William [A], (see p. 172).

§ 5. The names of living members and descendants of the Wilmer family are printed in thick type, e.g., Robert Wilmer.

§ 6. Where a person has two or more Christian names, a hyphen has, or hyphens have been used to connect them, in order to distinguish them from the surname.

Chapter I.

Introduction.

"Enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers."—Job viii. 8.

There seems to be no reason for doubting that the family of Wilmer is a purely English one, although it has been supposed by some people that its early history must be sought in German records. We are told that the name is used in that country both as a personal and also as a surname, but we have met with no evidence that would support the theory of a German origin. On the other hand, we can show that the name, or a form very similar to it, existed in this country at a time prior to the Norman Conquest. It is occasionally found in the public records from the 12th century downwards, but it is not until the 16th century that it becomes at all common. Wilmer, or the older form Wulmer, it is conjectured, has a common origin with, or is itself the parent of the names of Wolmer, Wilmot, Willman, Wellman, Wymer, Wyman, and others. It seems to be the same as the name of Wlmar, or Vlmar, which is of frequent occurrence in Domesday Book. A certain Wlmarus, of the County of Suffolk, was a tenant-in-chief at the time of the Survey:
"Sudfulc'—The land of Wlmarus. Risebruge Hundred. In Lapham there are XXIII. acres and half a carucate, and they are worth III. shillings. There is soc to the holy men. In the same the same Vlmarus holds IX. acres, which he held in mortgage in the time of King William of an ancestor of Ralph Pinel for XXI. shillings, and they are worth XII.d. Roger the Sheriff held them of the inheritance of his father."

A large number of persons of the name of Wlmar, Wlmarus, Vlmar, or Vlmarus, etc., were under-tenants at the formation of Domesday; and many also of the same name held land in the time of King Edward the Confessor, and previous to the Survey, among whom was one Wlmarus, a Priest of King Edward, to whose name Sir Henry Ellis appends the following note:—

"Wulnarus, probably the same person, chaplin to Wlfin Bishop of Dorchester, occurs as a witness to Thorold of Buckenhale's grant of Spalding to Croyland Abbey 1051. Wlmarus had held land in Buckinghamshire, which was then in the diocese of Dorchester."—[Introduction to "Domesday Book," ii. p. 271.]

We will now give a short summary of the more important notices of the name of Wlmar, or Wilmer, that we have met with prior to the reign of Henry VII.

In the 7th century there was a certain Sanctus Vulmarus, Abbæ Silviacensis prope Bononian in Picardia—S. Vulmar; Abbot of Silviacum, near Boulogne, in Picardy. He was a monk of the Benedictine Order, and was commemorated on the 20th of July. He was born of Christian and illustrious parents, in the lower parts of Gaul, not far from the sea-shore, in a village called Silviacum, in the province of Boulogne. His father was Vulpertus, and his mother Duda, and he had a brother named Wamarus. He married Holcorholda, who had been divorced from a certain Wilmarus, but, leaving her, he entered a monastery at Altimontis (Haumont). Sometime after this he returned to his native place, and there, in a wood, built a hut or cell (tugurium), where he continued to dwell. In 688 Ceadwalla, King of the Western Saxons, while on a journey from Britain to Rome, where the Venerable Bede says that he died in 689, hearing of S. Vulmar's good works, hastened to see him, and gave him 30s. to adorn a church which he was building. S. Vulmar is said by Mabillonius to have died about 710. The cell which he built at Silviacum, or (to use the modern name) Samer, was destroyed in the 8th century by the Norwegians, and was afterwards rebuilt by Eustace, Count of Bouillon, father of Godfrey de Bouillon, under the title of L'Abbaye de S. Wilmer, by which name it was known until its suppression at the time of the French Revolution.

The remains of it, for some still exist, have been converted into dwelling-houses and a large orchard, as we are told by Colonel Randal Wilmer, who visited Samer a few months ago.

A.D. 1203-4.—"John, by the grace of God, etc. Know ye that we have granted, and by the present charter have confirmed, to John Pincerne and his heirs, all the land which Wulmerus de Wodehus held, that is to say, two bovates of land in Wodehus, and one bovate in La Hull, and one bovate in Uvertorp, to be held of us and our heirs in fee for one mark of silver per annum for every service, etc."—[Charter Roll, 5 John, m. 16.]

1263.—"William Wulmer' and Agnes his wife give half a mark for one assize of novel disseisin, to be taken before William de Wylton, in the County of Northampton. And it is commanded [to the Sheriff that he cause the assize to be taken] in the County of Northampton."—[Fine Roll, 47 Henry III., m. 2; Excerpta e Rotulis Finium, ii. p. 404.]

By a writ, dated at Northampton, 12th March, 1300-1, Radulphus Wylemer was summoned from the County of Devon to perform military service in person against the Scots. Muster at Berwick-upon-Tweed, on the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, 24th June 1301.—[Close Roll, 29 Edward I., m. 13 and 12 d.; Parliamentary Writs, i. p. 905.]

Radulphus Wylemer was one of the Burgesses returned to represent Barnstaple in the Parliament at Carlisle, in eight days of St. Hilary, 20th January, 35 Edward I. (A. D. 1306-7).—[Parliamentary Writs, i. 905.]
William Wyilmer was one of the Jury on an Inquisition held at Exeter, 24th April, 6 Edward III. (A.D. 1332), before the Escheator of the King on the hither side of the Trent.

The Writ of diem daυst extreμum, in accordance with which this Inquisition was taken, was dated 24th May 1 Richard II. (A.D. 1378).]

Alianora, who was the wife of John Wilmore, senior, is mentioned in an Indenture relating to the County of Devon.—[Close Roll, 37 Henry VI., part 1 (38) (A.D. 1458-9).]

"Hundreds of Mitford, co. Norfolk, in the time of Edward I. Touching sheriffs and bailiffs whatsoever taking [bribes] to remove recognitores from the assizes [and] juries.

"They say that Roger de Stepham took one cube of oats to remove Ralph Wilner from the Assize, and Robert de Ausing half a cube of oats from Adam pimitiss', but they call this safe in themselves (sic).—[Hundred Rolls, vol. i. p. 444.]

"Hundreds of Fourhove, co. Norfolk, in the time of Edward I. Touching those who shall have approvers imprisoned, etc.

"Robert de Nortun, the sheriff, caused John de Pikeham, an approver, to accuse by the procurement of Walter de Wylemere of Kyneburl, on account of gain, Eustace de Pastimer of the same vill, a faithful man, until he made a fine of one mark."—[Hundred Rolls, vol. 1, p. 448.]

"In the name of God, Amen, on the 24th day of July in the year of our Lord 1400, and in the first year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth after the conquest of England, I, SIMON WILMER, of loveyne in Braban', of sound mind and in good memory, constitute and make my will in this manner: First, I commend my soul to Almighty
God, the blessed Virgin Mary, and all the Saints, and my body to be buried in the Church of St. Benedick fynk, London, and for my burial to be held there I bequeath to the fabric of the aforesaid church xxs. Also I bequeath to the high altar of the aforesaid church for my tithes and oblations, which have been forgotten and kept back, vjs. viijd. Also I bequeath to every chaplain of the same church for keeping my soul in remembrance in his prayers xijd. Also I bequeath to the parish clergyman of the same church xxd. And I will that the expenses of my funeral shall be ordered according to the wish of my wife Johne. But the residue of all my goods and chattels wherever they exist, after my debts in which I am legally bound have been paid and the aforesaid legacies fulfilled, I give and bequeath to Johne, my wife, and William, my son, and further, I give and bequeath to the aforesaid Johne, my wife, and the aforesaid William, my son, all those lands and tenements, rents and possessions whatsoever, which ought to descend to me by hereditary right after the death of Simon Wilmer, my father, in the town of Guytecom, in braban', or in any other place soever within the confines of Braban', to be possessed and held by the same Johne and by William, my son, and their heirs and assigns for ever, thenceforward to be made and disposed as of their own goods, without any qualification whatsoever. Of this my will I make and constitute the aforesaid Johne, my wife, my sole executrix, to whom I hand over the administration and execution of this my last will, to be performed and fulfilled as shall seem to be best pleasing to God and to conduce to the safety of my soul. In witness of which I have to these presents set my seal, there being witnesses, Dominus Henry Trank, Rector of the aforesaid church, Thomas Burgh, Terremus Dripston, Brouderer, Adam Tauerner, Segre^ Coster, and others, dated at London, the day and year above-mentioned. This will was proved before the commissary the tenth of the Kalends of October [22nd September], in the year above-mentioned. [British Museum, Add. Charter, 14374.]

It is at best merely probable that the records we have just cited refer to the family whose history we are about to relate; leaving, therefore, the regions of uncertainty, we find ourselves standing on the firm ground of proven facts at the beginning of the reign of Henry VII. From that date we have a pedigree based on the solid foundation of the Heralds' Visitations, every generation of which has been verified and proved by evidence adduced from Proceedings in the Court of Chancery, Close and Patent Rolls, Final Concords, Wills, and other documents. The Wilmer family was settled at Ryton-upon-Dunsmore, a small village in the east of Warwickshire, at the close of the 15th century, and with that place the senior line was closely connected for the next two hundred years. In the 16th century the family multiplied rapidly, and spread eastward into Northamptonshire, where its members married into good families and became possessed of considerable estates and wealth. At Sywell, in that county, was seated one of the most important branches of the family. A junior branch of the Ryton house was settled in the neighbourhood of London in the time of Queen Elizabeth, and had numerous offshoots. Its members, as would naturally be expected, were occupied chiefly in mercantile enterprizes, and from them were descended many London and Essex and several Yorkshire families.

It now only remains for us to say a few words about the social position of the early Wilmers, before they attained the position of gentry and esquires, or knightly rank. At the point at which our pedigree begins, they may be described as yeomen,—a class originally composed of small freeholders, who held their patrimonies by free though not by military tenure, and afterwards "strengthened by the addition of the body of tenant farmers, "whose interests were very much the same as those of the "smaller freeholders, and who shared with them the common "name of yeoman." Speaking of this class, the Bishop of Chester says:— “Next after the gentry, in respect of that political weight which depends on the ownership of land, was ranked the great body of freeholders, the yeomanry of the middle ages, a body which, in antiquity of possession and purity of extraction, was probably superior to the classes that looked down upon it as ignoble. It was from the younger brothers of the yeoman families that the households of the great lords were recruited: they furnished men-at-arms, archers and hobelers, to the royal force at home and abroad, and, settling down as tradesmen in the cities, formed one of the links that bound the urban to the rural population.”—[Constitutional History of England, iii. p. 551.]

and again:—

“The house of the freeholder was substantially but simply furnished, his stores of clothes and linen were ample, he had money in his purse and credit at the shop and at the market. He was able in his will to leave a legacy to his parish church or to the parish roads, and to remember all his servants and friends with a piece of money or an article of clothing. The inventory of his furniture, which was enrolled with his will, enables the antiquary to reproduce a fair picture of every room in the house: there were often comforts and even luxuries, although not such as those of later days; but there was generally abundance.”—[Ibid, p. 555.]

In addition to these remarks, which are fully borne out by the wills of the early Wilmers, it may be mentioned that the family was entitled to coat-armour.

To the yeomanry England as a nation owes much; their bravery left her victorious on many a battle-field of the middle ages, and their sterling good qualities contributed in a large measure to make her what Mr. Froude describes as a “sound nation,” that is, “a nation that is composed of sound human "beings, healthy in body, strong of limb, true in word and deed— "brave, sober, temperate, chaste, to whom morals are of more "importance than wealth or knowledge—where duty is first and "the rights of man are second—where, in short, men grow up "and live and work, having in them what our ancestors called "the ‘fear of God.’”6 6. Oceana, p. 133.

Such, then, we may believe, was the simple, homely life of these early Wilmers,—a life that Horace admired; and one that Virgil never tired of praising, for it was with reference to the Roman Agricola that he sang:—

"At secura quies et nescia fallere vita,
Dives opum variarum, at latis otia fundis,
Speluncae vivique lacus et frigida tempe
Mugitusque bous mollesque sub arbore somni,
Non absunt; illic saltus ac lustra fetarum,
Et patiens operum exiguoque adsueta juventus,
Sacra deum sanctique patres; extrema per illos
Justitia excedens terris vestigia fecit."—Geor. 2, 467-74.
Chapter II.

THE COAT-ARMOUR OF THE WILMER FAMILY.

"Coates of Arms were invented by our wise ancestors, to these 3 ends: The first was, to honour and adorn the family of him that had well deserved towards his country. The second, to make him more worthy and famous above the rest, which had not done merit, and thereby they might be provoked to doe the like. The third was, to differ out the several lines and issues, from the noble ancestor descending; so that the eldest borne might be known from the second, and he from the thirsde, &c."—Sir John Ferne.

It is uncertain at what period the Wilmers first used coat-armour, but it was stated in 1582-3 that they had "of longe tyme used and boren Armes as apt " and significant tokens of their race and gentry." We shall proceed at once to give copies of the several grants of arms to the family, which are recorded in the Heralds' College, London.

These arms and this crest were confirmed to Sir William Wilmer, Knt., of Sywell, by Sir Richard St. George, Knt., Clarenceux King-of-Arms (see p. 44)." In the Visitation of Warwickshire, made in 1619, the arms of Wyliner are given as—

A chevron vair between three ducal coronets (not blazoned). This mistake is all the more strange, since it was made less than forty years after the confirmation by Robert Cooke; and the same Thomas Wilmer, to whom the arms were then confirmed, was the head of the family at the time of the Visitation.

Early in the 17th century, George Wilmer of Stratford-le-Bow, who was descended from a second son of the Ryton house, and was the ancestor of the Wilmers of Yorkshire, obtained a grant of arms:—

"GEORGE WILMERE'S PATENT FOR CHANGING HIS CHEUERN, AND OBTAINING A NEW CREST.

It will be observed that no date is given in the above grant, but we can determine the time at which it was made to within twenty years; for Sir William Segar was Garter King-of-Arms from 1603 to 1633, and William Camden held the office of Clarenceux King-of-Arms from 1597 to 1623. The grant, therefore, must have been made between 1603 and 1623. We have been able to find but few instances of the use of the arms and crest that were thus granted to George Wilmer. They appear in the Liber Memorialis of Trinity College, Cambridge, in connection with his gift of books to the library of that foundation (see p. 114), and on the tombstone of his grandson, John Wilmer, at Walthamstow (see p. 119). In both these cases, however, the crest is depicted as an eagle issuing from a mural coronet, and without the garland of laurel. The arms, without the crest, appear impaled by Beachcroft, in the funeral bill of Sir Robert Beachcroft, Knt. (see p. 120); and, impaling Cornewall, in that of Dorothy, the wife of Randall Wilmer (see p. 124). After this they seem to have fallen into disuse, and the arms and crest of the Ryton Wilmers, without any mark of cadency or difference, to have been adopted in their place. To the latter coat-of-arms the Yorkshire Wilmers had no doubt a right by virtue of their descent from the Ryton house, if it were possible to ignore the new grant to George Wilmer, their more immediate ancestor. But if they bore those arms at all, they ought at any rate to have charged them with a crescent on a crescent, for twice had the descent passed through second sons. To the crest they had no right whatever, for it was not borne by the Ryton Wilmers, until granted in 1582-3 to Thomas Wilmer, to whom the Yorkshire Wilmers were only collaterally related. Yet in the 18th century the Yorkshire Wilmers used no other arms and crest, as is shown by the monuments in Upper Helmsley church and by family papers; and not only so, but the Heralds of the present century seem to have allowed the claim of Mr. John-Wilmer Field and Mr. Joshua Field, descendants of the Yorkshire Wilmers, to quarter these arms; and in 1832 when Wilmer Gossip (see p. 135) and Thomas-George Gossip (see p. 133) assumed the surname of Wilmer, in consequence of their descent from an heiress of the Yorkshire branch of that family, the arms of the Ryton Wilmers were confirmed to them in the following grant:—

"To all and Singular to whom these Presents shall come Sir Ralph Bigland Knight Garter Principal King of Arms and Edmund

[From the College of Arms. In the original painting of the arms the motto is—"Expertus credo"]:]

Thus considerable confusion has arisen from the disregard in which the grant of arms to George Wilmer has been held,—a disregard to which the College of Arms has, as we have seen, given the sanction of its authority.

ARMS: — A chevron vair between three ducal coronets (not blazoned).*
In the Manuscript drawn in pencil.

F. — William Wilmer [A], Yeoman, of Withybrooke¹ and Ryton-upon-Dunsmore, co. Warwick, is the first of the family from whom we have been able to prove a pedigree. It is probable that he was the common ancestor of all those branches of the Wilmer family, the history of which is recorded in the following pages, although in several cases the connecting generations are missing. By a deed, bearing date 20th September 1486, Sir John Weston, Knt., Prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England, granted to William Wilmer the manor or farm of Ryton, with the appurtenances, for the term of sixty years, at a certain annual rent.² The village of Ryton is situate on the southern side of the River Avon, four miles and a half to the south-east day of the week is given as Sunday. The 7th Sept., 2 Hen. VII. fell upon a Thursday; and that is the day of the week given in a pedigree compiled from sources in the College of Arms.

of Coventry. The manor seems to have been a member of Stoneleigh, and in 14 Edward I. was granted by Thomas de Arden to the Hospitalers, who held it until the reign of Henry VIII. William Wilmer had two sons:

II. — I. RICHARD WILMER. See below, II.

II. THOMAS WILMER, Mercer, of Coventry, who made his will 6th October 1540. It was proved at Lichfield, 8th March 1540-1, but is now missing from the registry. By Elizabeth his wife, Thomas Wilmer had an only child, JOANE WILMER.

William Wilmer appears to have borne the arms: Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or, for they were confirmed to his descendant, Thomas Wilmer, of Ryton, in 1582-3, in consequence of his being "well borne and descended "of such as haue of longe tyme vsed and boren Armes as apt and "significant tokens of their race and gentry, Which lykewyse "to him by just descent and prerogatyve of birth ar duely deryved" (see p. 9).

II. — RICHARD WILMER [IA], Yeoman, was the executor of his father's will, and succeeded him at Ryton. He married Joane, daughter of John Goodere, of Baginton, near Coventry, and Alice, his wife. We have no direct evidence to show John Goodere's parentage, but he seems to have been a member of the knightly family of Goodere, which resided at Baginton, Polesworth, and other places in Warwickshire. This family was descended from Sir Richard Goodere, Knt., Lord of Poynton, in Cheshire, and Anne, his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Clare, Knt., son of the Earl of Gloucester. In the Harleian MS. 1551, folio 131, it is stated that John Goodere bore the arms of this family, namely: Gules, a fess between two chevrons vair. In

Richard Wilmer died 24th May 1527, and was buried in St. Leonard's church, at Ryton. His wife, who survived him, was buried in the same place, where they were formerly commemorated by a brass, part of which was sold some time ago to Mr. J. J. Green, and is now in his possession. On the brass were engraved figures of Wilmer and his wife, and their sons and six daughters. Those of the daughters only now remain. The legend is as follows:—

ampton, and sister of John Spencer, Esq., of Thame, who married Alice Wilmer (see p. 19). Of a family so well known and highly honoured as that of the Spencers it is needless for us to write at any length, but some particulars of the children of William Spencer will be found in the accompanying pedigree. Arms of Spencer of Badby and Everdon: Sable, on a fess or between three bezants as many lions' heads erased of the field.

William and Julian Wilmer had issue:—

I. Thomas Wilmer. See below, II.

II. William Wilmer, Gent., of Spratton, co. Northampton, a minor in 1558; died at Little Creaton, a hamlet in the parish of Spratton, 10th April 1599; buried in the north chantry chapel of Spratton church, where there are the arms of Wilmer and a brass plate bearing the following inscription:

Here lyeth buried the bodie of William Willmer who departed this life the tenthe daye of Aprill in the yere of our Lord
GOD one thousand five hundred ninetie nine.

The following is an abstract of his will:—

8th October 1592.—In the Name of God, Amen. I William Willmer, etc. My body to be buried within the Church of Daventry or Starton at the will of my executors. To the poor of the parish 10s. To every one of my brother Richard his children 20l. a piece when 21 years of age. My brother Peter Willmer his daughter 20l. on her marriage. My brother Robert Willmer his daughter Dorothe Willmor 100 marks on her marriage. To William Willmer my brother Robert Willmer his sonne and heir 1000 marks to be invested in land. To my brother Richard Willmor 5l. To my brother Peter 5l. The residue I give to William Willmor my brother Robert his sonne whom I make sole executor. I make my good kynsman, Robert Higginson, of Sillhill, and Robert Willmer, my nephew, overseers. Witnesses:—Matthew Salter and Robt. Willmor. [Proved 23rd April 1599. P.C.C. 30 Kidd.]
III. RICHARD WILMER, Gent., of Folkeshall (now Foleshill), co. Warwick, a minor in 1558; married Winifred, daughter of John FitzHerbert, and had issue:—

i. THOMAS WILMER, Gent., of Meriden, co. Warwick, married Anne, daughter of Francis Stafford, and had a son, EDWARD WILMER, and a daughter, ANNE WILMER, who were both under age in 1610. His will was dated 14th April 1610, and proved 27th September 1610, by Anne Wilmer, his widow. He desires to be buried in some convenient place in Berkeswell church, and leaves 10s. apiece to his father and mother; 5s. to Margaret Johnson, wife of John Johnson; and appoints as overseers his “loving kinesmen and friends, “Samuel Willimore,” Jobe Lavender, John “Halsall, Thomas Mattershead, and Richard “Gresbrooke.” The witnesses were Richard Buggs, Thomas Rotten, John Halsall, Clement Lavender, and Jobe Lavender.

Richard Wilmer probably had other children, for his brother, William Wilmer, left legacies “to every one of my brother Richard his children.” The following entries from the parish registers of Foleshill probably refer to them:—Elizabeth Wilmer, buried 30th October 1581; John, son of (?) RICHARD WILMER, baptized 11th June 1579; Henry, son of (?) Richard Wilmer, baptized 2nd May 1585; Martha, daughter of John Wilmer, baptized 10th August 1604; Anna, daughter of John Wilmer, baptized 24th October 1605. Richard Wilmer himself was buried at Foleshill, 12th June 1612. It is said that his will was dated or proved in that year.

10. P.C.C. 82 Wingfield.
11. This was probably the testator’s first cousin, Samuel Wilmer, of Beau-thorpe (see p. 34).
IV. Roger Wilmer, not named in the wills of his father and mother, but mentioned in the Visitation of Northamptonshire made in 1618-19. In 1595 a fine was passed between William Leigh, Knt., querent, and a certain Roger Wilmore and Elena his wife, deforciants, of land in Withybrooke. In 1608-9 another fine was passed between Thomas Garrett, querent, and Roger Wilmore and Elena his wife, deforciants, of premises in Yelvertoft, co. Northampton.

V. Peter Wilmer, Gent., of Coventry, baptized 1st August 1545; married first Elizabeth, daughter of Ralph Browne, of Coventry, and had a daughter and heiress, Elizabeth Wilmer. He married secondly daughter of Thomas Barker, citizen of Coventry, by whom he had no issue in 1618-19. His will is said to have been dated or proved in 1597.

VI. Robert Wilmer, ancestor of the Wilmers of Sywell (see p. 46).

13. Feet of Fines, Northampton, Hil. 6 Jac. I.
† Par. reg. of Ryton.
II. Margery Wilmer, married Wilmer, of Sowe, co. Warwick, and was a widow in 1558 (see p. 78).

III. Dorothy Wilmer, married 6th November 1554,† John Lavender. The Ryton Register records her marriage, but does not mention the name of her husband. She had three daughters, Anne, Joyce, and Mary Lavender, who were all living in 1558. A John Lavender was one of the witnesses of the will of Edward Willmer, of Fulbrooke, in 1616-17 (see p. 79).

IV. Joane Wilmer married prior to 1558, Hickfall [or Hucksale or Huckpole].

V. Elizabeth Wilmer, baptized 22nd August 1539;† married subsequently to 1558, Henry Rogers, Gent., of Sherborne, co. Warwick, and had issue (see ped. p. 25; see also p. 52).

VI. Mary Wilmer, baptized 6th October 1540;† married first, subsequently to 1558, Thomas Crowe; and secondly, Baldwin Hill.

VII. Audrey Wilmer, baptized 6th May 1543;† married subsequently to 1558, Berry.

It appears that some time after the death of his father William Wilmer was called upon to show by what right he held the farm at Ryton. The proceedings in the case were as follows:

"To the right Honorable Sir Thomas Audeley Knight Lord Chauncelor of England.

WILMER OF RYTON, STAVERTON, BUDBROOKE, AND DUDLEY—(continued).

"My thoughts are with the Dead, with them
I live in long past years,
Their virtues love, their faults condemn,
Partake their hopes and fears,
And from their lessons seek and find Instruction with an humble mind"—SOUTHEY,—Occasional Pieces, 18.

IV.—Thomas Wilmer [IIIA], Gent., of Ryton, co. Warwick, and of Staverton, co. Northampton, was the eldest son and heir of William Wilmer [IIA] and Julian, his wife, daughter of William Spencer (see p. 25). He married Elizabeth, daughter of John Crudge, of co. Devon. The arms of Crudge, as given in Harleian MS. 1551, folio 131, are: Argent, on a bend azure between two foxes sable three martlets or. They had issue:—

V.—I. Thomas Wilmer. See below, V.

II. Robert Wilmer, Gent., of Braunston, co. Northampton, married Frances, daughter of John Okeley, of Kilsby in the same county, and had a son and a daughter:—

1. He is styled "nuper de Ryeton," in a Pat. R., 2 and 3 Philip and Mary, pt. 5, m. 36(6).
i. ROBERT WILMER, Gent., of Braunston, aged 20 in 1618-19; married Anne and had issue,

1. ROBERT WILMER, baptized 19th August 1627.

2. THOMAS WILMER, baptized 13th December 1629.

3. WILLIAM WILMER, baptized 20th December 1632.

1. MARY WILMER, baptized 31st December 1633.

Robert Wilmer was a party to Fines passed at Michaelmas 22 James I., Easter 3 Charles I., Michaelmas 11 Charles I., and Michaelmas 14 Charles I., of premises in Braunston and Braunston Bury. Anne Wilmer joined with her husband in levying the second and fourth of these Fines.

i. ELIZABETH WILMER, married before July 1615, John Parker, of Kibworth (-Beaufuchamp), co. Leicester. She was buried 27th September 1621.

Robert Wilmer was buried 3rd August 1622, and his widow, Frances Wilmer, was buried 28th October 1632. His will was dated 20th July 1615, and proved 9th September 1622. He bequeaths sums of money to his wife, Frances, and his daughter, Elizabeth Parker, and leaves the residue of his goods to his son, Robert Wilmer, appointing him sole executor. He constitutes his loving brother, Thomas Willmer, Esq., and his loving cousin, Thomas Thornton, Esq., tutors and governor of his son during his minority. And he names Thomas Willmer and John Willmer, the two sons of his brother, Thomas Willmer. The witnesses to the will were Thomas Thornton, John Thornton, An Thornton, Thomas Hanslappe, and John Smith.

III. Samuel Wilmer, Gent., of Boothorpe or Beau-thorpe (also called Bowthorpe and Babthorpe), a hamlet in the parish of Blackfordby, near Ashby-de-la-Zouch, co. Leicester. He married Susan, daughter of Hollingshed. He was born about 1562, and seems to have been an Attorney-at-Law. Acting as agent for his brother Thomas in 16 James I., he received the rents of the ninth Lord Dudley's estates. These estates, on account of his lordship's extravagance, were extended, and Thomas Wilmer had been appointed receiver. In Harleian MS. 1094, it is stated that Samuel Wilmer had issue. A certain Joseph Wilmer, Gent., of Bowthorpe, co. Leicester, married Sarah, daughter of Thomas Leason, Embroiderer, of St. Martin's, Ludgate, London. The licence for the marriage to be solemnized at the church of that parish was dated 6th June 1625.

IV. Anthony Wilmer, baptized 30th March 1569.

V. William Wilmer, baptized 24th July 1579.

VI. Another Son.

I. Constance Wilmer, baptized at Everdon 16th November 1558; buried there 24th January 1558-9.

Thomas Wilmer, nuper de Kyeton, who had been impleaded by Sir Thomas Nevill, Sheriff of Warwickshire, concerning a debt of 100L, obtained a royal pardon for the said outlawry, 14th October 1555. In 1559-60 the Queen granted a licence to Thomas Smythe to alienate to Thomas and Robert Wilmer, and the heirs of the said Thomas for ever, one messuage, 30 acres of land, 30 acres of meadow, and 30 acres of pasture, which were held of the Queen in capite in Stanton alias Stareton 8 upon thill. A similar licence was granted, 4th January 1562-3, to Robert Smithe to alienate to Thomas Wilmar, senior, Robert Wilmar, and Thomas Wilmar, junior, one messuage and 60 acres of land in the same place. 10 A Fine was passed in the Curia Regina at Hertford Castle, in fifteen days from St. Hilary's Day 1563-4, between John Milward, querent, and Thomas Wylmer, Gent., and Elizabeth his wife, deforciants, of 3 messuages, 3 gardens, 3 orchards, 50 acres of land, 8 acres of meadow, and 8 acres of pasture, with the appurtenances, in Lemynton' Hastynge, Bradwell' Hill, and Hardwike, co. Warwick. Another Fine was passed at the same date between John Over, querent, and Thomas Wilmer and Elizabeth his wife, deforciants, of 2 messuages, 2 gardens, 2 orchards, 1 barn, 36 acres of land, 3 acres of meadow, and 12 acres of pasture, with the appurtenances, in the same places. 11

On the 22nd of June 1565, Henry Napton, Vicar of Fawsley, co. Northampton, filed a Bill in the Court of Chancery 6 in

H.—Thomas Wilmer [IVA], Esq., Barrister-at-Law, of Lincoln's Inn, London, of Ryton and Budbrooke, co. Warwick, and of Dudley, co. Worcester, was the eldest son of Thomas Wilmer [IIIA]. He was baptized at Ryton 8th October 1554, and married Anne, the relict of Francis Throckmorton, Esq., of Feckenham Forest, co. Worcester, and the only child by his first wife of Sir Edward Sutton, eighth Baron Dudley. Her descent is shown in the accompanying pedigree. Arms of Sutton: Or, a lion rampant queue fourché vert; quartering Somerie, Baron Dudley: Or, two lioncels passant azure. Thomas and Anne Wilmer had issue:—

II.—I. THOMAS WILMER. See below, III.

II. JOHN WILMER, Clerk⁵, of Sedgley, co. Stafford, and of Dudley, married Elizabeth and had issue:—

i. Richard Wilmer, baptized 10th March 1617-18†; buried 13th June 1624.†

ii. Thomas Wilmer, senior⁶, baptized 24th

15. The statements printed in italics are a little doubtful, but it is very probable that John Wilmer, who is described in the Dudley par. reg. as "Gent." was identical with John Wilmer, Clerk, of Sedgley. Richard, son of John Wilmer, Clerk, was baptized at Sedgley in 1617-18, and was buried there in 1624 as the son of "John Willmore, Gent." There are other instances, too, of clergymen being described simply as "Gent." in neighbouring par. regs. At all events a John Wilmore of Dudley was a clerk at this time, for Elizabeth Harvie and Eleanor Brooke were baptized at Dudley in 1654 by "Mr. John Wilmore," and a marriage was solemnized at Tipton (close to Dudley) in 1649 by "Mr. John Wilmore dwelling in Dudley." Sedgley lay a few miles to the north of Dudley, and Baron Dudley was the lord of the manor. John Wilmer was not the Vicar of the parish, at any rate before 1625, for the register records the burial in that year of Rich: Browne, who had been Vicar of Sedgley for 53 years.

† Par. reg. of Sedgley.

15a. Thomas Wilmer is described as senior in the Sedgley registers, to distinguish him from a Thomas Wilmore or Wilmer, junr., Nailer, of Upper Gornall, who was probably his son, though there is no proof that such was the case. The younger Thomas married 6 Ap. 1675†; Alice Hickman, of Gornall, and had a dau., Sarah Wilmer, bapt. 3 Jan. 1679-80†, and Alice Wilmer, who was described as of Dipdale, Widow, was bapt. 13 Ap. 1709†. Mary, dau. of Tho. and Anne (query Alice) Wilmore, junr., of Over Gornall, was bapt. 28 Feb. 1675-6†. There was also a certain John Willmore, described as Nailer, and also as Labourer, of Over or Upper Gornall, who mar. Joane , and had issue: 1. John Willmore, bapt. 19 Dec. 1676†, bur. 25 May 1677†; 2. Robert Willmore, bapt. 27 May 1688†; 1. Mary Willmore, bapt. 26 Jan. 1678-9†; 2. Elizabeth Willmore, bapt. 9 June 1681†; 3. Jane Willmore, bapt.
September 1627; of Upper Gornall, in the parish of Sedgley; married first, Anne, and by her, who was buried 14th July 1679, had issue:

1. Samuel Wilmer, Nailer, of Upper Gornall; born 17th June 1658; married 23rd May 1682, Anne Marsh, of Upper Penn, and had issue:—
   1. Thomas Wilmer, baptized 28th February 1688-9, buried 18th September 1692; 2. Joseph Wilmer, baptized 25th September 1695, buried 13th February 1699-1700; 1. Anne Wilmer, baptized 26th February 1695, and was probably identical with the Anne Whilmore who married, 13th July 1707, Ben. Hickman; 2. Elizabeth Wilmer, baptized 22nd October 1691, buried 20th December 1691; 3. Mary Wilmer, baptized 7th November 1692; and 4. Alice Wilmer, baptized 22nd January 1698-9. Samuel Wilmer was buried 25th July 1699, being described of Gornall Wood. His wife survived him.

2. Richard Wilmer, born 20th December 1660; baptized 30th January 1660-1.

3 June 1686; and 4. Sarah Willmore, twin with Robert, bapt. 27 May 1688. Joan Whilmore, of Over Gornall, Widow, was bur. 27 Apr. 1709. Thomas Warter, Nailer, and Mary Willmore were mar. 4 Nov. 1694. It will be seen that several of the Sedgley Wilmers were connected with the nail trade, which was and is an important one in the neighbourhood of Dudley; the term Nailer, however, did not necessarily imply a working nailer, for we find the same person described as nailer and gentleman.

Hampton-Curii, and Reckthorne, co. Warwick. By an Indenture, bearing date 1st February 1591-2, Thomas Wilmer, and John Dormer, who is there described as of Dorton, co. Buckingham, conveyed these manors, for 1400l., to Sir Robert Dormer, Knt., of Wing, in the same county, ancestor of the Earls of Canarvon. Thomas Wilmer was buried 9th October 1628, in the church of St. Edmund, Dudley, where there was formerly a tablet with his arms.

VI.—Thomas Wilmer [VA], Esq., of Dudley, the elder son of Thomas Wilmer [IVA], married (see Visit. Stafford, 1663) Martha, the seventh natural daughter of Edward Sutton, ninth Lord Dudley, by Elizabeth Tomlinson (see pedigree, p. 37). Mrs. Wilmer was buried 21st June 1651. She was a sister of the famous Dudd Dudley, Colonel in the Royal Army, Author of the Metallum Martis, and one of the earliest Staffordshire Ironmasters. Thomas and Martha Wilmer had issue:

I. ELIZABETH WILMER, baptized 11th August 1623; married Gilbert Jellians [or Gellians], Gent., of Dudley, son of Gilbert Jellians, by Alice his wife, sister of Henry Finch. They had, with four sons, who probably died young, four daughters:

i. FRANCES JELLIONS, baptized 7th May 1643; buried 5th March 1715-16; married 2nd July 1663, Oliver Dixon, Gent., of Dudley, and had issue:
I. Oliver Dixon, baptized 26th July 1666; married 17th July 1694, Elizabeth, daughter of Jonathan Taylor, Ironmonger (i.e. Ironmaster), of Dudley, son of Zachary Taylor and Alice née Baker, his wife. Oliver and Elizabeth Dixon had issue:—Oliver Dixon, of Dudley; Jonathan Dixon, of Kidderminster; Joseph Dixon, Clerk, of West Felton, co. Salop; Charles Dixon; Elizabeth Dixon, died unmarried before 1729; Catherine Dixon; and Prudence Dixon, married Thomas Milward, Esq., of Wollescote Hall, near Stourbridge.

ii. Elizabeth Jellians, baptized 9th February 1645-6; married 20th October 1668, Francis Corfield.

iii. Alice Jellians, baptized 2nd March 1655-6; married 27th April 1675, Oliver Shaw, Gent., of Dudley, and had issue, Daniel Shaw, and others.

iv. Martha Jellians, baptized 11th May 1663; married 15th May 1682, Pynson Wilmot, Gent., of Lower Mitton, co. Worcester; and was buried at Dudley 11th June 1699. (See Visit. Worcester, 1682-3.)

Gilbert Jellians was buried at Dudley, 8th March 1699-1700; and Mrs. Jellians was buried there 9th May 1709.
II. Anne Wilmer, baptized 19th October 1625; buried 21st November 1625.

III. Anne Wilmer, (baptized 4th February 1625-6)‡¹⁹; married Thomas Brettell,²⁰ Gent., of Upper Areley, co. Stafford, administration of whose goods was granted to her 11th May 1681. They had issue.

IV. Martha Wilmer, baptized 17th September 1629; married 5th January 1658-9, John Taylor, Clerk, Vicar of Dudley, and died without surviving male issue.²² The Reverend John Taylor married secondly, 24th October 1666, Mary, daughter of Thomas Payton, of Dudley, and had a son, Samuel Taylor, Gent., who left issue. Mrs. Taylor married secondly John Paston, Clerk, Vicar of Himley, co. Stafford, and died 11th July 1720, aged 80; M.I. at Dudley.

V. Mary Wilmer, baptized 22nd March 1631-2; buried 4th October 1636.

In 8 and 9 Charles I., Thomas Wilmer assigned certain annuities out of premises in the county of Worcester to Thomas Rant,²³ William Ward, and others.²⁴ He was buried 30th March 1680; and administration of his goods was granted to his daughter Anne, the wife of Thomas Brettell, 20th May 1681.

The families of Brettell and Dixon, both of which are extant in the neighbourhood of Dudley, bear the arms of Wilmer, believing them to be their paternal arms. These arms appear, impaling Cartwright, in Kingswinford church, in Staffordshire, on the monument of Thomas Brettell, who died in 1835, aged 21.

Although the main line of the Wilmer family ended in the four coheiresses of the last Thomas Wilmer, yet it is probable that the descendants of the younger members of the family continued to reside in the neighbourhood of Dudley until a somewhat later period.

I.—Robert Wilmer (IIIB), Esq., of Sywell and Everdon, co. Northampton, lord of the manors of Sywell, Trafford and Hannington, in the same county, was the sixth and youngest son of William Wilmer (IIA), of Ryton, and Julian Spencer, his wife (see p. 27). He was mentioned in the will of his mother in 1558, as being under 21 years of age. He married his cousin-german, Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Higgenson, Gent., of Berkswell, co. Warwick (see pedigree, p. 25), and had issue:—

II. ROBERT WILMER, probably died young.

I. DOROTHY WILMER, baptized at Everdon, 29th January 1581; married Thomas Andrew, Esq., of Harleston, co. Northampton, as will be seen by the short pedigree given below. Arms of Andrew: Gules, a saltire or surmounted of another vert; crest: a Moor's head in profile, couped at the shoulders proper.

Elizabeth Wilmer died at Orlingbury, co. Northampton, 16th January 1636-7, “at tenne of the clocke in the nyght,” and was buried on the following day,† in the parish church of Sywell, in the small north aisle, which the Wilmers used as their family burial-place. M. I. (see p. 48). Her will was dated 26th August 1624, and proved at Northampton in 1636.

In March 41 Elizabeth (A.D. 1598-9) Sir Edward Montagu, of Boughton (ancestor of the Dukes of Montagu), and Edward Montagu, Esq., his son and heir, conveyed to Robert Wilmer the manor of Trafford, in the parish of Byfield, co. Northampton. This manor had been purchased of the Haslewolds of Maidwell by Sir Edward Montagu.²

“This is the final agreement made in 15 days from Easter-Day 41 Elizabeth, between Robert Wilmer, querent, and Edward Montagu, Knt., and Edward Montagu, Esq., deforciant, of 1 messuage, 1 water-mill, 1 garden, 1 orchard, 10 acres of land, 40 acres of meadow, 280 acres of pasture, 2 acres of wood, etc., in Trafford otherwise Trafforth, Culworth and Eydon, Whereupon a plea, etc., to wit that the aforesaid Edward and Edward have acknowledged the aforesaid tenements, with the appurtenances, to be the right of the said Robert.”—[Feet of Fines, Northampton, Easter 41 Eliz.]

Towards the end of Queen Elizabeth’s reign, Robert Wilmer purchased the manor of Hannington, co. Northampton, of which the Treshams had formerly been lords.³

In 1605 Anthony and Henry Jenkinson conveyed to Robert Wilmer the manor of Sywell which was held in capite by knights' service, and which thenceforth became the principal seat of his family.

"This is the final agreement made in the Octave of St. Michael 3
James I., between Robert Willmer, Gentleman, querent, and Anthony Jenkinson, Esquire, and Henry Jenkinson, Gentleman, son and heir apparent of the said Anthony, deforciant, of the manor of Sywell, etc., Whereupon a plea, etc., to wit that the aforesaid Anthony and Henry have acknowledged the aforesaid manor, with the appurtenances, to be the right of the said Robert."—[Feet of Fines, Northampton, Mich., 3 James I.]

Bridges relates that about the time of Henry I. Maud de Mundevill, the daughter and heiress of Nigel de Mundevill, Lord of Folkstone, bestowed the lordship with the church of Sywell on St. Andrew's Priory in Northampton. When that house was suppressed its estates fell to the crown, and in 34 Henry VIII.
the manor, grange, and advowson of Sywell were granted to John Mershe, who sold them to Anthony Jenkinson.4

Robert Willmer died at Everdon, 19th December 1612, and was buried in the church "at Sywell on Munday the one and twentye "day of December" following†. "Against the north wall, in the "Wilmers burial-place, is an alabaster monument, the cornice

"Per varios casus, per sol discrimina rerum."—Virgil, Æn. i, 204.

Arms: Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or.
Crest: An eagle's head or between two wings expanded vair.
Motto: Semper Sapit Suprema.

Sir William Wilmer [IVB], Knt., of Sywell, Lord of the Manors of Sywell, Hannington, Trafford, West Wardon, and West Haddon, the son of Robert Wilmer [IIIb], was thirty-five years of age at the time of his father's death in 1613. He was admitted of the Inner Temple 21st October 1600; Sheriff of Northamptonshire in 13 James I., and 18 Charles I.; knighted at Lincoln, 4th April 1617. He was the first Pensioner of Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, in 1599, and was a considerable benefactor to that foundation. In 1613 he had livery of his father's estates:—

1. The manor of Hannington was held of the "Earl of Northampton as of Earl's Barton called the Barons Mote in Earles Barton, viz., by a "rent of 6s. 8d." The Baron's-Moot was a monthly court held at Earl's Barton by the Earl of Northampton, and to it all who held of the honour of Huntington owed suit and service. There is in the possession of Mr. J. J. Green a plan of 278½ acres of Sir William Wilmer's estate in Hannington.
“The King to all to whom these presents shall come sendeth greeting. Know ye that we of our special favour, etc., have granted and given a licence to our beloved and faithful subject William Willmer, Esquire, son and next heir of Robert Willmer, Esquire, deceased, Which Robert Willmer held of us in capite, etc. That he the said William Willmer * may be able to enter into, take possession, and be seized of all and singular the lordships, manors, etc., of which the said Robert, whose heir he is, was or had been possessed, etc. Teste Rege, 23rd November 1613.”—[Patent Roll, 11 James I., part 26 (16).]

Sir William Wilmer married at Harlestone, 4th February 1604-5, Anne, youngest daughter of Robert Andrew, Esq. (see p. 46), and had issue:—

I. ROBERT WILMER, buried 26th April 1607.†

II. ROBERT WILMER, of whose line we treat (see below, page 63).

III. WILLIAM WILMER, baptized “on Mundaye the “viiith day of Aprill” 1611‡; buried 19th July 1611.†

I. ELIZABETH WILMER, married prior to October 1631, Sir Anthony Haslewood,² Knt., of Maidwell, co. Northampton. He was born in 1601, and was the eldest son of Edward Haslewood, Esq., of Maidwell, and Katherine, his wife, daughter and sole heiress of Sir Richard Osborne, Knt., of Kelmarsh, co. Northampton. By Elizabeth Wilmer he had an eldest son, Sir William Haslewood, Knt., of Maidwell, who left (with other issue) two daughters, eventually his coheiresses: ELIZABETH, the elder, was the third wife of Christopher, first Viscount Hatton, and PENELOPE, the younger, was the first wife of Sir Henry Seymour alias Portman, of Orchard Portman, co. Somerset.

Sir Anthony Haslewood died 6th June 1660, and was buried at Maidwell; M.I. Arms of Haslewood: Argent, on a bend gules between three owls sable as many lozenges ermine, on a chief azure three sprigs or; crest: A squirrel sejant sable bezante, in his mouth a hazel-branch or.

"Dame Ann Willmer, wife of Sir Will'm Willmer, Knight, "died on Monday morning, and was buried the same nyght the "vi day of January" 1634-5.†

The arms and crest which were granted to Thomas Wilmer, of Ryton, in 1582-3, by Robert Cooke (see p. 9), were confirmed to Sir William Wilmer by Sir Richard St. George, Clarenceux King of Arms, and he seems to have borne them without any mark of cadency.

On the 16th of January 1611-12, Sir William Wilmer and Robert Wilmer, his father, for 800l, purchased of Maurice Myles, John Myles, William Myles and Giles Miles the manor of West Haddon, co. Northampton, part of the possessions of Sir Richard Catesby, Knt. In 1617 Francis Plowden, Esq, of Plowden, in Shropshire, sold to Sir William Wilmer the manor of West Wardon, in the parish of Aston-le-Walls, with lands in Aston, Chipping Wardon, Woodford, Hinton, Fardon, Eydon, and Culworth, thereto belonging, parcel of the dissolved Abbey of Wardon, in Bedfordshire. This manor had been granted by the king in 1541 to Sir John Sutton alias Dudley, brother of Lord Dudley, and had passed by descent to Francis Plowden. By an Indenture, dated 2nd January 1619-20, John Calcott, of Flore, co. Northampton, sold to Sir William Wilmer and Richard Andrew (see p. 46) a capital messuage, two messuages and six yard-lands in Flore. On the 18th of May 1629, John Congle-ton, of Flore, filed a Bill in Chancery, claiming these premises by virtue of a Deed Poll dated circa 26 Elizabeth. He alleged that John Calcott had some dealing with Thomas Congleton, his brother, and "boasted himself to have bought a good title of the "premises, and by his boasting sold over his pretended right to "one Sir William Wilmer, knight." In his answer, on the 4th of November following, Sir William Wilmer denied all knowledge of the existence of the Deed referred to.7

"This Indenture made the thirtith day of Aprill (16 Charles I.) Betweene Edward Saunders Esquire sonne and heire of Edward Saun-der late of Brixworth in the County of North'ton Esquire deceased Daniell Hudson Citizen and Marchant of London and William Saun-ders of Brixworth aforesaid gent. one of the younger sonnes of the said Edward Saunders deceased and Francisc Saunders gent. one other of the sonnes of the said Edward Saunders of thone p'te and Sir William Willmer of Sywell in the County aforesaid knight and Richard Andrew of Thorpe Billett all's Thorpe Underwood in the same County gent. of thother parte Witnesseth that the said Daniell (and others) for * (2430l.) * have granted b'gained sold aliened enfeoffed and con-firmed * unto them the said Sir William Willmer and Richard Andrew All that messuage or ten'te * in Cold Ashby in the foresaid County * now or late in the occupacion of Thomas Lucas * allsoe all that part or p'cell of inclosed ground conteyning * about eight and twenty acres * with the said messuage or ten'te * and allsoe all that p'lot or p'cell of inclosed ground conteyning * one hundred thirty and one acres * now or late * in the tenure or occu-pacion of Francisc Wykes * and allsoe all that close * conteyning * sixeene acres * called Fernehill * alsoe all that close * conteyning * twenty seaven acres * now or late * of Francisc Clipsham Clerke vicar of Cold Ashby * one close of pasture * in Cold Ashby * in the occupacion of Robert Verneham * conteyning * forty acres * Which said messuage, etc., are scituate, etc., within the towne p'she or feldes of Cold Ashby aforesaid * And alsoe all that close, etc., within the Mannor or lordshipp of Eltington in the aforesaid County called nether Piltch Wonge conteyning * eight acres * And

In 1638-9 the purchasers obtained a royal licence to alienate these premises to Thomas Morgan, Esq., and George Allicocke, Gent. 8 Thorp Lands, an ancient enclosure of 200 acres, lying in the parish of Moulton, co. Northampton, came into the possession of the Wilmers prior to 1644, "and," says Baker, "passed from them [subsequently to 1791] through various "mesne conveyances to Mr. William Drage, now of Stanwick, "of whom it was purchased in 1816 by Mr. Clarke Hillyard, who "has since sold 50 acres to Edward Bouverie, of Delapré, esq.9"

Sir Wilmer Wilmer was seized, prior to 1636, in his demesne as of fee of the manors of Sywell, Hannington, and Trafford, and of the advowson of the church of Sywell, and of 20 messuages, 20 cottages, 10 tofts, 2 mills, 2 dovecotes, 20 gardens, 20 orchards, 1500 acres of land, 200 acres of meadow, 1500 acres of pasture, 100 acres of wood, 200 acres of gorse and heather, 6l. of rent, free warren and the view of frankpledge in Sywell, Hannington, Holcot, Mears Ashby, Overston, Earl's Barton, Byfield, Trafford, Culworth, Eydon, Hinton, Aston-le-Walls, Wardon, West Wardon, and Chipping Wardon (see p. 64).

On the 2nd of May 1638, the Rector, Churchwardens, and inhabitants of Byfield addressed a petition to the Council, praying that Sir William Wilmer, owner of the hamlet of Trafford, which was all pasture, might be restricted from wearing out the petitioner's with long suits to make the same subject to the custom of tithing used in the common and arable fields of Byfield. The matter was referred for consideration to the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Treasurer, and the Lord Privy Seal. 10 On the 4th of November 1638, Sir Robert Banaster, the late sheriff of Northamptonshire, delivered a certificate to the Council, stating that Sir William Wilmer refused to pay ship-money, and said that if the sheriff distrained he would rescue the cattle. A letter, dated at Whitehall, 9th December 1635, was addressed to Sir William Wilmer by the Council, stating that William Andrew, son of William Andrew, of Denton, co. Northampton, and nephew to Sir William, being about twelve years of age, had lately been found among other children in the house of Mr. Leveson, in the county of Stafford, where he was being trained up as a scholar under a priest or Jesuit; and that, in regard of his nearness of blood, the Council had thought fit to put him in Sir William’s custody until further order.

"This Indenture made the sixteenth day of October 15 Charles I. Betweene Sir William Willmer of Sywell in the County of North’ton knight and William Andrewe of Deinton in the said County Esquire of the one part and Robert Pargiter of Gretworth in the said County Esquire and Thomas Heughes of the Middle Temple London Esquire of the other part Witnesseth that the said Sir William Willmer and William Andrewe have granted bargained sold enfeoffed and confirmed unto the said Robert Pargiter and Thomas Hughes, etc., All that Manner called Treshams mannor in the aforesaid County of North’ton, etc. To have & to hold, etc., for ever, etc." [Close Roll, 15 Charles I., part 35 (28). The royal licence for this alienation was dated at Westminster, 10th October 1639, Patent Roll, 15 Charles I., part 17 (37).]

"This Indenture made the sixteenth day of October 1639 Betweene Sir William Willmer of Sywell in the County of North’ton knight and William Andrewe of Deinton Esquire of the one part and John Ward of Carleton Curlew in the County of Leicester Gent. and John Daunce of Castellashby in the aforesaid County of North’ton Gent. of the other part Witnesseth that the said Sir William Willmer and William Andrewe have granted bargained sold enfeoffed and confirmed unto them the said John Ward and John Daunce, etc., All that Mannor co’monly called the lord Vaux mannor al’s lord Harrowdons Mannor or Greenes Mannor lying within Great Houghton in the aforesaid County of North’ton, etc., To have and to hold, etc., for ever, etc." [Close Roll, 15 Charles I., part 10. The royal licence for this alienation was dated 15th October 1639, Patent Roll, 15 Charles I., part 17 (52).]

“Sir William Willmer, Knight, died on Saturday night, and was buried the Wednesday following, being the 22nd of "April" 1646†, at Sywell. William Wilmer, his grandson, succeeded him. The following is an abstract of Sir William's will:

10th April 1646. In the Name of God Amen, I Sir William Wilmer of Sywell, Northampton, Knight, being of good and present memory (all praise be therefore given to Almighty God) doe make and ordaine this my last Will and Testament, etc. My bodie to be buried in the Church of Siwell without the vanitie of any extraordinarie shew. And touching my worldly goods which since these sadd times have been almost all taken from me, soe that I cannot remember my particular friends and kindred as I would and as heretofore I had done by Will which I now revoke. All my goods, plate, household stuff, lands, tenements, etc., unto my grandchild, William Willmer, and his heirs for ever. He shall discharge all my just debts. To my loving daughter, the Lady Haslewood, 10/. I appoint my kinsmen, Sir Charles Adderley, Knight, and John Wyrelie, of Dodworth, co. Northampton, Esquire, my executors until my said grandchild shall accomplish the age of twenty-one. I pray my grandchild may be vertuously bredd. To each of my executors 500/.
The goods which are in the possession of Master Muttwich and his wife in my house at Sywell I bequeath to them.—[Proved by the executors 1st December 1646.—P. C. C. 194 Twisse.]

On the outbreak of the Civil War Sir William Wilmer espoused the cause of the King, and faithfully adhered to his royal master through all his troubles. He suffered heavily in consequence, for, as we have already seen, in his will he speaks of his worldly goods being almost all taken from him. In addition to this, after his death, his executors were obliged to compound for his estates in the sum of 500/. The composition would have been far heavier but for the fact that Sir William settled a large amount of his property upon his son at the time of that son's marriage in 1631 (see p. 62). Sir William himself was spared from knowing anything of the terrible tragedy which was enacted

ROBERT WILMER [VB], Esq., Lord of the Manors of Trafford and West Wardon, the only one of Sir William Wilmer's sons who left issue, was baptized 26th September 1608†, and admitted of the Middle Temple 12th April 1627. He married in 1631, Constance, elder daughter of James Enyon, Esq., Lord of the Manor of Flore, co. Northampton, by Dorothy his wife, eldest daughter of Thomas Coxe, Esq., of Bishop's Itchington, co. Warwick. A recital of the marriage settlement has already been given (see p. 62; see also p. 65).
Constance Wilmer was about fourteen years of age at this time, if we can depend upon the accuracy of the licence for her second marriage in 1641-2, in which she was stated to be of the age of twenty-four years. Her only brother, James Enyon, was created a Baronet in 1642, and was killed in a duel in the same year by Sir Nicholas Crispe. Her father, who was living in 1631, died before April 1636, and his widow married secondly John Wyrley, Esq., of Dodford, who was one of the executors of Sir William Wilmer's will. Arms of Enyon: Argent, a chevron between three ravens sable. Robert and Constance Wilmer had issue:—

I. Anne Wilmer (posthumous child), “was born " at Flower (Flore) the 31st Marche, 1636, and "died at Flower on Mundaye nyght, and buried "att Sywell on Tuesday the next day, being the 8 "day of May" 1638†.

Robert Wilmer died in the lifetime of his father, “on "Munday nyght, and was buried the next day, being Tuesday "in the night the 22nd day of December” 1635†.

"Inquisition taken at Northampton 20 April 12 Charles I. [A.D. 1635] after the death of Robert Willmer late of Sywell, Esquire, deceased, while he lived son and heir apparent of Sir William Willmer of Sywell, Knight.

"They [the Jurors] say that the aforesaid William Willner some time before the death of the aforesaid Robert Willmer was seized in his demesne as of fee of the manors of Sywell, Hanington and Trafford and of the advowson of the church of Sywell and of 20 messuages, 20 cottages, 10 tofts, 2 mills, 2 dovecotes, 20 gardens, 20 orchards, 1500 acres of land, 200 acres of meadow, 1500 acres of pasture, 100 acres of wood, 200 acres of gorse and heather, 6½ of rent, free warren and the view of frank-pledge in Sywell, Hanington, Hollcott, Meares Asheby, Overston, Earles Barton, Byfield, Trafford, Cullworth, Eydon, Hinton, Aston in le walles, Warden, Westwarden, and Chippingwarden; also of the tithes of sheaves of corn, etc., from 15 messuages, 800 acres of land, &c., in Earles Barton.

“And the said manors of Trafford and Westwarden, etc., to the said Robert Willmer for his life and after his decease to remain to the said Constance Enyon for her life and after her decease to remain to the heirs male of the said Robert Willmer upon the body of the said Constance lawfully to be begotten, remainder to the heirs male of the said Robert Willmer, remainder to the said William Willmer and to his heirs male, remainder to the said Robert Willmer and to his heirs, remainder to the said Lady Elizabeth Haslewood and to her heirs, remainder to the heirs of the said William Willmer, remainder to the said William Andrewe and his heirs male, remainder to the right heirs of the said William Willmer for ever. By virtue of which conveyance the said William Willmer, who is now alive and at Sywell aforesaid, into the manors of Sywell and Hanington entered, and is thereof seized in his demesne as of a free tenement.

“And the aforesaid Robert Willmer into the aforesaid manors of Trafford and Westwarden entered, etc.

“Robert Willmer on the 21st day of December last past died so thereof seized, after whose death the said Constance who is yet alive into all the premises conveyed entered and is yet thereof seized in her demesne as of a free tenement.

"William Willmer is son and next heir of the said Robert Willmer, and is of the age of two years six months and twenty days.

"The manor of Sywell and the premises in Sywell, Hallcott, Asheby, Meires, Overston and Eton were held of the King by knight's service in chief but by what part of a knight's fee the Jurors are ignorant, and they are worth by the year beyond reprises—5/. The manor of Hanington and the premises in Hanington were held of the most noble Spencer Earl of Northampton as of Earl's Barton called the Barons Mote in Earles Barton, viz.:—by a rent of 6s. 8d., and they are worth by the year beyond reprises—40s.

"The premises in Earles Barton were held of the King as of his manor of East Greenewich by fealty only, viz.:—in free and common socage and not in chief nor by knight's service, and by suit of court, and they are worth by the year beyond reprises—20s. The manor of Trafford and the premises in Byfeilde, Trafford, Cullworth and Eydon were held of Sir William Spencer, Baronet, as of his manor of Radson in free and common socage, viz., by fealty and a rent of 24s., and they are worth by the year beyond reprises—3l. The premises in Warden, Westwarden, Chipingwarden, Hinton and Aston in le Walles were held of the King by knight's service in chief but by what part of a knight's fee the Jurors are ignorant, and they are worth by the year beyond reprises—3l."—[Inquisition post mortem, 12 Charles I., part 3, no. 132.]

Constance Wilmer married secondly Charles Adderley, Esq., of Hams Hall, co. Warwick, widower, aged thirty. The licence was dated 4th February 1641-2, and the marriage was to be solemnized at St. Andrew's, Holborn, or St. Giles's in the Fields, London. Sir Charles Adderley, for he was knighted soon after the marriage, was one of the executors of Sir William Wilmer's will. Lady Adderley seems to have died before November 1662, for on the eighteenth of that month Sir Charles obtained a licence to marry Mrs. Frances Jesson, widow, of Coventry.

"Left by his sire, too young such loss to know,
Lord of himself;—that heritage of woe,
That fearful empire which the human breast
But holds to rob the heart within of rest!"—Byron, Lara, i, 2.

William Wilmer [VIB], Esq., of Sywell, Lord of the Manors of Sywell, Hannington, Trafford and West Wardon, was the only son of Robert Wilmer [VB], and heir to Sir William Wilmer, his grandfather. He was borne on Friday "about vii of the clock in the morning the xxxi day of May," and baptized 8th June 1633.† He was of the age of two years, six months, and twenty days at the time of his father's death.† By letters patent, dated Westminster, 16th February 1636-7, the King granted to Sir William Wilmer and Constance Wilmer, widow, the guardianship of the body and the marriage of his ward, William Wilmer.‡ He married Felicia, and had issue:

William Wilmer paid chief rent at Dodford Court in 1701 for the Trussell manor in the parish of Flore, which Baker conjectures to have been the Holton moiety of the manor of Flore. He died on Tuesday, 13th March 1705-6, and was buried on Wednesday, 21st March.

The following is an abstract of his will:

V.—William Wilmer [VIIIB], Esq., of Sywell, and of the parish of Marylebone, London, the son of William Wilmer [VIIIB], was M.P. for Northampton 1716-27 and 1734-44. He married 5th August 1720, at night, the Lady Mary Bennet, the youngest daughter of Charles, first Earl of Tankerville, K.T., by the Lady Mary Grey, his wife, only daughter and heiress of Forde, Lord Grey, of Werke, Viscount Grey, of Glendale, and Earl of Tankerville. Here lies the body of the Right Hon. Lady Mary Wilmer, daughter of the Right Hon. Charles late Earl of Tankerville and wife of William Wilmer Esq. She died May 24th 1729 in the twenty eight year of her age, leaving three sons & one daughter. This monument was set up by her said husband as a small acknowledgement for the many friendships he received from that good lady.

Arms of Bennet: Gules, a bezant between three demi-lions rampant argent; quartering Grey: Gules, a lion rampant within a bordure engrailed argent. There is in the College of Arms a bill for Lady Mary's funeral, with Wilmer impaling Bennet, dated 31st May 1729, and containing the following items:—

"2 Atch, 12 Silk, 24 Buck. Verg'd, 12 Sheilds, 6 Shaffs, 12 Long "penceils, 36 Small, 6 banners, 18 buck verg'd (more).” William and Lady Mary Wilmer had issue:

With the death of Dinah Lancaster, nee Wilmer, without surviving issue, as appears from her will, the heirs of the body of William Wilmer [VIIB], by Dinah Lancaster, his wife, became extinct. This must be so, unless Anne, the elder daughter of that alliance, married and had issue, which is improbable, seeing that she is not once mentioned in any one of the wills or administrations of her brother, sister, or nephews. Indeed, we do not hear of her after February 1704-5, at which date she is mentioned as a minor in her father's will.

The family estates seemed to have passed to a kinsman, probably a cousin, of these Wilmers, for Bridges, in his History of Northamptonshire, in 1791, speaks of the "present
"William Wilmer" as being lord of the manors of Sywell 14 and Hannington, 15 and possessing all the land in the parish of Sywell, and the advowson of the church, an estate in Flore, an estate called Thorp Lands in the parish of Moulton, and one-third of the impropriation of the Vicarage of Earls-Barton. The estate of Thorp Lands, according to Baker, who wrote in 1822, passed from the Wilmer family through various mesne conveyances to Mr. William Drage, now of Stanwick, of whom it was purchased in 1816 by Mr. Clarke Hillyard, who has since sold 50 acres to Edward Bouverie of Delapré, esq."

We have been unable to determine the parentage of this William Wilmer, or to assign to him his proper place in the pedigree. He must, we think, have been a descendant of William Wilmer [VIB] (see p. 67), and Felicia, his wife. There is nothing to show that they had only the one son, William Wilmer, who is named in the pedigree. There are several entries in the Sywell Registers relating to a certain Henry Wilmer, who might have been a son of William and Felicia Wilmer. These entries show his family to have been as follows:

HENRY WILMER, of Sywell, married Rebecca, and had issue,—

I. ROBERT WILMER, baptized 8th April 1681.
II. HENRY WILMER, baptized 10th March 1683-4.
III. WILLIAM WILMER, baptized 10th June 1688.
IV. MARK WILMER, baptized 14th August 1692.
I. SARAH WILMER, baptized 28th December 1686.
Henry Wilmer was buried 28th September 1699, and his widow, Rebecca Wilmer, was buried 28th May 1720.

It is recorded in the Gentleman's Magazine, under date 13th October 1760, that the lady of Sir William Wilmer was delivered of a son.

† Par. reg. of Sywell.
The Wilmers did not continue to reside at Sywell long after Bridges's time, for in 1806 Samuel Pell was living in the Hall, which is now used as a farmhouse. The manor of Sywell passed into the possession of Lord Overstone, and the present peer is the lord of the manor.

We cannot but feel that this is an unsatisfactory termination to the pedigree of the Sywell Wilmers. Our efforts to throw more light on the latter part of it have met with but little success. We have been denied access to parish registers, and title and other deeds which might have helped us; we have sought in vain for wills in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury; we have instituted a search among the records in the College of Arms; and we have exhausted all the other sources of information which were open to us.

Thus ends the first main division of the Wilmer family,

Requiem æternam dona eis omnibus, Domine!
Chapter VIII.

THE WILMERS AND WILMORES OF THE COUNTIES OF WARWICK, NORTHAMPTON, AND WORCESTER.

Boatus ille, qui procul negotiis,
Ut prisa gens mortalium,
Paterna rura lobus exercet suis,
Solutus omni fenore.—Horace, Epod. 2, 1.

From an early period there were settled in Warwickshire, as well as in the two adjacent counties of Northampton and Worcester, several branches of the Wilmer family, the proper place of which in the general pedigree cannot now be determined. These we shall proceed to discuss in detail. The fact that these Wilmers, speaking generally, were related to the Ryton, or chief branch of the family, and often closely related, can admit of little doubt. In some cases the relationship is stated in express terms, in others it is implied, while in almost all it is probable.

WILMER OF SOWE.

It. to John Aston, my Curate, xxd. to pray for my soule. It. to Ambrose meyre iiiid. The rest of my goods to Elizabeth my wife, and she to be sole executrix, whom I put trust in to be good to my chyldren. It. to John Aston, my Curate, xxd. to pray for my soule. It. to Ambrose meyre iiiid. Also beyng Wytness Johan Aston, my Curate, Thos. benett, Ambrose meyre, etc. [Proved in the Probate Registry at Lichfield.]

WILMER, of Sowe, married Margery, daughter of William Wilmer, of Ryton, and died before August 1558 (see p. 28).

WILLMER OF BUDBROOKE AND FULBROOKE.

In the latter part of the sixteenth century there were two brothers residing in or near Budbrooke, co. Warwick. They were:

EDWARD WILLMER, Yeoman, of Brierye Land, in the parish of Fulbrooke, who had issue by Elynor, his wife:—

I. Edward Willmer, a minor in 1617.
II. Margery Willmer, baptized 21st April 1587.
III. Alice Willmer.

The following is an abstract of Edward Willmer's will:

17th January 1616-17.—In the name of God Amen, I Edward Willmer, of Brierye land, in the parish of Fulbrooke, Yeoman, etc. My body to be buried in Norton church or churchyard. All my land to Elynor Willmer, my wife, until my son Edward come to the age of 21 years. My son Edward when he attains the age of 21, if his mother be living, to enter upon a moiety of the lands, and upon all the lands at her death, or if she die before he is 21. Edward to pay his three sisters, Margery, Alice, and Elizabeth (my daughters), 5/. apiece. To my daughter Margery my Black Heifer, to be delivered to her † Par. reg. of Budbrooke.

"after she shall next calve." Residue to my wife Elynor, and I make her sole Executrix. I appoint as Overseers, Richard Willmer, of Norton Curlen (my brother's son), and William Aynge, the younger, of Wollerton. Witnesses:—Jo. Lavender, Robert Hyggins, Richard Willmer and William Aynge. [The will is not signed by the testator. Proved 22nd July 1617, in the Consistory Court of Worcester.]

The names of the first two witnesses would suggest a connection with the Wilmers of Ryton; for Higgens and Higgenson seem to have been used interchangeably (see Visit. Northampton, 1618-19).

The second of the brothers above-mentioned was—

RICHARD WILLMORE, of Norton Curlen, in the parish of Budbrooke. He married 7th November 1568†, Audrey Cooke, and by her, who was buried 7th January 1617-18†, had issue:—

I. RICHARD WILLMORE, his heir. See below.
II. WILLIAM WILLMORE, baptized 7th October 1573‡, living in 1617.
III. THOMAS WILLMORE, living in 1625.

Richard Willmore's will was dated 5th August 1617. He directs that his body be buried in the churchyard of Budbrooke, called St. Michael. To his wife, Auderne Willmore, her diet and 40s. a year and the use of the litel garding and her chamber. Names his sons, Richard, William, and Thomas. Leaves 20l. apiece to Auderne, Elizabeth, and John Willmore, the three children of his son Richard, at 21 years of age or days of marriage. His son Richard to be sole Executor, and his neighbours John Walford and Richard Hicks to be Overseers. Witnesses:—Thomas Avinge and John Banckes. The will, which was not signed by the testator, was proved in the Consistory Court of Worcester, 6th June 1622.

RICHARD WILLMORE, Yeoman, of Norton Curlen, in the parish of Budbrooke, was the eldest son of the aforesaid Richard Willmore, of Norton Curlen. He was baptized 4th June 1570†, married, and had issue:—

† Par. reg. of Budbrooke.
1. She is called Auderne in her husband's will, and Audrey, Adrie, and Hedrise in the par. reg. of Budbrooke.

I. Richard Willmore, eldest son and heir; baptized 24th June 1603†; married 29th June 1627,† Joanna Avy. In the Budbrooke register it is recorded that "Joane Wilmore Sepult. May 25. 1640."

II. John Willmore, baptized 31st March 1605;† living in 1625.

III. William Willmore, buried 7th November 1613†.

IV. Edward Willmore, baptized 29th February 1612-13.†

I. Audrey or Auderne Willmore, married Thomas Lee, and had a son, Thomas Lee, in 1625.

II. Elizabeth Willmore, baptized 3rd January 1600-1†; living in 1625.

Richard Willmore’s will was dated 24th May 1625, and proved 10th May 1626, in the Consistory Court of Worcester. He directs that his body be buried in the churchyard of Budbrooke. Gives to Thomas Lee, in consideration of 20l., given to the testator’s daughter Audery by her grandfather, all that his land called Brierie land for seven years. To his son, John Willmer, 10l. Provides that his heire, Richard Willmore, shall maintain his said son John, and his daughter Elizabeth, etc. Names his grandchild, Thomas Lee, and his brother, Thomas Willmore. His son and heir Richard to be sole executor. Overseers:—His loving friends, John Walford and Thomas Lee. Witnesses:—John Claridge, Curat.; Thomas Sheldon, Edward Brandon, and John Richardson.

The following memoranda refer to this part of the family:—

† Par. reg. of Budbrooke.

Chapter IX.

WILMER, OF LONDON, WEST HAM, TOTTERIDGE, RIDGE, CROPREDY, AND ELLESBOROUGH, AND THE FAMILY OF CARTWRIGHT.

"Living generations thrust aside the mouldering relics of their predecessors for their own convenience, to commemorate their more immediate relatives and friends, or to enhance their own personal importance. But historians do their best to rescue, at least in part, by representation or description, the perishing memorials, and to prove that paper memorials may be more permanent than those of brass and stone."

Arms: Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or; a crescent for difference.

We now turn to record the history of the second main division of the Wilmer family, namely, the descendants of John Wilmer, the second son of Richard Wilmer of Ryton [IA], by Joane his wife, daughter of John Goodere, of Baginton (see p. 19). The son and grandson of Richard Wilmer are shrouded in obscurity. We are ignorant not only of all the facts of their lives, but even of the very name of the latter. They have mingled their bones with the dust of the ages in an unrecorded tomb.

The Harleian Manuscript 1551, contains a pedigree founded on a Visitation of Middlesex, which gives the descent of George Wilmer of West Ham from Richard Wilmer of Ryton. It is, however, difficult to determine how far this pedigree may be trusted. That the former was descended from the latter there is no doubt; for George Wilmer, the second son of the George Wilmer above-mentioned, obtained a grant of arms and a crest from William Camden, in which it is distinctly stated that he was descended from the second son of his great-great-grandfather (ab avus), Richard Wilmer of Ryton, and was consequently entitled to bear the arms of the Ryton Wilmers with a crescent for difference (see p. 11). On behalf of the Harleian pedigree, it may be said that it gives to George Wilmer, the younger, the same relationship to Richard Wilmer as that which is assigned to him by the grant of arms. But, on the other hand, it states that he was the father of Andrew and Thomas Wilmer, who were in reality his brothers. The descent, then, is as follows, the statements that are made on the authority of the Manuscript being printed in italics:—

I.—John Wilmer [IIIC], the second son of Richard Wilmer, of Ryton, and Joane Goodere, his wife, married a daughter of Watts, whose arms were:—Ermine, on a chief gules two billets or; and had a son,

II. — Wilmer [IIIC] who married a daughter of Hills, whose arms were:—Argent, a fess between six martlets gules, and had issue:—

III.—I. George Wilmer. See below, III.

II. John Wilmer, of Shrewley, co. Warwick; of whom presently (see chapter XIII).

III. Richard Wilmer, living in January 1593-4; married, and had issue.

IV. William Wilmer, living in January 1593-4; married, and had issue.

The order in which these brothers should be placed is wholly uncertain. Richard and William are mentioned in the will of

2. These are given in Burke's General Armory as the arms of Watts, of Norfolk.
their brother George, who, after naming his brother, John Wilmer of Shrewley, adds "every of the rest of the children of brethren, "and sisters not named." One of these brethren may have been a certain Andrew Wilmer, of Stratford-le-Bow, administration of whose goods was granted to his son, Andrew Wilmer, 5th June 1605.3

We have no evidence to enable us to determine where Wilmer [HIC] lived, but it would not surprise us if it were proved to have been in the immediate neighbourhood of Warwick. At the villages of Budbrooke and Sherborne, which lay a little to the south of that city, several families of Wilmers were dwelling at that time; and at Shrewley, only a few miles distant, Wilmer's son John was residing. We shall now proceed to speak of the first of the four brothers above-mentioned, namely:—

III.—George Wilmer [IVC], Esq., of West Ham, co. Essex, and of St. Mary's, Aldermanbury, London. He married first Susan, whose sister married Hugh Bullocke, Citizen and Haberdasher, of the parish of St. Andrew Undershaft, London. Hugh Bullocke's will was dated 20th July 1618, and proved 27th October 16183a (with a codicil, dated 22nd October 1618). He names his "cozin George Wilmer Esquire, my sayed late wyves "sisters sonne," his "cozin Thomas Willmer," his "cosin S: "Anthony Weldon K' & Hellen his wife." The Harleian MS., from which we have been quoting, states that Susan Wilmer was a daughter of Cole, and assigns to her the arms: Or, a bull passant within a bordure sable bezantee, armed or. The family of Cole, of London, and of Slade, co. Devon, bore the same arms, with the exception that in their case the field was argent. By her George Wilmer had issue:—

IV.—I. ANDREW WILMER. See below, IV.

II. GEORGE WILMER, of Stratford-le-Bow; ancestor of the Wilmers of Stratford-le-Bow and Yorkshire (see chapter V.)

III. THOMAS WILMER, of Stratford-le-Bow and Bromley St. Leonard's; ancestor of the Wilmers of Barking (see chapter XII.)

I. A DAUGHTER, married prior to January 1593-4, Smythe, of Plumstead, co. Kent (see p. 96).

II. ALICE WILMER, under sixteen years of age in January 1593-4.

III. ELEANOR WILMER, baptized at St. Mary's, Aldermanbury, London, 2nd February 1586-7; married Sir Anthony Weldon, Knt., Lord of the Manor of Swanscombe, co. Kent, and Clerk of the Kitchen to King James I. He was the eldest son of Sir Ralph Weldon, Knt., Clerk of the Kitchen to Queen Elizabeth, Clerk Comptroller to King James I., and Clerk of the Board of Green Cloth, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Levin Bufkin, Esq. Sir Anthony and Lady Weldon had, with four daughters, eight sons, of whom the eldest was Ralph Weldon, Esq., of Swanscombe.⁵ Arms of Weldon:—Per fess guules and argent, in chief a demi-lion issuant of the second and in base a cinquefoil of the first; crest:—The bust of Queen Elizabeth proper; motto:—Bene factum. Lady Weldon died 15th November 1622, and was buried in Swanscombe church. There is a small monument to her memory on the south side of the chancel, with a coloured portraiture of her kneeling in prayer before a desk, and the following inscription:—

⁴ Edward Smith and Anthony Weldon were witnesses to the will of George Wilmer, of Stratford-le-Bow, in 1626 (see p. 117).

⁵ Andrew Wilmer, her brother, in his will, names his sister Kirrington (and her son, Henry Stotford); it is probable, therefore, that Alice Wilmer married a person of that name, unless her elder sister married a second time. Neither of the sisters of Andrew Wilmer's wife answered to the description of 'sister Kirrington.'

HISTORY OF THE WILMER FAMILY.

Here lyeth the body of Dame Elinor Weldon daughter to George Wilmer Esq. and wife to Sir Anthony Weldon by whom she had eught sons and fourer daughters whereof six sons and fourer daughters living who after she had lived vertuously with her husband near twenty yeares dyed the 15 of November 1622 æt. svæ 36 in memory of whose vertuous life and godly end her husband hath erected this small monument.

George Wilmer married secondly Anne, by whom he had no issue. She married secondly Sir Robert Needham, Knt., and died about 1625.

On the 19th of August 1566 George Wylmar, of Barking, Baker, and John Franck, of Stratford-le-Bow, Baker, acknowledged that they jointly and severally owed 300l. to William Steadman, of Barking, Yeoman. It is possible that this George Wylmar was identical with George Wilmer [IVC], of West Ham, whom we find purchasing the reversion of land in Barking of John Francke in 1584. From the Proceedings in Chancery, 15th October 1604, in the case of Thorowgood versus Wilmore, it appears that John Francke, who is there described as of Elkington, co. Lincoln, Yeoman, had, shortly before the conveyance, leased the land for twenty-one years to William Thorowgood, Citizen and Merchant Taylor of London, by virtue of a licence from the lord of the manor of Barking. A Fine was passed, 12th November 1578, between George Wilmer, querent, and Charles Cutler, Esq., and Susannah his wife, deforciant, of a moiety of the manor of Ramsden Barrington, in the parish of Ramsden Belhouse, co. Essex. In 1585-6 a royal licence was granted to John Bales, Gent., to enable him to convey to George Wilmer and Hugh Bullocke 32 acres of marsh land, commonly called Wetfield or Whetfeld Clayes, lying in Trinity Marsh, West Ham, and held of the Queen in capite. By an indenture, dated 20th June 1588, John Collyne, of High Laver, and Nicholas Collyne, of Little Laver, co. Essex, for 400L, conveyed to "George Wilmore of Westhame, in the said Countie, "gent., and Alice Wilmore, Ellynor Wilmore and George "Wilmore, the daughters and sonne of Susane the wief of the "said George Wilmore thelder * All the marshe ground or "meadow * known by the name of Tunne marshe * in Easthame * "To have and to hold * unto the said George Wilmore thelder "for life, after his decease unto the said Alice Wilmore & the "heirs of the body of the said Alice lawfully to be begotten & "for defaulte of such yssue unto the said Ellynor and the heirs "of her body, etc., and for defaulte, etc., unto the said George "the younger and the heirs of his body, etc., and for default, "etc., to the right heirs of the said George Wilmore the elder, "etc., for ever". In the parishes of High Laver and Moreton, co. Essex, there were some farms, called 'Willmore's Farms,' which were in the possession of William St. Quintin in 1620. On the 15th of February 1587-8, George Wilmore, of Essex, contributed 25L towards the defence of this country on the occasion of its invasion by the Spanish Armada. He died 30th January 1593-4. The following extracts are taken from his will:—

The s^d George Wyllmer died on the 30th day of January last past. And that the s^d George Wyllmer, junior, and Elizabeth Lyvinge being seized conjointly with the s^d George Wyler, senior, of the premises, as is set forth, have survived him, and are living at the present time, viz., the afores^d George Wyllmer, junior, at London afores^d, and the afores^d Elizabeth Lyvinge at ___ in the county of Lincoln.

"And that Andrew Wyllmer is the son and next heir of the s^d George Wyler, senior, and was at time of the death of the s^d George Wyllmer of the age of twenty-seven years and more. In witness whereof, etc." [Inquisition post mortem, 36 Elizabeth, part 1, no. 65.]

IV.—Andrew Wilmer [VC], Esq., of the City of London, and of Totteridge, co. Hertford, the eldest son of George Wilmer [IVC], was of the age of "twenty-seven years "and more" in January 1593-4. He married Mary, daughter of the Reverend Thomas Cartwright (see p. 111), Master of the Earl of Leicester’s Hospital at Warwick, the "Father of the "Puritans," and had issue:—

V.—I. SAMUEL WILMER. See below, V.

II. ANDREW WILMER, baptized 13th November 1597†; buried 30th April 1605, "in the south "Allie against the Middell Piller†."

III. NATHANIEL WILMER, baptized 10th October 1599†; buried 22nd October 1602, "in ye South "Alley against the Middell Piller†."

IV. JOHN WILMER, of Cropredy (see p. 106).

V. THOMAS WILMER, a minor in 1624.

VI. ANDREW WILMER, baptized 23rd November 1606†.

I. MARY WILMER, baptized 28th June 1601†; married prior to 1621, John Vaux, Esq., of † Par. reg. of St. Mary’s, Stratford-le-Bow.

HISTORY OF THE WILMER FAMILY.

Whipsnade, co. Bedford, J.P. (son of Robert Vaux, of Whipsnade, by Elizabeth Heriot, his wife), and had a son, John Vaux, who was aged about fourteen years in 1634, and six daughters, Elizabeth, Mary, Alice, Margaret, Martha and Hannah. By an Indenture, made 29th June 1650, John Vaux and his brother-in-law, John Wilmer, of the Middle Temple, for 467l. 10s. od., sold to Mathew Dennys, of Kempston, co. Bedford, Yeoman, forty-two acres and two and a half rods of arable land in the common fields of Kempston, being part of an ancient farm belonging to John Vaux. Arms of Vaux: Argent, a bend chequée or and gules, a crescent for difference.

II. Elizabeth Wilmer, a minor in 1624. She seems to have married a Mr. Woodroff; and her brother, John Wilmer, in his will, names his 'Sister Woodrofe.' This person was probably Thomas Woodroff, and a son of Nicholas Woodroff, of Cropredy, and Martha Cartwright, his wife, and consequently cousin-german to Elizabeth Wilmer. In 1645-6 a fine was passed between John Willmore and Nathaniel Micklethwaite, querents, and Thomas Woodroff and Elizabeth his wife and William Woodroff, deforciants, of a moiety of 14 messuages and 4 stables in the parishes of St. Stephen, Coleman Street, and St. Olave, Jewry, London.

By an Indenture, made 6th February 1588-9, Richard Stonley, of the City of London, for 40l., sold to Andrew Wilmore, son of George Wilmore, and his heirs, "all that marsh or parcell

"of marshe grounde and the fishinge and the fyshinge grounde "comonlye called * Westham Fletesmouth conteynyng * "seaven acres * with the walles and shores belonginge * to the "same. And also all that Reede grounde or Shore * on the "East side of the saide Marshe conteynyng * two acres * in "Westham and Eastham * now in the tenure or occupacion of "the saide George Wilmore * or of the saide Richard Stonley," and also other marshes in West Ham and East Ham, "whereof "one piece * lyeth in * Bennetts fielde and the residue thereof "lyeth there * betweene the said fielde called Bennetts fielde on "the southe part and the landes late of Robte Christendome on "the north parte and extendeth in length from the * hyghe waye "called Grenestrete towards the East unto the landes late of the "saide Robert Christendome on the Weste * & parcells of "uplande grounde * over agaynste Plashette in Eastham19."

These lands were held of the Queen in capite, and Andrew Wilmer purchased them without the licence of the Crown for the alienation having been previously obtained; we therefore find him paying 10s. for a royal pardon, which was granted by Letters Patent, dated 5th June 159420. In 1596-7 he paid 35.4d. for the licence of the Crown to convey these premises to Thomas Fanshawe, Esq., John Strowde, Esq., John Wilmer, Gent., and Hugh Bullocke21. This must have been very shortly after his marriage, and the grantees were probably foecoffees in trust. By an Indenture, made 7th February 1623-4, Andrew Wilmer and Mary his wife and Anne Lockey, widow of William Lockey, of Holmes Hill, co. Hertford, and Nicholas Woodroff, of Cropredy, and Martha his wife, for 1270l., sold to Nicholas Freeman, of Ipswich, Merchant, the manor of Swannes alias Swans alias Swanes, co. Suffolk22.

Andrew Wilmer died in August 1624. His will was dated 3rd August 1624, and proved 20th August 162423. He bequeathings to his wife lands in West Ham, and also his house at Stratford-le-Bow for life, with remainder to his son Samuel and his heirs, and for default of such heirs, to his son Andrew. To his son John certain messuages in Horne Alley and Angel Alley, London; and leasehold land at Fillongley, in Warwickshire. To his son Thomas 120l. when 21. To his daughter Elizabeth 100l. when 21. To his daughter Vaux his "best standing cuppe "guilt imbossed." He leaves legacies to Mrs. Rogers, wife and widow of Rev. Rogers, of Stratford Bowe; to Mr. Ward, Minister of Hatton in Warwickshire; to Mr. Morreson, of Tottridge; to Mr. Bowman, of Redborne; to Mr. Robert Smith, dwelling near to Morgate, London, Preacher; to Mr. Rush, Preacher, North Mymms; to Mr. Wyng, Preacher; and to Mr. Allen, Braintree, Essex, Preacher. He names his mother, Dame Anne Nedham, the now wife of Sir Robert Nedham, Knt.; his brother, Thomas Wilmer; his sister Kirrington (see p. 93n), and her son, Henry Stotford; Mr. Thomas Fanshawe, Esq.; and his cousins, John Wilmer, of Norrell, and Francis Fuller24, Esq. The witnesses to the will were: Josyas Marryson and John Terry.

V.—Samuel Wilmer [VIC], Esq., of London, and of Ridge, co. Hertford, the eldest son of Andrew Wilmer [VC], was baptized 25th August 1596†, and admitted of the Inner Temple 25th May 1614. He married Anne Basill, who was a minor in July 1626‡. A fine was passed in the Octave of the Purification 1623-4, between Elizabeth Basill, Widow, and Robert Raynsford, Gent., querents, and Andrew Wilmer, Esq., and Mary his wife, and Samuel Wilmer, Gent., deforciants, of land and marsh in East Ham and West Ham25. Samuel and Anne Wilmer had issue:—

24. George Wilmer, of West Ham, and Ester Fuller, of the parish of St. Dionis Back Church, London, were married at the church of the latter parish, 12th June 1592. We are unable to say who this George Wilmer was.
HISTORY OF THE WILMER FAMILY.

I. SAMUEL WILMER, mentioned in Harleian MS. no. 1551, but not named in his father's will.

III. THOMAS WILMER.

I. ANNE WILMER, baptized 7th January 1624-5; married Thompson.

II. ELIZABETH WILMER, married John Cawne.

III. MARY WILMER, married Joseph Hinton.

IV. MARTHA WILMER, married Lane.

V. PRUDENCE WILMER.

VI. MARGARET WILMER.

Samuel Wilmer was summoned to Totteridge with other Hertfordshire gentlemen to lend 10l. to King Charles the First.

A fine was passed in fifteen days from St. Martin's Day 1628, between John Lockey, Gent., querent, and Samuel Wilmer, Esq., and Anne his wife, deforciant, of land and marsh in Eastham. This John Lockey was no doubt the son of William Lockey, of Holmes Hill, and own cousin to Samuel Wilmer (see p. 111).

By an Indenture, dated 21st October 1633, Samuel Wilmer, for 150l., granted to Thomas Roper, of London, Gent., on mortgage, a new house, garden, and bowling alley, in Horne Alley, Aldersgate Street, London.

His will was dated 2nd January 1659-60, and proved 5th March 1677-8, by John Cawne, the executor. He bequeath to his son-in-law, John Cawne, and Elizabeth, his wife (the

I.—John Wilmer [VII], Esq., of London, and of Cropredy, co. Oxford, the fourth son of Andrew Wilmer [VC] (see p. 101), was baptized 10th February 1604-5†, and admitted of the Inner Temple 27th May 1625. He married Mary, daughter of John Sadler, Esq., of Chilton-Foliatt and Wroughton, in Wiltshire, and Alice his wife, and had issue:—

I. ANDREW WILMER. By an Indenture, dated 14th November 1649, Anthony Luther, of Miles, co. Essex, Esq., and John Sadler, junior, of Chilton[-Foliatt], in Wiltshire, Gent., aliened, granted, and sold to John Wilmer, of Cropredy, and William Hitchcock, of London, certain messuages in Horshead Alley, in Southwark, to have and to hold to the said John Wilmer and William Hitchcock, to the use of the said Anthony Luther for life, and then to the use of Andrew Wilmer, the eldest son of the said John Wilmer, and his heirs for ever.

between Richard Beresford, Esq., and Nicholas Gregson, querents, and John Wilmer, and Mary Wilmer, Widow, deforciants, of certain messuages, etc., in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldersgate, London. John and Mary Wilmer had, with other issue, a daughter:—

i. BRIDGET WILMER, married, subsequently to October 1704, Raye, who died before April 1709. It is possible that she married secondly Matthews, for the Reverend Cartwright Wilmer, in his will (see p. 110) names his niece, Bridget Matthews, who, by her will, gave him certain messuages in Horne and Angel Alleys, in Aldersgate Street, London.

John Wilmer was buried at West Ham, 3rd October 1704, and administration was granted to his daughter, Bridget Wilmer, 31st October 1704. There is, in the College of Arms, a bill for his funeral, bearing date 3rd October 1704, on which are painted the arms of Wilmer, impaling those of Beresford: Argent, a bear rampant sable, muzzled, chained, and ringed or.

Administration of the goods of his widow, Mary Wilmer, was granted 5th April 1709, to her daughter, Bridget Raye, Widow.

III. THOMAS WILMER, baptized 2nd March 1644.

IV. William Wilmer, baptized 28th May 1648.

1679; will dated 2nd May 1679; proved 28th June 1680, by his mother, Mary Wilmer, the sole executrix. He mentions his brother John Wilmer’s wife and her three children; his sister Proctor’s four children; and his brother and sister Taylor and their two children.

VII. George Wilmer, named in the will of his grandfather, John Sadler, dated 30th August 1650.

I. Mary Wilmer, baptized 20th September 1651; married John Taylor, junior, of Lincoln’s Inn, London, bachelor, aged 35. The licence for this marriage to be solemnized at St. Martin’s-in-the-Fields, or St. Margaret’s, Westminster, or the New Chapel in Tuthill Fields, Middlesex, was dated 15th May 1675. They were both living in 1679, and had two children.

II. Bridget Wilmer, named in the will of her grandfather, John Sadler, in 1650.

Mrs. Mary Wilmer was described at the time of her daughter Mary’s marriage, as of the parish of St. Margaret Moses, London, widow, and was living in 1690.

John Wilmer was seized of several messuages in Horne Alley, and Angel Alley, in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldersgate, London, which were bequeathed to him by his father. In 1630, Anne Scott claimed these tenements, and filed a bill in Chancery, to which John Wilmer, who was one of the defendants, made the following answer, 13th November, 1630:

“This Defendant saith that true it is that Jonas Scott about 25 Eliz. was seized of divers messuages, etc., in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldersgate and in or near unto Horne Alley and Angell Ally as in the Bill is alledged. John Tyrowe was [afterwards] lawfully seized of the said messuages and about April 36 Elizabeth did grant the said messuages, etc., unto George Willmer then of London, esquire, now deceased and to his heirs for ever. About 28 April A.D. 1593 the said George Willmer did devise the said messuages, etc., after the death of Anne his then wife without issue by him unto Andrew Willmer his eldest son and to his heirs for ever. Shortly after the said George died, after whose decease the remainder expectant after the death of his said wife descended to the said Andrew and his heirs. And he the said Andrew did about 9 Aug. 21 James I by his Will devise the remainder of the said messuages, etc., unto this Defendant (being one of the sons of the said Andrew). The said Anne about five years past died.

John Wilmer's will was dated 27th January 1652-3, and proved 28th April 1655. He names his sister, Elizabeth Woodroffe; his 'cosen,' Bridget Stanne; and his kinsman, Mr. Nicholas Gregson, of London, Gentleman.

II.—Cartwright Wilmer [VID], Clerk in Holy Orders, of Ellesborough, co. Buckingham, the fifth son of John Wilmer [VID], was baptized 24th June 1649; matriculated at Queen's College, Oxford, 9th April 1666; B.A. 26th October 1669; and of Hart Hall, Oxford, M.A., 7th June 1672. He was curate of Ellesborough, and was inducted to the Rectory of that parish 9th October 1686, on the presentation of Robert Wallis, who was probably his brother-in-law. He married 11th August 1684 Frances, daughter of the Reverend Robert Wallis, the preceding Rector. She was baptized 30th April 1667. They had issue:

I. ANDREW WILMER, baptized 22nd May 1685; buried 26th April 1686, 'in woollen.'

II. LUTHER WILMER, baptized 7th March 1686-7; buried 24th April 1687, 'in woollen.'

IV. John Wilmer. See below, III.

V. Cartwright Wilmer, Esq., of the parish of St. Michael, Cornhill, London, baptized 15th June 1701; married and died sine prole superstite. Administration of his goods was granted 20th April 1765\(^2\), to Peter-Robert Luard, a creditor.

I. Mary Wilmer, of the parish of St. Helen, London, baptized 30th May 1692; married by licence at St. Antholin's, Budge Row, London, 14th October 1725, Roger Ryland, Gent., of Christ Church, London, and had a daughter:

i. Susannah Ryland, of the parish of St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, living in 1769.

Cartwright Wilmer was buried 31st January 1721-2, 'in woollen.'\(^1\) His will was dated 27th May 1721, and proved 16th February 1721-2\(^2\). He names his niece, Bridget Matthews (see p. 107). Mrs. Wilmer was buried 9th September 1728, 'in woollen.'\(^1\) Her will, in which she is described as of the parish of Christ Church, London, was dated 14th March 1725-6, and proved 11th December 1728\(^1\).

It has been said that she was also his heiress; and it appears that Mr. John-Wilmer Field, a descendant of this marriage, claimed the right of quartering the arms of Baskerville and Kynsey. In the College of Arms there is a bill without a date "for the flanerall of Mr. Wilmer's Child at Bow," which bears the arms: Quarterly, 1st, Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or (Wilmer); 2nd, Argent, a chevron between three leaves vert (\textit{query} Shore); 3rd, Argent, three hurt; (evidently intended for Baskerville); 4th, Argent, on a chevron gules between three squirrels a mullet (Kynsey) [Painter's Work Book, I. B. 1, p. 18]. The arms of Wilmer in the bill did not belong to, but were often used by this branch of the family (see p. 13).

He was seized in 1728 of the manor of Upper Helmsley, as heir-at-law to his nephew, Thomas Wilmer (see p. 126). He died 4th May 1737, aged 80, and was buried in a vault in Walthamstow Church, where there is the following inscription to his memory:

_In a Vault underneath yere who departed this Life the 4 of May in the year of our Lord 1737 Aged 78._

The arms on the tablet are: A chevron between three eagles, a crescent for difference; crest: Issuing from a mural coronet an eagle displayed, John Wilmer's will was dated 30th August 1736, and from it we extract the following passage as illustrative of the descent of the manor of Upper Helmsley:

"Imprimis All my manor or reputed manor or Lordship of Upper Helmsley alias Helmsly alias Upper Helmsley etc, in Co. York with all and every the rights members and appurtenances whatsoever the Cottages Messuages Houses Edifices Lands Tenements and hereditaments appertaining etc. I give and bequeath to my nephew Randall Wilmer and John Wilmer gentlemen jointly paying out of it yearly as follows Item to my nephew Mr. Peter Cartwright £25 every half year after my decease, all but the first half year which I order to be paid to Mr Henry Norcott carpenter Item I give and bequeath to my niece Mary Cartwright £5 every half year during her life and if single. And I doe further allow to my nephew Randall and John if either or both have a mind to marry may make a settlement of their part of the estate to his wife during her life and no longer. And in case my nephew Randall Wilmer marries and should leave an heir male then the whole estate to go to him after my nephew John Wilmer's decease and his wife if any, but if no heir male then to an heir male of John Wilmer. But if neither leave an heir male but a Daughter or daughters then the estate to be equally divided amongst them. And in case neither of them leaves a Son or Sons or a daughter or daughters then to go to my nephew George Wilmer's three daughters equally. And out of my personal estate I give to my nephew George Wilmer and his daughter Lucy £25 each for a Ring and to my niece Ann Gossip and her husband £25 each for a Ring." [Probate granted to Randall Wilmer, the executor, 7th May 1737. P.C.C. 123 Wake.]

I. REBECCA WILMER, born and baptized 8th April 1652†; died unmarried; administration granted to her father 9th March 1677-85.

II. MARGARET WILMER, born 18th April 1655; baptized 22nd April†; married first Richard Parry, of the parish of Allhallows, Barking, Merchant, Bachelor, aged thirty years; licence, dated 6th February 1679-80, for this marriage to be solemnized at St. Mary's Somerset, or Allhallows in The Wall, London, or at Stepney, Middlesex². Margaret Parry married secondly, after 1686, Sir Robert Beachcroft, Knt., Alderman of London, and Lord Mayor in 1712, son of Daniel Beachcroft, Gent., of Derby²³. Sir Robert died in 1721, presumably without issue, for by his will, dated 29th May 1719, and proved 2nd June 1721²⁴, he bequeaths the bulk of his property to Samuel Beachcroft, the son of his deceased brother, Samuel Beachcroft; he names his dear wife Dame Margarett, upon whom before marriage he settled his manor of Preston for life; he leaves 10/ each for mourning to his brother-in-law Mr. John Willmer, and his cousins, Peter Cartwright and Mary Cartwright; and legacies for rings to his cousins, Peter, Thomas, Mary, Rebecca, and Olive Cartwright, to his cousin, George Willmer, and to his brother, John Willmer. In the College of Arms there is a bill for Sir Robert's funeral, dated 5th June 1721. Arms of Beachcroft: Bendy of six argent and gules three stags' heads cabossed or; crest: A beach tree proper behind six park pales argent. Dame Margaret, his widow, made her will 10th June 1721, “being "weak in body." She describes herself as of Low Leyton, co. Essex, widow, and leaves all her estate to her brother, John Wilmer. The will was proved by him as executor, 26th February 1727-8. She desires to be buried in a private manner near her dear husband, Sir Robert Beachcroft.

III. MARY WILMER, born 3rd October 1660; baptized 6th October†; married Peter Cartwright, Gent., of St. Dunstans-in-the-East, London, Bachelor, aged thirty-five years; licence, dated 14th July 1684, for this marriage to be solemnized at St. Leonard's, Shoreditch, or Stepney, or Edmonton, Middlesex. They had a son, PETER CARTWRIGHT, who was living in 1736 (see p. 119), and died before January 1748-9; and a daughter, MARY CARTWRIGHT, who was living at the latter date. It would appear from the will of Sir Robert Beachcroft that they had other children, namely, THOMAS, REBECCA, and OLIVE CARTWRIGHT. The following is an extract from the proceedings in a suit respecting a pew in the chapel of St. Mary at Stratford-le-Bow:

[Rawlinson MS. 377, fo. 264, Bodleian Library, Oxford.]

On the 6th of January 1650-1, George Wilmer, for 260l., sold to Edward Sammes, of Goodmaces in the parish of Barking, lands in Barking, called by the name of Coveland or Coleland (see p. 68). Some little time after this he purchased the manors of Bloys and Graveshalles or Grassalls lying in the parishes of Sible Hedingham and Castle Hedingham, co. Essex. The purchase money was 1361l., and the vendors were Sir Edward Greene, Bart., of Sampford in Essex, and his son and heir, Sir Edward Greene, Knt., of London. Graveshalles took its name from its ancient owners, surnamed de Grosvassal or de Graveshall, who held it from the time of Henry II. to that of Henry IV., under the Earls of Oxford as of their Honour of Castle Hedingham. It was in the possession of Thomas Rolfe of Gosfield about the time of Henry V., and the next owner was William Greene, Esq., who obtained it by his marriage with Margaret, daughter and heiress of William Bateman, Esq., of Little Sampford, who is supposed to have been the representative of the Graveshall family. Bloyes belonged of old to the de Veres, Earls of Oxford, and was, like Graveshalles, part of their Honour of Hedingham Castle. It was held under them by a family of the name of Balcus, which name was changed afterwards to Bloyes. The manor was in the possession of Bartholomew, third Baron Burghersh, and passed afterwards to the Greene family.

George Wilmer died in 1686. His will was dated 13th November 1684, and proved 8th April 1687. He desires "to be buried in the Chappell of Stratford le Bow where the corps of my dear wife lyeth."

III.—Kendall Willmer [VIE], Esq., of Stratford-le-Bow and the city of York, and Lord of the Manors of Upper Helmsley, Bloyes, and Grassalls, was the son of George Wilmer [VIE]. He had a grant of the office of collector of the petty customs on strangers in the port of London, commonly called the cocket seal, for life, dated 4th July 1670. His first wife was Dorothy, seventh daughter of Sir Gilbert Cornewall, Baron of Burford in Shropshire, and of Lady Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Reade, Knt., of Barton in Berkshire. The Cornewalls, Barons of Burford, were lineal descendants of Richard de Cornewall, illegitimate son of Richard Plantagenet, King of the Romans and Earl of Poictou and Cornwall, who was the younger son of King John. Arms of Cornewall: Ermine, a lion rampant gules, crowned or, within a bordure sable bezantée. Dorothy Cornewall was baptized at Burford, 2nd January 1643, and was married subsequently to the 25th of October 1675. In the Octave of St. Hilary 1675-6, a Fine was passed between Richard Winwood, Esq., Compton Read, Bart., and William Serjeant, Esq., querents, and George, Rebecca, and Randall Wilmer, deforciants, of the manors of Bloys and Grassalls. This was, no doubt, a conveyance in trust in consideration of the marriage. Dorothy Cornewall was sister-in-law and first cousin (as well by her father as by her mother) to Sir Compton Reade. By Randall Wilmer she had an only child:

She died about September 1678, and letters of administration, in which she was described as of Brainford, in the parish of Ealing, were granted to her husband 19th November 1678. The following is the Heralds' bill for her funeral:

II. John Wilmer, Esq., of the city of York, baptized at Upper Helmsley, 8th May 1697. On the 29th April 1719, having lately attained his majority, he executed a deed of release on behalf of the trustees appointed in his father's will. He had a life interest in a moiety of the manor of Upper Helmsley, under the will of his uncle, John Wilmer, of Walthamstow. He died unmarried 14th February 1761, aged 63, and was buried at Upper Helmsley on the 18th of the same month; M.I.'s in the church and churchyard. His will was dated 18th December 1758, and administration granted 17th May 1762, to his kinsman, Nicholas Suger.

I. Mary Wilmer, of the city of York. Having attained her majority, she executed a deed of release, dated 5th June 1714, on behalf of the trustees appointed in her father's will; died unmarried 5th September 1723, aged thirty-three; buried 7th September in the middle aisle of St. Michael-le-Belfrey's, York; M.I.

Mrs. Wilmer died 5th July 1701, and was buried 12th July in the middle aisle of St. Michael-le-Belfrey's, York, where there is the following half-obliterated inscription:

Randall Wilmer married thirdly at St. Mary's, Castlegate, York, 6th August 1707, Isabel Wood, and had issue:

I. THOMAS WILMER, Esq., of Catterick, co. York, Lord of the Manor of Upper Helmsley, baptized at St. Mary's, Castlegate, 8th October 1709. His will was dated 25th June 1728, and proved 15th July 1728. He names his uncles, David and William Wood; his aunt Brown, and her husband, Thomas Brown, of Catterick; and his half-brother, Francis Wilks. At his death Upper Helmsley passed to his uncle and heir-at-law, John Wilmer, of Walthamstow (see p. 119).

I. ISABEL WILMER, baptized at St. Mary's, Castlegate, 15th March 1707-8.

Randall Wilmer, "considering the uncertainty and frailty " of human life," made his will 10th February 1710-11, and it was proved 15th May 1712. He bequeathed the manor of Upper Helmsley to his youngest son, Thomas Wilmer, having on a previous occasion settled the manors of Bloys and Grassalls on his eldest son, George Wilmer. He was buried at St. Mary's, Castlegate, York, 29th March 1712. His widow, Isabel, married secondly, in 1712 or 1713, Richard Wilks, Gent., of Tunstall, co.

37. At York, vol. 68, fo. 46. Some disputes arose concerning this will between Isabel Wilmer, the widow and executrix, and her stepson, George Wilmer. The latter entered a caveat in the Ecclesiastical Court of York; but eventually the differences were settled by a composition made by Indentures, bearing date 9th, 10th, and 11th April 1712.
York, who was one of the trustees appointed in the will of Randall Wilmer. They had a son, Francis Wilks, and a daughter, Isabel Wilks. The will of Richard Wilks was dated 17th March 1718-19, and proved 10th June 1726. It makes no mention of his wife.

IV.—George Wilmer [VIII], Esq., of London and York, Lord of the Manors of Bloys and Grassalls, an officer in the Guards, son of Randall Wilmer [VII], was born 16th December 1676, and was admitted of the Middle Temple, London, 23rd January 1693. He married at St. Olave's, Mary-gate, York, 4th September 1701, Anne, daughter and heiress of Lewis Etherington, Gent., of Rillington, co. York, and had issue:—

I. George Wilmer, baptized at St. Michael-le-Belfrey's, York, 1st January 1704-5; admitted of the Middle Temple 27th April 1723; and died, in his father's lifetime, 1731.

V.—II. ANNE WILMER. See below, VI.

III. REBECCA WILMER, died unmarried in 1736.

IV. KATHERINE WILMER, baptized at St. Michael-le-Belfrey's, 12th November 1706; probably died young.

V. LUCY WILMER, baptized at St. Michael-le-Belfrey's, 16th December 1707; married, by licence, at York Minster, 26th October 1749, James Nelthorpe, Esq., lord of the manors of Seacroft, co. York, and of Countesbridge, co. Essex. He was a son of George Nelthorpe, Esq., of the former place; and was born about 1719, and died without issue in 1768. His will was dated 3rd March 1768. He desired to be buried as near as might be to his wife, in the churchyard of Whitkirk, co. York.

George Wilmer died 15th March 1743-4, and was buried in York Minster 18th March. His will was dated 19th November 1740, and proved at York, 20th April 1744, and at London 8th May 1744. He appointed his daughter Lucy sole executrix. His wife probably predeceased him, for she is not mentioned in his will.

V. — Anne Wilmer [IXE], the second daughter and coheiress of George Wilmer [VIIIIE], married at York Minster, 13th November 1731, William Gossip 41, Esq., of Thorp Arch, co. York. He was the only son of William Gossip, of York, and Susanna, his wife, and was born 6th March 1704. Arms of Gossip: Per fess indented argent and sable a pale counterchanged; three goats' heads erased, two and one, azure, and as many crosses patée fitchée, one and two, of the first; crest: Two goats' heads erased, addorsed, the dexter one azure, the sinister one argent; motto: Prospice respice. William and Anne Gossip had issue:—

VI. WILMER GOSSIP, Esq., of Thorp Arch, born 25th March 1742; baptized 25th April; married, 18th September 1770, his cousin Anne, elder daughter and coheiress of Randall Wilmer, Esq., of York and Upper Helmsley (see p. 139), and had an only child, LUCY GOSSIP, who died in 1772. Wilmer Gossip was seized in fee simple of a moiety of the manor of Upper Helmsley, which was conveyed to him and his heirs by his wife, when she attained her majority, in accordance with the covenants of their marriage settlement, which was dated 10th May 1770. Jane Wilmer, mother-in-law of Wilmer Gossip, had a life interest in a moiety of this moiety, which, however, she resigned to him in 1787. Wilmer Gossip died 19th February 1790, having predeceased his wife, who married again (see p. 139). His will was dated 21st February 1788, and a codicil 19th April 1789. The greater part of his estates passed to William Gossip, the elder son of his brother Thomas.

Chapter XI.

FIELD, WHITTELL, AND HERBERT, OF UPPER HELMSLEY; AND THE FAMILIES OF PARSONS, DUNCOMBE, AND FITZGERALD.

"If any there be which are desirous to be strangers in their own soil & foreigners in their own citie, they may so continue, and therein flatter themselves; for suchlike I have not written these lines, nor taken these pains."

Arms of Randall Wilmer: Gules, a chevron argent between three eagles or, armed and langued sable; Crest: An eagle displayed or, armed and langued sable, holding in his beak a garland of laurel proper. The arms and crest are charged with a crescent for difference.

Randall Wilmer [VIII], Esq., of Staple Inn, London, and of the city of York, the eldest son of Randall Wilmer [VII], by Sarah Stainforth, his second wife (see p. 125), was baptized at St. Mary's, Stratford-le-Bow, 18th March 1690-1. He married at York Minster, 5th January 1748-9, Jane, the 1 The marriage settlement was dated 3 Jan. 1748-9; and by it and an indenture, dated the previous day, Randall Wilmer conveyed his moiety of the manor of Upper Helmsley to his brother, John Wilmer, and Nicholas Suger, in trust, to the use of Jane Suger, for life, and, after her death, to the uses appointed in the will of John Wilmer, of Walthamstow (see p. 119). In 1787, Mrs. Jane Wilmer granted to her son-in-law, Wilmer Gossip, her life interest in a moiety of this moiety (see p. 129).

second daughter of Nicholas Suger, Attorney-at-Law, of Goodramgate, in the city of York, and sister and eventually sole heiress of the Reverend Zachary Suger, Rector of St. Cuthbert's, York, who performed the marriage service. Arms of Suger: Argent, a cross moline azure; quartering Idle: Sable, a fess or, in chief two esquires' helmets proper. Jane Suger was baptized 7th December 1714, at Holy Trinity, Goodramgate, York. By her Randall Wilmer had issue:

I. ANN WILMER, baptized 15th January 1749-50, at Holy Trinity, Goodramgate, York; married first, 18th September 1770, her cousin, Wilmer Gossip, Esq., of Thorp Arch (see p. 129), by whom she had no surviving issue. About three years after his death, which occurred 19th February 1790, she married John-Burke Ryan, Esq., of Grosvenor Place, London. She became seized of a moiety of the manor of Upper Helmsley after the deaths of her father and of her uncle, John Wilmer. As it has been stated before, she conveyed all her interest in this manor to her first husband, Wilmer Gossip, and his heirs. She died without issue 4th January 1799, and was buried at St. George's, Hanover Square, London; M.I. at Upper Helmsley.

II. MARY WILMER. See below, III.

By the bequest of his uncle, John Wilmer, of Walthamstow (see p. 119), Randall Wilmer was seized of a moiety of the manor of Upper Helmsley. This moiety, after his decease, passed to his two daughters, who also inherited the other moiety of the manor upon the death of their uncle, John Wilmer, of York (see p. 125). Randall Wilmer died 22nd February, and was buried 25th February 1761,† aged 70. His will was dated 22nd August 1758, and proved 17th May 1762. There is the following inscription on a family monument in Upper Helmsley church:—

Near this Place are deposited the Remains of John Wilmer, Esq., who departed this Life the 14th day of February, 1761, Aged 63. Also of his elder Brother Randall Wilmer, Esq., of this Place, who departed this Life the 22d day of February in the same year, Aged 70. And also of Jane Wilmer, who departed this Life the 5th day of August, 1806, Aged 92. She was the last surviving daughter of Nicholas Suger, of the City of York, Esq., & Relict of the abovenamed Randall Wilmer, by whom she had Issue two Children, Anne, the elder, died in January 1799, and was interred at St. George's, Hanover Square, London; Mary, the younger, married Joshua Field of Heaton, in the West Riding of this County, Esq., and they have erected this Monument to perpetuate the Memory of their departed Relatives.

The arms beneath the inscription are: Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or (being the arms of the Wilmers of Ryton); impaling Argent, a cross moline azure (Suger); crest: Issuing from a mural coronet gules an eagle's head or (see p. 13).

Mrs. Wilmer lived, during the long term of her widowhood, in a house belonging to her son-in-law, Wilmer Gossip, at Ogleforth, in the city of York. Between 1790 and 1800 she rebuilt, at her sole expense, the parish church of Upper Helmsley, replacing an ancient Norman church by one of brick with sash windows, a practice too common at that period. Mrs. Herbert, the present owner of the manor, has lately caused this church to be demolished, and is now engaged in rebuilding it in its original Norman style, as a thank-offering to Almighty God for the completion of the fiftieth year of Her Most Gracious Majesty's reign, and in remembrance of departed ancestors and relatives. Mrs. Wilmer also gave the Communion Plate, which consists of a silver Flagon, Chalice, and Paten, bearing the arms of Wilmer impaling those of Suger, and the crest of Wilmer, with the motto: Neutrisque extinguar, and the legend: The gift of Jane Wilmer to the Church of Upper Helmsley. She died 5th August 1806, at the advanced age of ninety-one years, and was buried in the church of Upper Helmsley; M.I.

IX.—Mary Wilmer [IXG], was the younger daughter and coheirress of Randall [VIIIIG] and Jane Wilmer, and after the death of her sister, Mrs. Ryan, in 1799, their sole heiress. She was baptized at St. Cuthbert's, York, 17th September 1751, and married at Scarborough, 4th October 1774, Joshua Field³, Esq., of Heaton, in the parish of Bradford, co. York, D.L. and J.P. for the West Riding of that county. Mr. Field, who was born in December, and baptized at Bradford, 31st December 1742, was the only surviving son of John Field, Esq., of Heaton, and Mary his wife, daughter of Joshua Eamondson, Esq., of Seacroft, co. York. Joshua and Mary Field had issue:—

XXX.—I. John-Wilmer Field. See below, III.

II. Zachary-Suger Field, born 6th January 1777; died an infant.

III. Joshua Field, Esq., of Leeds and Westow House, co. York, and of 13, Park Crescent, Portland Place, London; Lord of the Manors of Burythorpe and Kennythorpe, co. York, which were inherited from the Sugers, and (after the decease of his brother, John-Wilmer Field, without issue male) Lord of the Manor of Upper Helmsley. Mr. Field was born and baptized at York, 10th May 1778. He married at Kildwick, co. York, 17th August 1801, Elizabeth, the eldest daughter of William Wayneman, Esq., of Carr Head, in Craven, and had two daughters:—

i. Elizabeth Field, born 13th July 1802; baptized at Bradford, 4th August 1802;

3. The register at Upper Helmsley states that she was buried 4 Aug. 1806, while her M.I. in the church gives 5 Aug. 1806 as the date of her death.

4. The following entry is taken from the register of the Bedern, York:—

"1751 September A daughter of Mr. Wilmer born and baptized in ye Bedern but never brought to Church."

5. For an account of Mr. Field's ancestry see Foster's Pedigrees of Yorkshire Families.
died unmarried at Harrogate, 11th July 1822, aged 21 years; buried in the parish church of Bradford in a vault inscribed “Field of Westow”; M.I. at Upper Helmsley.

ii. MARY-ANNE FIELD, born 19th February 1805; died unmarried 22nd February 1825, aged 20 years; buried in a vault on the south side of the new church at Hackney, co. Middlesex; M.I. at Upper Helmsley.

Arms of Wayneman: Per pale gules and azure a cross flory (query or); quartering Bradley: Argent, a chevron sable. Mrs. Field died 2nd September 1856, aged 75, and Mr. Field died 2nd May 1863, aged 84 years. They were both buried in the Cemetery at Highgate, co. Middlesex; M.I. at Upper Helmsley.

I. MARY-ANNE FIELD, of whom presently (see p. 149).

II. DELIA FIELD, born 14th, and baptized 15th July 1780; married at Bradford, in September 1806, Thomas-George Fitzgerald, Esq., of Oaklands and Turlough Park, co. Mayo, and of Mapperton House, co. Somerset, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army. They had a son:—

i. CHARLES - LIONEL - WILLIAM FITZGERALD, Esq.; married Dorothea, second daughter of Patrick Kirwan, Esq., of Dalgin Park, co. Mayo. He died 9th November 1834, leaving an only son:—

HISTORY OF THE WILMER FAMILY.

D.L.; born 24th August 1833; married first, 3rd December 1859, Emily, second daughter of the late Michael Dungan, Esq. She died 6th July 1872, and Mr. Fitzgerald married secondly, 22nd October 1873, Isabella—Emily, second daughter of the late Reverend Robert-J. Serjeantson, Vicar of Snaith, co. York.

Delia Fitzgerald died 9th December 1817, and was buried at Oaklands. Colonel Fitzgerald, after marrying a second time, died 5th June 1856. Arms of Fitzgerald: Ermine, a saltire gules; crest: A boar passant; motto: Honor probataque virtus.

Mrs. Field inherited a moiety of the manor of Upper Helmsley after the deaths of her father and of her uncle, John Wilmer, of York. The other moiety we have traced until it came into the possession of William Gossip, of Thorp Arch, who sold it in 1804 to Joshua Field for 6,000/. Thus the two moieties were again united. Mr. Field died 25th September 1819, and Mrs. Field died 4th November 1830. They were both buried in the parish church of Bradford; M.I. at Upper Helmsley.

XXX.—John-Wilmer Field [XG], Esq., of Upper Helmsley and Heaton Hall, Lord of the Manors of Upper Helmsley, Heaton, Shipley, Barnby Moor, and Allerthorpe-cum-Waplington, an Officer in the Royal Horse Guards Blue, J.P. and D.L. for the West Riding of Yorkshire, was the eldest son of Joshua and Mary Field [IXG]. He was born 20th August 1775; baptized at Holy Trinity, York; graduated at Christ Church College, Oxford, B.A., 18th April 1798. He married first, at Easington, co. York, 3rd September 1812, Anne, the eldest daughter of Robert Wharton-Myddleton, Esq., of Old
Park, co. Durham, and of Grinkle Park, in Cleveland, co. York. Arms of Wharton-Myddleton: Quarterly, 1st and 4th grand quarters quarterly, 1st and 4th, Quarterly gules and or, in the first quarter a cross patonce argent (Myddleton), 2nd and 3rd, Azure, a maunche or (Conyers); 2nd and 3rd grand quarters, Sable, a maunche argent, a canton or (Wharton). CHAPTER XII.

WILMER OF STRATFORD-LE-BOW, BROMLEY ST. LEONARD'S, STIFFORD, AND BARKING.

"It is asserted after much reflection, that there is scarcely an important fact in the annals of this country but either had its origin, or became intimately involved in a point of genealogy."—Sir N. H. Nicolas, Memoir of Vincent, p. 4.

Arms: Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or; a crescent, and thereon a mullet, for difference.

E. Thomas Wilmer [VH], Esq., J.P., of Stratford-le-Bow and Bromley St. Leonard's in Middlesex, and Stifford in Essex, a farmer of the Customs', was the third and youngest son of George Wilmer [IVC], of West Ham, and Susan his first wife (see p. 92). He was born in the parish of St. Mary, Aldermansbury, London, and was baptized there 4th March 1589-90. On the 14th of March 1615-16, a certain Thomas Willner, aged 24, son of Willmer, Esq., of Essex, matriculated at Christ Church College, Oxford. He married about 1615 Elizabech, third daughter of Abraham Jacob, Esq., of Gamlingay, co.

1. Harl. MS. 1551, fo. 84. 2. The marriage settlement was dated 1oth May 1615.
Cambridge, and Bromley St. Leonard's, co. Middlesex, as the following pedigree will show:

Robert Jacob, Esq., of Gamlingay = Catherine, dau. and h. of William Abraham, Esq., of London.

Abraham Jacob, Esq., of Gamlingay and = Mary, dau. of Francis Rogers, Esq., Bromley, a farmer of the Customs, eldest son; d. 1629.

Sir John Jacob = Alice, dau. of Thomas Clow, Esq., of London; 2nd wife.

Thomas Wilmer = Elizabeth Jacob, of Dartford, co. Kent; 3rd dau.; mar. 2ndly Torrell Jocelyn, Esq.

Arms of Jacob: Quarterly, 1st, Argent, a chevron gules between three heraldic tigers' heads erased proper; 2nd, Argent, three boars passant sable; 3rd, Sable, a bend engrailed between six billets argent; 4th, Gules, three covered cups or.

Thomas and Elizabeth Wilmer had issue:

II. THOMAS WILMER, aged four years in February 1624-5. A Mr. Thomas Willmer, Gent. and Theologian, was buried at Bromley, 17th September 1650.

III. JACOB WILMER, baptized at Stifford, 17th February 1620-1. A Jacob Wilmer of Bromley, co. Middlesex, and Mary Edwards of Stratton (query...
Stratford) Bowe were married at St. Dionis Backchurch, London, 10th November 1664.

I. Mary Wilmer, baptized at Stifford, 25th September 1623.

Elizabeth Wilmer, who, in 1625, was living at Stratford-le-Bow, married secondly, early in 1633, Torrell Jocelyne, Esq., of Holywell, co. Huntingdon, a widower, aged 40. She was then aged thirty-six, and was living in 1652. The licence for the marriage was dated 26th February 1632-3, and authorized the marriage to be solemnized at Stepney. It seems probable that Torrell Jocelyne was descended from Henry Jocelyne (fourth son of Sir Thomas Jocelyne, Knt., of High Roothing, co. Essex), who married Anne, daughter and coheiress of Humphrey (query Henry) Torrell.

By an Indenture, made 7th February 1614-15, Thomas Wilmer purchased of Thomas Warr, Esq., of the Middle Temple, London, and William Whitmore, Esq., of London, land, etc., in Trinitie Marshe at Billinges Corner, land near Stampittes called Algors pightell, and land at or in Hookefeild, Podeslane, Ducksclay Manigate, Le Hope juxta Tameswell, and Barlie-mouth, all which premises were parcel of the manor of West Ham.

Thomas Wilmer died 17th February 1624-5, seized of land in East Ham and West Ham, and of the rectory of the parish church of Bromley. His funeral certificate, which is preserved in the College of Arms, is as follows:

Mr. Thomas Wulmere of Stratford Bowe in the County of Midd. Gent departed this mortal life the 15 day of February 1624 and was buried in the parish Church of West Ham in the County of Essex. He married Elizabeth eldest daughter of Abraham Jacob of London

10. His funeral certificate states that he died 15th Feb. 1624-5.
11. There was formerly a monument to his memory, according to Salmon's Essex, p. 14.
Esquire by whom he had issue 3 sonnes and one daughter Abraham Wulmere eldest sonne of the age of vj yeares. Thomas 2d sonne of the age of 4 yeares and Jacob of the age of 3 yeares, and Mary only daughter of the age of one yeare at their father’s death.

His will was dated 18th July 1624, and, with a codicil, was proved 15th May 1626. He desires “to be buried according “to the laudable custome of the church of England, two yardes “in the grounde, in a coffin of stone by the wall of the church,” and appoints his “brothers Silyer and Rolte” to be the overseers of his will. “In the time of his last sicknesse whereof “he died ” he bequeathed “to all his brothers and sisters as well “of his owne alliance and kindred as of his wife’s, and unto all “his uncles and aunts (and unto all his said brothers and sisters’ “children) 10s. each to buy them rings in remembrance of him.”

His inquisition post mortem was as follows:

After the Civil War, Sir John Jacob was obliged to sell or mortgage a great part of his estates in order to meet his liabilities, which were heavy, and were incurred in faithfully supporting his royal master. The manor of Bromley passed from the Wilmers "to the Roberts family, and afterwards to George Johnstone, "Esq., and James Humphries, Esq., who owned it jointly in "1808. The manor house, a large brick edifice built by Sir "John Jacob in the reign of Charles I., was taken down by "them, and the site occupied by cottages3."

Abraham and Martha Wilmer were both living in 1673¹⁴. It is said that Abraham Wilmer made his will in 1650, but we have been unable to find it.

XXX.—Abraham Wilmer [VIH], Gent., of Stratford-le-Bow, and of Great Ilford, a chapelry in the parish of Barking, second son of Abraham Wilmer [VIH], was baptized 2nd October 1651.† He married, about August 1672, Elizabeth Thurgood or Thoroughgood, of Stratford-le-Bow, who was then about seventeen years of age. The licence authorizing the marriage to be solemnized at Allhallows, Barking¹⁸, was dated 27th August 1672¹⁹. They had issue²⁰:—

John Shore, Esq., born 5th October 1751; succeeded Lord Cornwallis as Governor-General of India in 1792, in which year he was made a Baronet; and on the 24th of October 1797, was created Baron Teignmouth in the Peerage of Ireland. He married, 14th February 1786, Charlotte, only daughter of James Cornish, Esq., of Teignmouth, and dying 14th February 1834, was succeeded by his eldest son, Sir Charles-John Shore, 2nd Baron, who died 18th September 1885, and was succeeded by his eldest son, the present Sir Charles-John Shore, 3rd Lord Teignmouth.

i. Elizabeth Shore, married Henry Wall.

ii. Sarah Shore, married first Edward Arnold, Captain in the naval service of the Hon. East India Company; and secondly Smith.

John Shore died in October 1741; will dated 20th March 1735. Sarah Shore died in 1736. They were both buried at Holy Trinity, Minories, London. Arms of Shore: Argent, a chevron sable between three holly-leaves vert; crest: A stork proper, beaked and legged sable, holding in the dexter claw a mullet.

III. Hannah Wilmer, married, prior to 1709, Henry Godwin, and had a son, Henry Godwin, of Camberwell, co. Surrey, who lived to the age of seventy years and upwards. Hannah Godwin was living in 1726.

IV. Mary Wilmer, living in 1726.

V. Anne Wilmer, died 16th October 1709, aged 19 years, and was buried 20th October, in Barking church; M.I.

Abraham Wilmer died 26th February 1709-10, and was buried 3rd March, in Barking church, near the chancel-arch, where there is the following inscription to his memory, with the arms of Wilmer and a motto:

HERE LIETH THE BODY OF ABRAHAM WILMER, GENT. OF THIS PARISH WHO DIED 26TH FEB'Y 1710, AGED 59 YEARS.

ALSO THE BODY OF MISS ANNE WILMER, HIS DAUGHTER, WHO DIED 16TH OCT' 1709, AGED 19 YEARS.

AND ALSO THE BODY OF MRS. ANN WILMER, SEN'. OB' 28TH SEPT' 1711.

ASPIRE RESPIRE PROSPIRE.

Abraham Wilmer's will was dated 20th January 1709-10, and proved 6th July 1710. He bequeaths his mansion house at Great Ilford and all his other lands to his wife for so long as she shall continue a widow; and appoints as executors Sir Nicholas Garrard, Bart., of Greenstreet, a hamlet in the parish of East Ham, and John Lethieullier, of Aldersbrook, in the parish of Little Ilford. He names his children, and mentions his seven grandchildren. He desires to be buried in the parish church of Barking, and only his children and near relations (and six friends to hold his pall) to attend his funeral. Elizabeth Wilmer survived her husband. Her will was dated 31st July 1711, and proved 7th February 1711-12. The following directions for her funeral are a significant contrast to those of her husband for his:

"My body to be buried in the same grave where my late dear husband lies, and my * wish is that the grave shall not afterwards be opened nor the stone removed. My pall shall be held by six neigh-bouring gentlemen, each to have a hat band scarf gloves and ten shillings for a ring. All who attend my funeral to have a ten shilling ring, as it is my desire to be handsomely attended to my grave by my neighbours. Mr. Watts to be my undertaker. Mr. Chesnell the minister to preach my funeral sermon and to have a handsome new gown hat and scarf."

After naming her children, she mentions her sister, Sarah Thoroughgood; her sister, Martha Cawson; her brother and sister Bury; her uncle, Jacob Haislebourne; her Aunt Haine; and her cousins, Hannah Heron, John Bartholomew, Frances Rubelon, and Walter West. She bequeatheth her plate as follows:

"To my son, Abraham Wilmer, my great silver Salver and a dozen of silver forks. To my daughter, Elisb Wilmer, my silver Coffee pot and lamp and one pair of silver Candlesticks and snuffers. To my son, Jacob Wilmer, my great plain silver Tankard, and my middle silver Salver without any coat of Arms thereon, and my great silver porringer. To my daughter, Sarah Shores, my great silver salt and large silver plate. To my daughter, Hannah Godwin, my middle silver Tankerd and my little silver salver. To my son, John Wilmer, my three silver Castors and a dozen of silver spoons, at his age of 21."

XII. - Abraham Wilmer [VIIIH], Gent., of Stratford-le-Bow, and Great Ilford, the eldest son of Abraham Wilmer [VIIIH], married, before 1709, Mary Roblin, and had issue:

The will of Abraham Wilmer was dated 8th September 1723, and proved 26th January 1724-531. By this will, which was "obliged to be short and bad writ by reason of the gout in " his hands," he left all his estates, real and personal, to Mary Roblin alias Wilmer, his wife, for life; and appointed his cousin, Walter West, and his brother, Jacob Wilmer, trustees for his children. Mrs. Wilmer's will, in which she is described as of Bromley-by-Bow, co. Middlesex, was dated 11th September 1729, and proved 15th March 1731-232.

Chapter XIII.

WILMER OF SHREWLEY AND STRATFORD-LE-BOW.

“Whoever thinks a faultless piece to see,
    Thinks what ne'er was, nor is, nor e'er shall be;

E.—John Wilmer [IVK], Esq., of Shrewley, a chapelry in the parish of Hatton, four miles north-west from Warwick, was a son of Wilmer [IIIC], and Hills, his wife (see p. 91). By his first wife, of whose name we are ignorant, he had issue:

II.—I. Clement Wilmer. See below, II.

II. George Wilmer, Esq., of Stratford-le-Bow, born 29th September 1580; baptized at Haseley or Hatton' the same day. In 1608 he sold certain premises in Royston, co. Cambridge, to

An inquisition was taken "at St. Margaret "Hall in le Sessions Hall in the borough of "Southwark," 1st December 1630, after the death of George Wilmer, who was found to have died 6th May 1626, seized as of fee of six messuages in the parish of St. Saviour, Southwark, and to have left a son and heir, George Wilmer, who was of the age of twenty years at the time of his father's death. Shortly afterwards another inquisition was taken upon a writ of Melius Inquirendum concerning the tenure of the six messuages above-mentioned, and was returned with the endorsement Juratores Ignorant 2.

I. KATHERINE WILMER, born 26th April 1579, and baptized at Haseley or Hatton† the same day.

It is a noteworthy fact that these three children were christened with the names of their father's second wife, and of her father and mother and grandfather and grandmother. This would seem to point to a considerable degree of intimacy with the Throckmortons, who dwelt at Haseley in the immediate neighbourhood of Shrewley. A certain Agnes Wilmer, of Shrewley, was buried at Haseley or Hatton†, 24th February 1602-3. She was perhaps a daughter, or possibly the first wife, of John Wilmer.

2. Inq. post mortem, 8 Car. I., pt. 3, no. 10.
Between the years 1603 and 1613 John Wilmer married secondly (as her third husband) Katherine, daughter of Clement Throckmorton, Esq., of Haseley, by whom he appears to have had no issue. This lady’s double descent from Edward III. is shown in the pedigree at page 37. She had married first (as his third wife) Thomas Harby, Esq., of Adston, co. Northampton, eldest son of William Harby, of Adston, by Emma his wife, daughter of William Wilmert, of Ashby, in the same county. Thomas Harby died 3rd May 1592, leaving issue by Katherine his wife (inter alios) Sir Job Harby, Knt, of London, and of Aldenham, co. Hertford, who was created a Baronet in 1660. Katherine Throckmorton’s second husband was George Dryden, Esq., of Adston, who made his will 12th February 1602-3.

Arms of Throckmorton: Gules, on a chevron argent three bars gemelles sable, with a mullet for difference.

The following extracts are taken from a Bill filed in the Court of Chancery:—

“20th June 1613. Your orator John Willmere of Shrowley in the Co. of Warwick, gent, and Katherine his wife, late the wife of George Dryden of Adson in the Co. of Northampton, gent.

“Whereas the said George Dryden was seized of divers messuages, lands, etc., in Adson to the yearly value of £120 and held the same by a socage tenure, and was also possessed of goods, etc., to the value of £1000.

“The said George Dryden 12 Feb. 45 Elizabeth did make his Will.

“Your said orator Katheryne had in jointure lands, etc., worth £160 per annum which were conveyed unto her by one Thomas Harbye, Esq, her former husband.

“Thomas Dryden of Rame in the Co. of Devon, gent, brother to the said George he made Executor of his said Will, and to whom he divised all his said messuages, etc., and whom he trusted to write the same Will and set down an annuity of £40 per annum to her to be issuing from the said messuages, which the same Thomas neglected to do.

“One Erasmus Dryden of Canons Ashbie in the Co. of Northampton, Esquire, was brother unto the said Thomas Dryden, etc.”

John Wilmer was the executor of the will of his brother George in 1593-4 (see p. 96). He was buried at Haseley or Hatton, 23rd April 1624, and his wife was buried there 3rd November 1622.

_II._—Clement Wilmer [VK], Esq., of Stratford-le-Bow, the elder son of John Wilmer [IVK] by his first wife, was one of the witnesses of the will of his uncle, George Wilmer, of West Ham in 1593-4. He married first, 7th June 1597†, Elizabeth Gowge, and had issue:—

_III._—I. John Wilmer. *See below, IV._

I. Elizabeth Wilmer, baptized 10th September 1598†; married Robert Rookes, Esq., of West Ham, and had a son, Robert Rookes, who was living 27th March 1638. Robert Rookes, the elder, died before June 1632, for on the 9th day of that month the case of Pollard _versus_ Wilmer was heard in the Court of Chancery, wherein Thomas Pollard, of West Ham, the executor of the will of Robert Rookes deceased, sued John Wilmer, brother-in-law of Rookes, concerning a bond and debts. Wilmer, however, denied that he owed to Robert Rookes any money.

II. Hannah Wilmer, baptized 12th July 1601†

Elizabeth Wilmer “died in child bed & was Buried in ye ‘middell allie under the great stone next beneath the cross ‘stone upon the 18th day of September” 1603†. Clement Wilmer married secondly Mary , and had issue:—

† Par. reg. of St. Mary’s, Stratford-le-Bow.

1653, Thomas Baker and a certain Anthony Wilmer, Gentlemen, of London, sold to Thomas Blount, Esq., of Writtlemarsh, co. Kent, pasture land called "Balls Meade otherwise Kings Quilletts," in the parish of Kidbrooke, co. Kent. The said premises had formerly been in the possession of the Crown, and were sold to Baker and Wilmer by an Indenture of Sale, dated 25th October 1653.

I. Sarah Wilmer, baptized 22nd September 1605.

II. Hester Wilmer, baptized 17th February 1610-11.

In 1622 Clement Wilmer and Mary his wife sold to William Wright, Esq., land, etc., in East Ham, which was held of the King in capite.

XXX.—John Wilmer [VIK], Gent., eldest son of Clement Wilmer [VK], was baptized 27th January 1599-1600. He addressed a petition to the King, dated the 27th March 1638, in which he stated that he owed to the king 1000l., and that he had an extent against his nephew, Robert Rookes, for 700l. upon his house and land. The said house and land lay in Sir Robert Quarle's Walk, near Havering, in the Forest of Essex, and were before time called the Purlieus, wherein divers of the King's red deer resorted. Wilmer prayed that Rookes might he ordered to sell these premises to him, so that he might be enabled to pay his debt to the King, and to preserve the King's deer as he had formerly done.

It is stated that the will of a John Wilmer, of Shrewley, was dated or proved in 1684, but we have not been able to find it.

Our efforts to discover his parentage have been unsuccessful, but it is very probable that he was a son of one of the brothers of George Wilmer, of West Ham (see p. 91). He was cotemporary with the said George Wilmer's sons, the eldest of whom, Andrew Wilmer (see p. 104), in his will, dated 1624, names his "cosen" John Wilmer, of Norrell; and it is worthy of remark that each of the two cousins gave the same names to his four eldest sons. I. John Wilmer, Clerk in Holy Orders, baptized 20th March 1613-14; of Trinity College, Cambridge, B.A. 1635, M.A. 1639; presented to the vicarage of Hitchin 21st December 1643, on the presentation of that college. He vacated this living in the following year. It is probable that he was identical with a John Wilmer who was presented to the rectory of Blunham, co. Bedford, about 1646, and buried there 4th November 1650, administration of his goods being granted to his relict, Mary Wilmer, 16th November 1650. Mary Wilmer, of Blunham, widow, is stated in an Indenture, dated 20th June 1651, to have been the daughter of Henry Lered, late of Acton, co. Middlesex, Yeoman.* John Wilmer, of whom we are treating, had a daughter, Mary Wilmer, who was living in 1660; and we find that Mary Wilmer, daughter of John Wilmer, "Person of Blunham," was baptized there 6th August 1646.

On the 28th of December 1653, his parishioners and the inhabitants of adjacent parishes addressed a petition to Cromwell and his Council, in which they say that "Samuel "Wilmer their pastor, has been zealous in "gathering the scattered saints into one body to "enjoy the gospel ordinances, but he is over- "whelmed with incidental charges, has been at "great charge in repairs, paid first-fruits, arrears "to Magdalen College, Oxford, and a yearly "rent, so that he can hardly maintain a large "family, yet is tender of being a burden to them. "Beg that as Mr. Whetstone, minister of "Patching, only half a mile distant, is dead, the "rectories may be united, and bestowed on Mr. "Wilmer." This petition had 52 signatures, and to it was appended a certificate of five ministers in favour of Mr. Wilmer. There was also a similar petition of even date by certain inhabit- ants of Patching, advocating the union of the two parishes, "as it was the last request of their dying "pastor, and the words of dying men are remark- "able, and also as the living is of very small value." On the 28th of December, the Council wrote to the Justices of the Peace near Clapham, saying that his Highness wished to encourage Wilmer on account of his zeal and piety, and asking whether the union would be convenient. The reply of the Justices must have been in the affirm- ative, for an order to unite the two parishes for Mr. Wilmer was approved by the Council, 3rd February 1653-4. Samuel Wilmer did not long enjoy the possession of the livings, for he was ejected from them in 1662, and imprisoned for refusing to comply with the Act of Uniformity. Calamy, speaking of him in the Ejected Ministers, says that he was "one of a strong constitution of "body, and great presence of mind. He was "unduly imprisoned by one justice, and bailed "out by another; upon which, to avoid the "danger of the 5-mile-act, he removed to "aged 46. It is thought that his troubles shortened

"his days." His will was dated 14th September 1670, and proved 12th July 1671, by his children, Samuel and Mary, the executors. He names his wife Mary, and his brother, John Baxhill. By Mary, his wife, he left issue:—

V. George Wilmer, baptized 16th March 1624-5; buried 17th April 1628.

VI. Edward Wilmer, baptized 6th November 1626; named in the wills of his brothers Isaac and Elisha, in 1660.

VII. Thomas Wilmer, Clerk in Holy Orders; baptized 18th November 1628; Vicar of Pagham, co. Sussex, in 1660; ejected for nonconformity in 1662. His wife and children are mentioned as living in 1660, in the will of his brother, Isaac Wilmer.

VIII. Elisha Wilmer, of whom presently (see p. 185).

IX. Isaac Wilmer, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Coombs, co. Sussex; baptized 8th April 1635; will dated 12th July 1660; proved 20th September 1660. He bequeaths his house and land at Norrell to his brother, Samuel Wilmer, of Patching; and names his cousin, Justin North.

I. Mary Wilmer, baptized 24th January 1618-19; named in the will of her brother Isaac, in 1660.

II. Phoebe Wilmer, baptized 7th December 1620; buried 1st February 1621-2.

"Mr. John Wilmer, minister of God's word," was buried at Northill, 20th November 1655.

HISTORY OF THE WILMER FAMILY.

XX.—Nathaniel Wilmer [VL], Citizen and Armourer of the parish of St. Dionis Backchurch, London, Captain in the Parliamentarian Army, was the third son of John Wilmer [VL], and was baptized 23rd December 1621. On the 19th of June 1650, warrants were issued to Captain Nathaniel Wilmer, of St. Denis Backchurch, and Captain Thomas Waltham for beating drums and raising and marching 100 men each to Bristol or Chester for transportation to Ireland. Captain Wilmer entered into recognizances in the sum of L200. not to take free quarter or oppress the country in his march. He married at East Hendred, in Berkshire, 7th November 1646, Constance, third daughter of Edward Sherwood, Gent., of East Hendred, and Constance his wife, daughter of William Saunders, of Newbury. Arms of Sherwood: Argent, a chevron gules between three torteaux.

Nathaniel and Constance Wilmer had issue:

XXXI.—I. JOHN WILMER. See below, XXX.

II. NATHANIEL WILMER, joined the early Quakers, and is mentioned as suffering, in 1686, for his principles, in a work entitled The Christian Progress of George Whitehead, published in 1725. A certain Nathaniel Wilmer, of St. Giles-in-the-Fields, co. Middlesex, Bachelor, died in the merchant Ship Pompey, on the High Seas, administration of his goods being granted to William Arnold, the principal creditor, 18th May 1711; John Wilmer, the brother of the deceased, having first renounced.

Nathaniel Wilmer died before 1660. His wife, Constance, was baptized at East Hendred, 20th October 1622. Like her two sons, she joined the Society of Friends, and, about 1660, was coeditor with her friend, Joseph Coale, of Reading, of a quarto pamphlet with the following title:—Some Religious Affaires Signified in a Letter from one called a Quaker to Arch-Bishop Fuller in Ireland. Also some Queries out of Conscientious Scruples propounded to all the Bishops in general in that Nation, for satisfaction to doubtful consciences. As also some reasons showing why we deny all other kinds of Profession of Religion, and are turned to this way, in which we now are scornfully called Quakers. For the Arch-Bishop of Cashel these. In this pamphlet Constance Wilmer says, “I perceive that thou art now appointed “cheif Bishop in this City and Countrey, and that thou claimest “the oversight of the flock of God, in this part of the countrey “called the Diocese and so over me, for I am an Inhabitant of this “same City.” C. Wilmer’s portion of the pamphlet consists of two and a half pages, and relates to “The true light, The new “Birth, Baptism of Infants, the call of God to the Ministry, and “Persecution”; and speaks of “Tiths of mens increase and gleab “Lands, Midsomer dues and Easter reckonings, smoke pennys “and the tenths of Eggs, Geese, Piggs, Hens, Apples and “Cherries and of all other things, a hundred or two hundred “pounds a year or ten shillings a sermon”; and she thus con- “cludes:—“And thus I rest in full expectation of an answer of “these things and subscribe my self Constant Wilmer.” The pamphlet states that “This is a true copy of what was delivered “to Arch-Bishop Fuller the 30th day of the 8th month, but he “seemed to deny to answer it, and told constant Wilmer and “Mary Pearce, by whom it was delivered, that he could not tell “how to satisfy them and that it was not his work to do it, but “they might come to Church and conforme themselves, &c. “And some other discourse they had with him, but no answer is “yet had to these sober Propositions.”

From this pamphlet we gather that Constance Wilmer was resident at Cashel in Ireland, to which country she probably accompanied her husband in 1650.

XXX.—John Wilmer [IV/L], Citizen and Merchant Taylor, and, by trade, Silkman, of Friday Street, London, and of Ealing, the elder son of Nathaniel Wilmer [IV/L], was baptized at St. Dionis Backchurch, London, 21st August 1647. He married first, at Reading, 22nd February 1671-2, Hannah Lamboll, of Reading. She was of a well-known Quaker family, that was intimate with the celebrated William Penn. She died 10th October, and was buried 13th October 1676. John Wilmer married secondly, circa 1691, Mary , of whom we have no further record than that she had the following issue:—

EV.—I. JOHN WILMER. See below, EV.

I. GRIZELL WILMER, married Jonathan Gurnell (see p. 190).

II. HANNAH WILMER, born in “Fryeday Street,” 30th April 1694; married at the F.M.H., Bull and Mouth, 16th June 1715, George Robinson, Ironmonger, of Clement’s Lane, London, and of Ealing. He was the son of Matthew Robinson, of Clement’s Lane, and Sarah his wife. George and Hannah Robinson had issue:—1. MATTHEW ROBINSON, born in Clement’s Lane, May 1721, and died an infant; 2. MATTHEW ROBINSON, born there 9th October 1722, and died an infant; 3. GEORGE ROBINSON, born there 12th September 1724, and was living in 1758; 1. MARY ROBINSON, born there 9th February 1716-17; she appears to have married a Mr. Forbes, who was dead in 1752 (see p. 195). In the wills of her nearest relatives, a “cousin Mary Forbes,” is named, with whom, perhaps, Mary Robinson was identical. George Robinson, the father, died ‘of convulsions’ at Ealing, 7th March 1739-40, aged 45, and was buried at Hammersmith, 13th March. His widow died ‘of convulsions’ at Ealing, 25th June 1754, aged 60, and was buried at Hammersmith, 30th June.

III. MARY WILMER, twin-sister with Hannah, born in Friday Street, 30th April 1694; probably died young.

In the records of the Merchant Taylors' Company we find, under date 4th November 1663, that John Wilmer apprenticed himself to William Sherwood [his uncle], of Friday Street, Silkman, for seven years from that date. He became a Freeman of the City 7th October 1692. By minutes of the Court of the Merchant Taylors' School, dated 13th May 1698, it appears that John Wilmore was appointed one of the three stewards for the school-feast. Thomas Wright, in his History of Essex, says that on the 30th of July 1694, John Wilmer, whom he describes as of London, Merchant, and descended from the Wilmers of Northamptonshire, and bearing their arms, bought of Edmund Godwin, Esq., the manor of North Bemfleet, alias Coxhall, co. Essex, which was in the possession of his grandson, John Wilmer, in 1768. John Wilmer died at Ealing, 25th December 1723, aged 76, and was buried at Hammersmith, 30th December. His will was dated the "7th day of the 3rd month called May 1723," and proved 8th January 1723-4. He leaves 1,000l. to be laid out upon an estate in land in Essex or Middlesex for the benefit of his daughter, Hannah Robinson; and 100l. to his friends, Henry Goldney and Theodore Eccleston, in trust, to be disposed of as expressed in a paper of even date with his will. He names his cousin, Mary Mackett; her son, Wilmer Mackett; his sister-in-law, Margaret Clulow; and the eight servants of his son Gurnell.

XV. — John Wilmer [VII/L], Esq., Merchant of London, and of Paradise Row, Stoke Newington, co. Middlesex, and Lord of the Manor of North Bemfleet, Canvey Island, Essex, the only son of John Wilmer [VII/L], was born at Ealing, 13th September 1696; and married, circa 1750, Elizabeth Scott, daughter of Scott, Esq., and sister of Isabella, the wife of Henry Faussett, Esq. Mr. Faussett was a member of the family of Faussett, of Heppington, co. Kent, and brother of the Reverend Bryan Faussett, the well-known antiquarian, who formed the famous Saxon collection which bears his name, and is now in the Liverpool Museum. These Scotts used (but by what right we are ignorant) the arms of Scott, of Scott's Hall, co. Kent, which are: Argent, three catherine-wheels sable a bordure engrailed gules. John and Elizabeth Wilmer had issue:—

C.—I. John Wilmer. See below, D.

I. Mary Wilmer, born at Paradise Row, 7th November 1753; married at Stoke Newington parish church, by licence, 22nd February 1774, Patrick Murray, M.D., of Norfolk Street, London, and of Stoke Newington, an eminent physician, and afterwards Assistant Judge of the Supreme Court of Jamaica. He was a Presbyterian, and his wife severed her connection with the Society of Friends soon after the marriage. She died at Montego Bay, Jamaica, 1st May 1782. Dr. Murray survived her by several years, and, returning to his native town of Kirkcudbright, died, and was buried in the Presbyterian church-yard there. He had several children who died in infancy, and a son:—

i. Peter Murray, M.D., of Harrogate, Knaresborough, and Belle Vue, Scarborough; born at Montego Bay, Jamaica, 30th March 1782. After the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Sinclair (see p. 183), he was brought up by his devoted aunt, Elizabeth Wilmer. He was educated at St. Andrew's and Edinburgh Universities, at the latter of which he took the degree of M.D. in 1802. He then practised at Harrogate and Knaresborough, and afterwards at Scarborough, where he lived during the last thirty-eight years of his life. He was an ardent botanist and naturalist, a philosopher and a Christian philanthropist. He died at Belle Vue, Scarborough, 27th February 1864, aged 81, and was buried in the Scarborough cemetery, 6th March; M.I. The life of this excellent man was written by the Reverend Robert Balgarnie, Minister of the Bar congregational chapel, Scarborough, under the title:—The Beloved Physician: A Memoir of Peter Murray, M.D., of Belle Vue, Scarborough. (Simpkin, Marshall and Co., London, 1864).

II. Elizabeth Wilmer, born at Paradise Row, 23rd March 1754; died at Belle Vue, Scarborough, 24th February 1849, aged 94; buried in the F.B.G., St. Sepulchre Street, Scarborough, 2nd March; M.I.

III. Grizell Wilmer, born at Paradise Row, 13th July 1755; married at Scarborough, 16th September 1782, Alexander Grant, Esq., a medical practitioner, of Cheltenham. He was then aged 28, and was described as of St. Luke's, Chelsea. Grizell Grant died at Belle Vue, Scarborough, 26th January 1837, aged 81, and was buried in the same grave as her sister Elizabeth; M.I. Her husband predeceased her by many years.

John Wilmer died of 'a decline' at Stoke Newington, 22nd January 1764, aged 67, and was buried in his own garden in that place, 28th January. His house at Stoke Newington is still in existence, and is now used as an Invalid Asylum for women. It contains a very fine carved oak staircase, with landscape paintings on canvas fitted into the walls. The floor of the hall is paved with white marble, and the ancient iron gates and railings, with a monogram, are still in situ. A large tomb, seven and a half feet square, marks the spot where John Wilmer was buried, which was then a garden, but is now a builder's yard. Tradition relates that he was buried in his bed, with a chair and a table beside him, and that, in consequence of his insuperable dread of being interred alive, a cord, attached to his wrist, communicated with a bell in his coachman's house hard by. The whole story, however, is improbable. When the house and grounds were sold, a right of way to the tomb was reserved. John Wilmer's will was dated 10th February 1758, and proved 12th March 1764. He mentions his houses in Stoke Newington, his manor at North Benfleet, his freehold lands and tenements in Hoxton, "my large house with the lands, etc., "which I now inhabit at Stoke Newington," his copyhold estate at Hampton Wick, and his two houses at Humerton, co. Middlesex. He names his nephew, George Robinson; his cousin, Mary Forbes; and John Harman, of London, Merchant.

John Wilmer's widow, Elizabeth, who resided at Ranelagh, near London, was married, secondly, at Stoke Newington parish church, by licence, by the Reverend Charles Farrant, Dean of Peterborough, 7th May 1774, to John Sinclair, Esq., of Stoke Newington, third son of John Sinclair, Esq., of Ulbster, co. Caithness, and uncle of the Right Hon. John Sinclair, of Ulbster, Baronet, M.P., P.C., D.C.L., etc., the famous agriculturist and philanthropist. John Sinclair, the uncle, was at one time a captain in the 7th Regiment of Foot, with the rank of major in the army. He died in Skeldergate, in the city of York, 23rd November 1787. With reference to this marriage we take the following extracts from Mr. Balgarnie's Memoir of Peter Murray:

"This marriage forms a sad episode in the history of the Wilmer family. * How a quiet, sober-minded Quakeress should have been enamoured of a fiery son of Mars, it is difficult to conceive. * The truth is, the lady had money, the gentleman had position; neither had love, so that the result of the marriage was, as might be expected, misery. Nor was this all the evil that ensued. Major Sinclair was most extravagant in his style of living, and reckless in the abuse of money. The house at Ranelagh became like an hotel, or officers' barracks, where his military friends were always quartered. The Misses Wilmer continued to reside with their mother after her marriage; being young and handsome, with good fortunes in prospect, their new step-father sought to introduce them into fashionable life. * The plain garb of the Society of Friends was exchanged for the latest fashions; the quiet pleasures of home were superseded by the excitement of the ball-room; they rode and drove in the parks, and became known there as "the dashing Miss "Wilmers." * * * The family income would have been enough to meet all these demands, but a drain was made upon it in another way, which it could not stand. Major Sinclair became security for the electioneering expenses of his nephew, Sir John [Sinclair], who was ambitious to secure a seat in Parliament. This was in the days of "rotten boroughs," * when candidates with the longest purse had the best chance of success. The expenses of this election were immense, and the Major was compelled to pay them. Vainly he attempted to evade the obligation; but the law was inexorable, and the exactors clamorous. Nothing could save him from disgrace but the possession of his wife's property. It would appear that this was accomplished without much difficulty: hardly knowing what she did, she was induced to put her signature to a document, by which she guaranteed the payment of her husband's debts. "I signed it," she said, "because the Major pressed "me." By that one act, the greater portion of the property was lost for ever. * To meet liabilities, the Essex estate had to be immediately sold; likewise the mansion at Ranelagh, together with the furniture, plate, &c. * and with the exception of a small property at Hoxton, the family became penniless."

Elizabeth Sinclair died 'of an asthma,' at Sloane Square, Chelsea, 8th July 1793, aged 62, and was buried at the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, as a non-member of the Society of Friends, 14th July. There is in the possession of one of the editors the original bill for the funeral of Mrs. Sinclair, amounting to the moderate sum of 35l. 19s. 6d. Amongst the items is a fine of 2l. 10s. for burying in linen. The remains were enclosed in lead in a Virginia walnut-tree case.
C.—John Wilmer [IXL], Esq., was the only son of John Wilmer [VIII L]. He had a predilection for the medical profession, but it does not appear that he ever practised. He was born at Paradise Row, Stoke Newington, 20th October 1751, and died there, of dropsy, 20th March 1773, aged 21, and was buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, 28th March. His will was dated 21st November 1772, and proved 31st March 1773. He names his uncle, Henry Faussett, and his aunt, Isabella Faussett.

THE FAMILIES OF WILMER, MACKETT, PEIRIE, AND WILLETT.

E.—Elisha Wilmer [VI], Citizen and Ironmonger of London, the eighth son of John Wilmer [VL], of Northill, was baptized 22nd April 1630. He married twice, and by his second wife Mary, who survived him, he had an only child, Mary Wilmer (see below). His will was dated 7th March 1660-1, and proved 9th April 1661. He names his nephew, Andrew Wilmer, son of his brother Samuel; his uncle, John Loggett; and his cousin, John Taylor, junior. He left to his daughter Mary, a silver tankard and cup, marked with the letters D.M., which had belonged to his first wife, and silver marked E.W.D.; and to his brother, Edward Wilmer, a ring marked R.L. He is described in his will as of Wapping, co. Middlesex.

XX.—Mary Wilmer [VII], only child of Elisha Wilmer, was born circa 1657, and was the only member of her father's household, who survived the Great Plague in 1665. She married at the F.M.H., Bull and Mouth, London, 9th March 1681-2, John Mackett, Citizen and Merchant Taylor, of London, and, by trade, Coatseller, of Fenchurch Street. He was born circa 1651, and was the son of Richard Mackett, of Newchurch, Isle of Wight, and had issue:

1. Bishop's Transcripts of the par.reg. of Northill, in the registry at Bedford.
I. WILLMER MACKETT, of Milk Street, London, born 31st August 1684; died 12th November 1754, aged 70; buried at Bunhill Fields, 15th November 1754.

II. JOHN MACKETT, born 30th June 1686; died 12th May 1687.

III.—I. MARY MACKETT. See below, III.
John Mackett died of 'the spotted fever' 27th October 1685, aged 34. His widow died 24th March 1732-3, aged 76, and was buried at Bunhill Fields, 29th March 1733.

III.—Mary Mackett [VIII], was born 6th January 1682-3, and married, 29th February 1703-4, at the F.M.H., Devonshire House, London, John Peirie, Widower, Citizen and Draper, of London, and, by trade, Tailor of Houndsditch, son of James Peirie, of Turroff, co. Aberdeen, and had (with three sons) a daughter:—

IV.—Barbara Peirie [IX], who was born 1st July 1710; married, at the F.M.H., Devonshire House, London, 28th November 1728, Jabez Willett, Citizen and Weaver of London, and, by trade, Mercer of Lad Lane, London, and had issue:—

I. JOSEPH WILLET, born in Lawrence Lane, London, 5th March 1732-3; died 29th August 1737, aged 4; buried in the F.B.G., Bunhill Fields, 31st August.

V.—II. WILLMER WILLET. See below, V.

I. MARY WILLET, married THOMAS GURNELL (see p. 196).

II. BARBARA WILLET, born in Lawrence Lane, 23rd October 1731.

Jabez Willett was the son of Joseph Willett, Weaver, of St. Saviour's, Southwark, and of Elizabeth his wife, and was born in Castle Street, Clapham, 18th June 1705. He died 'of convulsions' at Clapham, 18th November 1765, aged 60, and was buried in the F.B.G., Worcester Street, 25th November. Barbara Willett died 4th November 1789, aged 79, and was buried in the F.B.G. at Park, 11th November. There is in existence a fine portrait of her, painted by Sir Nathaniel Dance-Holland, Bart., R.A.

V.—Willmer Willett [X], Merchant, of Lad Lane, London, and of Clapham, co. Surrey, was born in Lawrence Lane, London, 30th September 1734. He married, and had issue:

VI.—I. Wilmer-Mackett Willett. See below, VII.

I. Barbara Willett, died in Judd Street, London, 17th November 1848, aged 78, being described as the "eldest daughter of the late " Wilmer Willett, of Lad Lane, Esq."

VII.—Wilmer-Mackett Willett [XI], Esq., Cotton-spinner, of Rushforth Hall, co. York, was Colonel-Commandant of a local militia regiment raised during the Bonaparte scare. He is stated to have been the celebrated editor of the Statesman during the O.P. Riot in 1809, and subsequently of the British Traveller, and other periodicals. He married first, a daughter of Joseph Wood, Esq., of Leeds, who died at Rushforth Hall, 18th May 1801; and secondly, Miss Bromby, who died at the house of her brother, the Reverend J.-H. Bromby, of Hull, 21st September 1804, aged 24. Mr. Willett died in Finsbury, circa December 1829, aged 63, leaving issue by his first wife:

VIII.—I. Wilmer Willett. See below, IX.

I. Barbara-Perrie Willett, died unmarried at Cambridge Terrace, Regent's Park, London, 19th May 1851.

II. Anna-Maria Willett, married at Leeds, 14th September 1843, A.-E.-J. Dangerfield, Esq., of Craven Street, London, and died sine prole, circa 1877.
XX.—Wilmer Willett [AVT], B.A. (Oxford), Clerk in Holy Orders, married Charlotte-Georgiana, daughter of the Reverend Thomas-Fry Lewis, Rector of Curry-Malet, co. Somerset, of the family of Lewis of St. Pierre, co. Monmouth, which bears the arms: Or, a lion rampant gardant sable. Mr. Willett had several children, of whom the following survived him:—

II. Albert-Lewis Willett, Clerk in Holy Orders, B.A. of Brasenose College, Oxford; presented to the vicarage of Meriden, co. Warwick, in 1873.

III. Henry-Wood Willett, Esq., Major in the fourth battalion of the King's Light Infantry, died at Meriden, 9th June 1883.

IV. Lewis-Wilmer Willett, Esq., of Adderstone, co. Northumberland.

1. Georgiana Willett.

The family of Willett deduces its descent from that Protestant Divine “The learned and laborious Dr. Andrew Willett,” son of Dr. Thomas Willett, Prebendary of Ely, Sub-almoner to Edward VI., Vicar of Thurlaston, co. Leicester, and Rector of Barley, co. Hertford, who upon Queen Mary’s accession, was compelled to forsake his first promotion in the church of Windsor, and to remain in hiding until recalled by Queen Elizabeth. Dr. Andrew Willett, who was of Christ’s College, Cambridge, succeeded his father at Ely and Barley, and was Rector of Reed, co. Hertford, in 1615. He was subsequently Chaplain to Henry-Frederick, Prince of Wales, elder brother of Charles I. As an author, Dr. Willett achieved considerable repute. A full list of his works, which amount in number to forty, is given in his Commentary on Leviticus. A new edition of his Synopsis Papismi was issued in 1852 in ten volumes, by the British Society for promoting the religious principles of the Reformation. Dr. Willett married a daughter of Dr. Goad, Provost of King's College, Cambridge, and was survived by a numerous family. He died 4th December 1621, aged 59, and was buried in the chancel of Barley Church; M.I.
Chapter XV.

GURNELL OF LONDON AND EALING; AND THE FAMILIES OF ARMSTRONG, OGILVIE, AND DANCE.

"Out of monuments, names, wordes, proverbs, traditions, private records, and evidences, fragments of stories, passages of bookes, and the like, we doe save and recover somewhat from the deluge of time."

Arms of Gurnell: Paly of six or and sable per fess counter-changed.

Grizell Wilmer [VIIIL], eldest daughter of John Wilmer [VIII], of Friday Street, London (see p. 179), was born there 5th October 1692. She married, at the F. M. H., Bull and Mouth, London, 27th September 1711, Jonathan Gurnell, Merchant, of Throckmorton Street and Cateaton Street, London, and of Ealing, co. Middlesex. He was the son of John and Agatha Gurnell, of Spooner's Close, Cartmel, co. Lancaster, and was born there, 23rd May 1684. He was the lessee of the manor of Great Ealing, and probably lived in the house on Ealing Green, which was afterwards inhabited by his elder daughter, Hannah Harman. He is described by his cotemporaries as "an eminent "well-known, and respected merchant," and "a noted Friend." Jonathan and Grizell Gurnell had issue:—
GRIZELL GURNELL (née WILMER).

FROM A PORTRAIT IN THE POSSESSION OF FREDERICK HARFORD, ESQUIRE.
I. John Gurnell, Merchant, of Throckmorton Street, London, and of Ealing and Perivale, co. Middlesex; born in Throckmorton Street, 24th June 1712; married Anne, daughter of John Harrison, Esq., lord of the manor of Greenford Parva or Perivale. She died 8th April 1750, aged 38; M.I. Arms of Harrison: Or, on a cross azure five pheons of the field. John Gurnell died 1st August 1748, aged 36; buried (as was also his wife) in Perivale church, where there is a marble tablet to their memory, with the arms of Gurnell, bearing those of Harrison on a shield of pretence. His will was dated 14th May 1745, and proved 23rd August 1748. He mentions his several real and personal estates in England and Ireland, and bequeaths to the London Infirmary 200/. He desires to be buried in the parish church of Perivale, and a monument to be erected over his grave. He leaves 100/ in trust to the Minister and Churchwardens of Perivale for repairing and beautifying his said monument, for the repair of the Parsonage House, "and any "overplus to be given to the Poor." He makes special provision for securing this bequest for ever, but we have been informed that the money has been lost sight of for many years, and that the monument is consequently out of repair.

II. Jonathan Gurnell, Merchant, of Throckmorton Street and Cateaton Street, and of Ealing; born in Throckmorton Street, 30th January 1717-18; died 5th March 1752, and was doubtless buried at Hammersmith. His will was dated 2nd November 1750. He bequeaths 500/ to the trustees of the Charity School at Ealing. He leaves to his brother, Thomas Gurnell, amongst other things, "all his horses, dogs, guns and "sporting tackle."

III. Thomas Gurnell. See below, IV.

IV. Robert Gurnell, born in Cateaton Street, 10th December 1733; probably died in infancy.

I. Mary Gurnell, born in Throckmorton Street, 1st October 1713, probably died in infancy.

II. Hannah Gurnell, married Jeremiah Harman. For their descendants, see chapter XVI.

III. Sarah Gurnell, of Ealing, born in Throckmorton Street, 31st January 1719-20, died of consumption at Ealing, 9th June 1760, aged 40; buried at Hammersmith, 16th June; will dated 30th July 1755, proved 6th May 1760. She bequeaths to the Boys' Charity School at Ealing 100l.; to the Small Pox Hospital 100l.; and to the Friends' Workhouse 300l. Amongst the other bequests are:—"my girdle Buckle "and Black Shagreen tooth-pick-case sett in " gold, my head smelling bottle set in Gold, "and my Stone Shoes Buckles."

IV. Mary Gurnell, married Joseph Green. For their descendants, see chapter XVII.

V. Anne Gurnell, born in Throckmorton Street, 3rd February 1722-3; died at Ealing, 31st August 1723, buried in the F.B.G. at Hammersmith, 3rd September.

VI. Grizell Gurnell, married Samuel Hoare. For their descendants, see chapter XVIII.

Jonathan Gurnell's wife Grizell survived him. She died "of a Dropsy" at Ealing, 17th July 1756, aged 63, and was buried in the F.B.G. at Hammersmith. Her will was dated 20th June 1754, and proved 6th August 1756. She makes various bequests to her daughters, and mentions amongst other trinkets, "the Jewell box late Lady Kingsales."

Jonathan Gurnell was the founder of the celebrated house of Gurnell and Hoare, Merchants, which was known after his death as Gurnell, Hoare and Harman, Bankers to the Russian Court. The firm originated in the Lisbon trade, and was concerned in extensive mercantile transactions with Portugal in 1755, at the time of the earthquake at Lisbon. In that disaster Jonathan Gurnell's son Thomas lost a great quantity of valuable silver plate. In 1754, Henry Hope, of Amsterdam, was apprenticed to Jonathan Gurnell and his son-in-law, Samuel Hoare, and remained with the firm until 1760, when he was taken into partnership by his uncles, who were great merchants in Holland. In 1780, the whole business of the Hope firm devolved upon Mr. Hope; and he managed it in so high a style of good conduct and "liberality, as to draw the attention and "raise the admiration of all Europe." He was held in the highest consideration by successive Governments, and "was "visited by all distinguished travellers, even by crowned heads. "* At the exchange he was the chief object of attention; * "and foreign ministers pressed forward through the crowd to "speak with him on the financial concerns of their respective "countries." He died in London, in 1811, leaving a fortune of 1,160,000.

An amusing story about Jonathan Gurnell is still current at Ealing, and has been related to us by the Right Hon. S.-H. Walpole, of Ealing, M.P., and by the Reverend E.-W. Relton, Vicar of Ealing. About 1730, after the fall of Ealing parish church, Jonathan Gurnell was visited by the then vicar, who informed him that he wished to build a new church; at the same time apologizing, and saying that he scarcely anticipated a subscription towards the work from one who was not a member of his congregation. When the vicar rose to go, Jonathan Gurnell said, "Friend, didst thou not say thou wast going to pull "down the old steeple house, and build a new one?" "Yes," replied the clergyman, "that is my intention;" whereupon Jonathan Gurnell said, "Thou knowest that I cannot give thee "anything to build a new steeple house, but I will give thee a "hundred pounds to take away the old one." This anecdote is a pleasing reminiscence of a good, liberal-minded, and benevolent man. When this story is told at Ealing, "Well done! Jonathan Gurnell," is the proverbial reply. In the minutes of the Friends' Quarterly Meeting of London and Middlesex occur the following passages relating to Jonathan Gurnell:—

"1731, 30th 10. Mett according to ye above adjournment at ye Bull and Mouth ye 10th 3 mo. 1731: Benjamin Bealing to enter ye following paper of Jon Gurnell respecting ye Building of a Meeting house at Brendford. 'If friends think proper to continue to keep up 'a meeting at or near Brandford (as I hope ye will) my father in law 'John Willmer by his last will in Trust with Henry Gouldney and 'Theodor Eccleston left fifty pounds towards building a Meeting 'House there and I am willing and Ready to contribute £50 more 'towards ye same Edward Halsey has likewise promised to contribute '£10 and I Question not but there are several other Friends that 'would contribute towards so good a work. N.B. Ye place where 'friends meet at Brendford is so very Inconvenient in such bad 'Repaire ye it Realy is very dangerous as to friends health to meet ye 'especially in ye winter season, so if friends continue the said meeting, 'Do think there is absolute necessity for having a Meeting Ho. built.'"

"A letter was received from Jonathan Gurnell, dated Ealing, 31st First Month 1733, stating that they have a piece of ground at Brendford, very proper to build a Meeting House upon, in case Friends will but please to promote and encourage ye matter, and he with some others will take care not to make it expensive and chargeable to Friends, but shall rebuild at their own charge."

This proposition was ultimately agreed to by the Quarterly Meeting, although delayed on account of the smallness of the Hammersmith meeting. In 1735 permission was granted to Jonathan Gurnell and others to build a Meeting House in Brendford. Jonathan Gurnell died "of a fever " at Ealing, 2nd April 1753, aged 68, and was buried in the F.B.G. at Hammondsmith, 9th April. His will, which is a very long one, was dated 27th May 1752, and proved 26th April 1753. He enters into elaborate details with regard to his estates and their management. He mentions his leasehold estate near Thornton Bridge, and Disforth, co. York, "which I purchased of George Earl of Cholmondeley"; his two twelfth shares in the silkmills and premises at Stockport, and in the joint stock and profits thereof. He makes bequests to his wife, Grizel Gurnell; his sister-in-law, Hannah Robinson; his niece, Mary Forbes, Widow; his son-in-law, Samuel Hoare; and his "esteemed friend, the Honourable Colonel John fitzwilliams." He bequeaths the sum of 24,000£ to his son, Thomas Gurnell, and his four daughters, Hannah Harman, Sarah Gurnell, Mary Green, and Grizell Hoare. To his wife 2,000£ for charitable uses. To the Charity School at Ealing 200£. And he leaves 500£ for the use and benefit of poor housekeepers of or in the upper part of Ealing, to be laid out for them in coals or firing, &c.

The Hon. Colonel (afterwards General) John FitzWilliam, who was mentioned above as one of the legatees named in this will, was, according to the Gentleman's Magazine, Colonel of the Fifth Regiment of Dragoon Guards, and was the second son of William, third Earl FitzWilliam. He died 31st July 1789, and was buried at Richmond, co. Surrey, where he had resided. He left a fortune of considerably over 60,000£ to his "excellent and faithful servant Thomas Jones whom," as he says in his will, he "brought out of Wales when a boy and to whom he and his "wife had particular obligations; and God bless him with it." He also bequeathed 13,562£ 18s. od. to John Harman, Senior (a grandson of Jonathan Gurnell), of Frederick Place, Old Jewry, London, Merchant, "and," runs the will, "I take this opportunity of acknowledging the civilities I owe to him, to old Mr. "Gurnell, and all his family."

III.—Thomas Gurnell [LXM], Merchant and Banker, of Love Lane, Aldermanbury, of Cateaton Street, London, and of the Manor House, Ealing Green, was the third son of Jonathan Gurnell. He was born at Ealing, 22nd February 1725-6; and married, at the F.M.H., Gracechurch Street, London, 5th May 1748, his kinswoman, Mary, elder daughter of Jabez Willett, of Lad Lane, Citizen and Weaver, of London, and of Barbara Peirie his wife, who was a great-granddaughter of Elisha Wilmer, of Wapping (see p. 186). Thomas Gurnell resided at Ealing in a house built for him, about 1770, by his son-in-law, George Dance, R.A. This house was afterwards almost entirely dismantled, and rebuilt by John Soane, the eminent architect, who occasionally resided there. It is now the residence of Miss Perceval, daughter of Spencer Perceval, sometime Premier of England. Thomas Gurnell was seized of the manor of Pittshanger, containing 140 acres, which he bought of Sir Charles Morgan, Bart. He and his wife severed their connection with the Society of Friends in 1774, for declining to conform to its principles and practices. Thomas and Mary Gurnell had issue:—

I. JONATHAN GURNELL, born in Love Lane, 19th May 1750; died at Clapham, 14th August 1750; buried in the F.B.G. at Hammersmith.

II. JONATHAN GURNELL. See below, III.

I. MARY GURNELL, married George Dance (see p. 202).

II. SARAH GURNELL, born in Cateaton Street, 6th March 1754; married a Mr. Mitchell. They were both living in 1786, but nothing further is known of them. There is a fine miniature of her in existence.

Thomas Gurnell died "of decline" at Ealing, 20th October 1785, aged 59; and was buried in the F.B.G. at Hammersmith, 29th October. His will was dated 12th March 1785, proved 26th April 1786. He names his daughter, Sarah Mitchell, and her husband; and leaves to his grandson, Thomas Dance, 5,000/. Mary Gurnell, his wife, died 22nd April 1782, and was buried at St. Mary's, Devizes; M.I. there.

Jonathan Gurnell [XM], Esq., of Ealing House, Boston Lane, Ealing, the surviving son of Thomas Gurnell [XM], was born in Cateaton Street, 30th March 1756. He married, 12th June 1780, Susanna, daughter of the Reverend Samuel-Francis Swinden, Vicar of Greenwich, and Mary Rosam, his wife, and had an only daughter:—

I. MARY-ANNE GURNELL. See below, II.

Jonathan Gurnell died 13th December 1791, and his will was dated 9th December 1787. His widow, Susanna Gurnell, who possessed Pittshanger in 1795, married secondly, John-Goodwin-Gregory Peyton, Rear-Admiral of the Red R.N., son of Joseph Peyton, Admiral R.N., of Wakehurst Place, co Sussex, by Katherine Strutt, his wife. Admiral J.-G.-G. Peyton was born 29th September 1752, and died at Priestlands, near Lymington, 2nd August 1809. Susanna Peyton died at Penzance, 11th February 1836, and was buried in the churchyard of Madron, co. Cornwall.

Mary-Ann Gurnell [XM], the only child of Jonathan Gurnell [XM], was born at Boston Lane, Ealing, 3rd June 1781. She married, at St. George's, Hanover Square, 6th March 1806, John Armstrong, Esq., of Hazlegrove House, Queen Camel, co. Somerset, eldest son of Warneford Armstrong, Esq., of Ballycumber, the King's County, Ireland, by his third wife, Fanny, daughter of William Grey, Esq. John Armstrong was a Captain in the 8th Foot and Major in the 5th Dragoon Guards. His arms were: Gules, three dexter arms vambraced argent, the hands proper; crest: A dexter arm vambraced argent, the hand proper; the arms and crest being charged with a mullet for difference; motto: Vi et armis. He had issue:—

I. JOHN ARMSTRONG. See p. 200, I.
II. William Armstrong, Esq., born 1813; died unmarried at Penzance, 10th February 1836.

I. Mary-Ann-Gurnell Armstrong, born at Lyme Regis, co. Dorset, 20th October 1808; married at Dinder, 18th April 1838, the Reverend Charles-Atmore Ogilvie, then Vicar of Duloe, co. Cornwall, and Domestic Chaplain to the Archbishop of Canterbury. He was descended from the Ogilvies, of Boyne, co. Banff, and was the son of John Ogilvie, the devoted friend and follower of John and Charles Wesley, and of Catherine his wife. The Reverend C.-A. Ogilvie was afterwards Regius Professor of Pastoral Theology, and Canon of Christ Church, Oxford, and Rector of Ross, co. Hereford. He died at Christ Church, Oxford, 17th February 1873, and was buried in the cathedral there. Mrs. Ogilvie died at Redhill, co. Surrey, 2nd October 1875, and was buried in Coberley churchyard, co. Gloucester. Professor Ogilvie had issue:—

Julian Thoroton, born at The Seven Springs, near Cheltenham, 9th August 1875; 1. Elizabeth — Mary — Roosilia Thoroton, born at Hersham, 24th October 1862; 2. Isabella-Caroline Thoroton, born at Hersham, August 1865; died in infancy; 3. Edith-Isabelle-Catharine Thoroton, born at Hersham, 3rd April 1872; and 4. Marianne-Lucy Thoroton, born at The Seven Springs, 11th September 1878.

ii. Mary-Ann Ogilvie, born at Ross, 26th July 1842; married, at Coberley, 10th August 1876, the Reverend Anthony-Cocks Lawrence, B.A., F.S.A., Rector of Withington, co. Gloucester. He was born at Brussels, 15th March 1843, and was the son of Walter-Lawrence Lawrence, Esq., of Sandywell Park, co. Gloucester, and of Mary his wife, only daughter of Christian Speldt, Esq., of Stratford, Essex. He was educated at Magdalen College, Oxford, B.A. 1865; ordained Deacon 1866, and Priest 1867. His arms are: Argent, a cross raguly gules; crest: The tail and lower part of a fish erect and couped proper; the arms and crest being charged with a crescent for difference. He has issue:—1. Katherine — Mary — Cicely Lawrence, born 17th May 1877; and 2. Wynnefrede — Henrietta Lawrence, born 12th May 1879.

II. Frances Armstrong, born at Hazlegrove House, 28th December 1809; married, at Dinder, 1841, Thomas-Aylmer Pearson, Esq., Captain in the 43rd Light Infantry, and son of General Sir Thomas Pearson, Knight. Mrs. Pearson died at Abington, 22nd October 1883, and was buried in the churchyard of Upton St. Leonards, co. Gloucester, 26th October. Captain Pearson has had issue:—

i. Thomas-Horner Pearson, Esq., Captain in the 43rd Light Infantry; born 16th October 1843.

iii. Aylmer-Charles Pearson, Esq., Major in the Bengal Marine Light Infantry; born 1849

Mr. Armstrong died at Penzance in 1835, and was buried at Madron. Mrs. Armstrong died at St. Leonard's Court, 30th June 1858, and was buried at Upton St. Leonard's.

V.—John Armstrong [X/XM], M.A., Clerk in Holy Orders, the elder son of John Armstrong, was born at Queen Camel, 2nd April 1810. He was educated at Eton, and Balliol College, Oxford; was Rector of Dinder, co. Somerset, and Prebendary of Wells. He married, at the parish church of Madron, 20th October 1836, Mary-Ann, daughter of John Scobell, Esq., of Nanccalverne, co. Cornwall, Colonel in the Militia, by Mary his second wife, relict of John James, of Radstock, and daughter of William Goldfinch, Esq., of Shepton-Mallet, co. Somerset. Arms of Scobell: Argent, three fleurs-de-lis gules, in chief a label of three points azure. Mrs. Armstrong was born 11th January 1817. By her Mr. Armstrong had issue:

I. John-Scobell Armstrong. See below, II.

II. William Armstrong, Clerk in Holy Orders, Assistant Curate of Iver, co. Buckingham; born 17th December 1844; died 14th October 1880; married, 11th January 1876, Mary, second daughter of the Reverend Andrew Jukes, of Woolwich.

I. Mary Armstrong, born 1838; married, at Weymouth, 1874, the Reverend George-Metcalfe Fenton, of Bournemouth. He died sine prole in 1879.

II. Frances-Charlotta v. Mabel Armstrong.

III. Susanna-Peyton vi. Florence-Mary Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong died at Dinder, greatly beloved and lamented, 10th January 1862, aged 51, and was buried there. A memoir of him was privately printed, shewing him to have been an earnest and devoted clergyman.

VE.—John-Scobell Armstrong [VII/M], Esq., now of Brighton, and of the Bengal Civil Service, the eldest son of the Reverend John Armstrong, was born 31st July 1842. He married, at the British Embassy, Paris, 25th November 1865.

DANCE OF LONDON.

I.—Mary Gurnell [A], the elder daughter of Thomas Gurnell [YM] (see p. 196), was born in Love Lane, 7th April 1753. She married, 24th March 1772, George Dance, Esq., R.A. and F.S.A. He was the fifth son of another George Dance, Architect to the City of London, who built the Mansion House in 1739. George Dance, the younger, was born 1st March 1740-1, and in 1768 he succeeded, by purchase, to his father's office of Architect to the City, and while he held that post, built Newgate. He was for some years Professor of Architecture at the Royal Academy, and was no mean portrait painter. A series of his portraits has been published. Like his brother, Sir Nathaniel Dance-Holland, Bart., of Wittenham, Berkshire, he was one of the first forty Royal Academicians, and he survived them all. He had issue:—

II. Sir Charles-Webb Dance. See below, III.

Mrs. Dance appears to have predeceased her husband by many years. The exact date of her death is uncertain, but she was not named in her father's will in 1785. George Dance died at his house in Upper Gower Street, London, 14th January 1825, aged 83, and was buried in state in the crypt of St. Paul's cathedral, near the graves of Sir Joshua Reynolds and Sir Christopher Wren. The inscription on his monument is as follows:—
Here lie the Remains of George Dance Esqre RA & FAS. This eminent architect was the last surviving member of the original Forty Royal Academicians. Highly gifted by nature, the superior powers of his mind commanded the admiration, and the excellence of his Heart secured to him the affections of all who knew him. After a long useful and Honourable life, he died universally beloved and respected on the 14th January 1825 in the 84th year of his age.

III.—Sir Charles-Webb Dance [XV], Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, and Colonel in the Army, served under Wellington in the Peninsula and Low Countries Campaigns, and was present at the Battle of Waterloo. He married, in 1816, Isabella-Ann, youngest daughter of Captain Allen Cooper, of the Hon. E. I. Company’s Service, and had twelve children, of whom the eldest was:

III.—George Dance. See below, III.

Lady Dance died at Barr House, Bishop’s Hull, co. Somerset, 3rd November 1858, aged 62; and Sir Charles died there in November 1844, aged 58.

III.—The Reverend George Dance [XVI], B.A. of St. Peter’s College, Cambridge, Curate-in-charge of Swainswick, co. Somerset, and afterwards of Stanmore, co. Devon; married, at Bath, 2nd July 1850 (as his second wife), Sybil-Margaret, youngest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Scroggs, of Slanden, co. Wilts. (who was of the same family as the celebrated Lord Chief Justice, Sir William Scroggs), and had a daughter:

1. Mary — Sybill Dance, now of Stanmore; born in 1857.

Mr. Dance died at Stanmore, 20th January 1866, aged 47.
Chapter XVI.

Harman of London, Ealing, Woodford, and Cheshunt; and the families of Fletcher, Mildred, Sterry, and Bush.

"Methinks it shows a kind of gratitude and good-nature, to revive the memories and memorials of the pious and charitable benefactors long since dead and gone."

E.—Hannah Gurnell [JXN], the eldest surviving daughter of Jonathan Gurnell and Grizell Wilmer [VIHM], his wife (see p. 192), was born in Throckmorton Street, London, 17th December 1715. She married, in the F.M.H., Bull and Mouth, London, 19th October 1732, Jeremiah Harman, Merchant, of St. Martin's Lane, London, and of Ealing. He was the second son of John Harman, Haberdasher, of White Hart Court, London (and of Beatrice Fisher, his second wife), and a grandson of Captain Edward Harman, of Abingdon, co. Berks, who joined the early Quakers, and whose commissions, signed by the Protector, are in the possession of his descendants. Jeremiah Harman was born at White Hart Court, 26th July 1707. He had issue by Hannah Gurnell:—

EE—I. John Harman. See below, EE.

II. Jeremiah Harman, of whom presently (see p. 211).
I. Hannah Harman, married Thomas Fletcher (see below).

II. Mary Harman, born in St. Martin's Lane, 2nd February 1735-6, died in infancy.

III. Beatrice Harman, born there, 6th December 1736; married, in the F.M.H., Gracechurch Street, London, 13th May 1765, John Harford, Merchant, of London, and of Paradise Row, Stoke Newington. Beatrice Harford died at Stoke Newington, 20th July 1801, aged 64, and was buried in the F.B.G., Hammersmith, 27th July. John Harford, who was the third son of Truman and Mary Harford, of Castle Green, Bristol, was born there, 15th April 1736, and died at Stoke Newington, sine prole, 28th March 1816, aged 79, and was buried at Hammersmith, 3rd April.

Jeremiah Harman died 'of inward decay' at Ealing, 16th November 1741, at the early age of 34, and was buried 23rd November†. He bore the arms: Azure, a chevron between six rams, accosted, counter-tripping, two, two, and two, argent, attired or. Mrs. Harman, during her widowhood, resided in the Red House, on Ealing Green, which, it seems, was formerly the residence of her father, Jonathan Gurnell. It is now occupied by the Right Hon. Spencer-H. Walpole, M.P. Mrs. Harman was well-known for her active benevolence, and was on terms of friendly intimacy with the Princess Amelia of Gunnersburg, daughter of George II., arising out of their joint efforts to promote various charitable objects in the neighbourhood of Ealing. There is in the possession of one of her descendants a silver inkstand given to her by the Princess in 1769. Mrs. Harman built some almshouses at Ealing, which were in existence in 1872, with an eighteenth century date, but having become dilapidated, and being unendowed, they were rebuilt by public subscription. Mrs. Harman died of a decline at Ealing, 17th April 1795, aged 79, and was buried 25th April.† There is an obituary notice of her in a cotemporary number of the Gentleman's Magazine.

XX.—John Harman [XN], Merchant, of Cateaton Street, of Frederick Place, in Old Jewry, and of Lombard Street, London, and of Stoke Newington, of Clapton, and of Higham Hill, near Woodford, co. Essex, the elder son of Jeremiah Harman, was born at Ealing, 10th September 1738. He was a partner in the firm of Gurnell, Hoare and Harman (see p. 193. He resided during the latter years of his life at the Manor House, Higham, near Woodford, which he purchased, in 1790, of William Hornby, Governour of Bombay, and greatly improved. He was among the founders of the Philanthropic Society in St. George's Fields; and many charitable institutions had his warm interest and support. He married, at Bristol, 20th October 1760, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Truman Harford, of Bristol, and Mary Taylor his wife. Mrs. Harman was born at Bristol, 3rd March 1741-2, died at Higham Hill, 12th May 1821, aged 79, and was buried† 19th May. By her John Harman had issue:—

XXX.—I. Jeremiah Harman. See below, XXX.

II. John Harman, born in Cateaton Street, 21st January 1765; died an infant.

III. John Harman, born at Stoke Newington, 14th August 1769; died in Frederick Place, 24th April 1789, aged 19; buried 2nd May†.

I. Elizabeth Harman, married Daniel Mildred (see below).

† Buried in the F.B.G., Hammersmith.
II. Hannah Harman, born at Stoke Newington, 4th January 1768; married in the F.M.H., Winchmore Hill, 16th September 1795, Sampson Lloyd, Esq., Banker, of Birmingham, son of Sampson Lloyd, of Bordesley, co. Warwick, and Rachel Barnes his wife. Arms of Lloyd: Sable, a he-goat passant argent. Sampson Lloyd, the younger, was born circa 1765; died at Birmingham, 29th December 1800, aged 35; buried 7th January 1801.† Hannah Lloyd died at Snaresbrook, 14th April 1815, aged 47; buried 22nd April†. They had a son:—

i. Sampson Lloyd, born at Higham Hill, 16th June 1796; died at Woodford, 10th April 1815, aged 18; buried 22nd April†. He is mentioned in the Bibliographical Decameron, vol. iii., p. 376, by Dr. Dibdin, who was sometime his tutor.

III. Beatrice Harman, married Henry Sterry (see below).

IV. Grizell Harman, married Richard Bush (see below).

V. Maria Harman, of Calverley Lodge, Tunbridge Wells; born at Clapton, 10th August 1781; died unmarried at Tunbridge Wells, September 1864.†

VI. Lucy Harman, of Calverley Lodge, Tunbridge Wells; born at Clapton, 24th July 1784; died unmarried at Tunbridge Wells, 13th September 1845, aged 61.†

John Harman died at Higham, 29th July 1817, aged 78, and was buried 6th August.†

III.—Jeremiah Harman [X/NN], Merchant and Banker, of Frederick Place in Old Jewry, and Adam’s Court, † Buried in the F.B.G., Hammersmith.
London, and of Higham Hill, Woodford, co. Essex, the eldest son of John Harman \( \text{[YN]} \), was born in the parish of St. Lawrence, Jewry, 19th August 1763. He was a great financier as will be seen from the following extract from an obituary notice of him in the Gentleman’s Magazine:—

“The subject of the present memoir was a Director of the Bank of England from 1794 to 1827: embracing the eventful period of the restriction of cash payments, and all the great financial and political difficulties of the country. He was much consulted by Mr. Pitt and Lord Liverpool on all questions of moment; and also gave evidence of the most important character before the Bullion Committee of 1810; before the Committees on the resumption of Cash Payments, 1819; on the Bank Charter, in 1832; and on other investigations of similar character and importance.

“In 1816 he was Governor of the Bank; and in that year an addition of 25 per cent. was made to the capital of Bank-stock. Three years afterwards, in 1819, the thanks of the Court were voted to him for his share in the labours of a commission which had been appointed by the Crown for the prevention of forgery. In 1827, on his retirement, the thanks of the General Court were unanimously voted to him for his long and valuable services.”

Mr. Harman was a well-known fine art connoisseur, and his collection of pictures by the Old Masters, chiefly of the Dutch School, was justly held in high repute. He was moreover the patron of several modern artists. His friendship with Sir Charles Eastlake, and his sympathy with that great artist in the struggles of the early days of his career, are recorded and acknowledged by Lady Eastlake in her account of the life of her husband. Mr. Harman was also one of the patrons of the great though unfortunate painter, Benjamin-Robert Haydon, as is related in Haydon’s Autobiography, and in his Life and Letters by his son.

Jeremiah Harman married, in the F.M.H., Gracechurch Street, London, 29th March 1786, Mary, daughter of Thomas and Mary Howard, of London. She died at Tottenham, 18th May 1851, aged 86, and was buried in Woodford churchyard;

Durham, a member of the family of Watson, Baronets, of Huntwell and Cockfield Hall, co. Durham.

HARFORD AND LYNE, OF LONDON, BRISTOL, AND KEYNSHAM.

X.—Grizzell Green [A], the sixth daughter of Joseph and Mary Green [IXP] (see p. 234), was born in Spital Square, London, 27th October 1756. She married, from her then residence at Stoke Newington, in the F.M.H., Winchmore Hill, 23rd October 1782, Richard Harford, F.L.S., etc., of Budge Row, and Frederick Place, Old Jewry, Merchant, and of Stockwell and Clapham, co. Surrey. Arms of Harford: Sable, two bends argent, on a canton (the arms of Scrope) azure, a bend or; a martlet for difference. Richard Harford took the name and arms of Lyne by sign manual, bearing date 29th February 1820, on succeeding to the estate of Keynsham Manor, co. Somerset, left to him by his cousin, Edward Lyne, Esq.,

2. It is asserted by his descendants that Joshua Watson was a Baronet, and that his son, Henry Watson, who was a Quaker, never assumed the title, because to have done so would have been inconsistent with the principles of the Society of Friends. We have been unable, however, to find any mention of this family of Watson in the works that treat of titles of honour, in Surtees' History of Durham, or in Raine's North Durham. The arms also of the family seem to be unknown. But see Ecroyd Smith's Annals of Smith of Cantley, p. 206.
with that proviso. Edward Lyne, who was of the same family as Father Ignatius, was High Sheriff for co. Somerset in 1795, and died at Bath, 15th September 1819. His will was dated 18th December 1816. Richard Harford, afterwards Lyne, was the fourth son of Truman Harford, of Castle Green, Bristol, and of Mary Taylor, his wife, and being of the same family as the Harfords of Blaize castle, deduced his descent from John Harford, of Bosbury, co. Hereford, Gent., who died in 1559, and Anne, daughter of Richard Scrope, of Castle Coombe, co. Wilts.

Richard and Grizell Lyne had issue:—

II. Grizzell Hoare, born at Paradise Row, 24th December 1757; married first, in the F.M.H., White Hart Court, London, 16th December 1801, Wilson Birkbeck, Widower, Ironfounder, of Nicholas Lane, London, and of Hull and Norwich, son of John and Sarah Birkbeck, of Settle, co. York. He died 2nd June 1812, aged 58, and was buried at Winchmore Hill. Grizzell Birkbeck married secondly, 14th March 1828, William Allen, F.R.S., F.L.S., etc., Chemist, of Plough Court, London, of the eminent firm of Allen and Hanbury, and of Lindfield, co. Sussex. William Allen was the son of Job and Margaret Allen, and was distinguished as a man of science and as a philanthropist. He was a trustee for the Queen under the will of the Duke of Kent. Several memoirs of this estimable man have been published, and for a further account of his life we would refer the reader to the Annual Monitor 1845, and the Gentleman's Magazine. William Allen died at Lindfield, 30th December 1843, aged 73. Grizell, his wife, died at Paradise Row, 15th July 1835, aged 77, and was buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, 22nd July.

VII. Mary Hoare, born at Paradise Row, 8th January 1761; died there unmarried, 21st January 1819; buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, 28th January.

Samuel Hoare was born 20th November 1716, and was the second son of Joseph Hoare, Merchant and Banker, of Cork, and of Margaret Satterthwaite, his third wife. He was a partner with his father-in-law, Jonathan Gurnell, in the firm of Gurnell and Hoare afterwards Gurnell, Hoare and Harman, Merchants and Bankers. He died at Stoke Newington, 30th August 1796, and was buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, 6th September. We take the following extract from an obituary notice in the Gentleman's Magazine:—

"Aged 80, at Stoke Newington, where he had lived ever since 1748, possessed of an ample fortune, Mr. Samuel Hoare, one of the most respectable inhabitants of that parish, always uniform and consistent in his conduct; strict and steady, but neither bigoted nor troublesome, with his strict adherence to the principles of his sect; of the most irreproachable integrity; always ready to assist and serve the poor, without regarding their religious sentiments; plain, unassuming, and unostentatious, always more inclined to withdraw from, than to push himself into, public notice. A man whom nobody had any thing to say against. His family originated from Cork, and he carried on a large trade with Ireland."
Grizell Hoare, who is described in the same magazine as “a good, charitable and truly respectable woman,” died at Stoke Newington, 7th December 1802, and was buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, 17th December.

II.—Samuel Hoare [YR], Esq., of Old Broad Street and Lombard Street, London, and of Hampstead, co. Middlesex, the fourth son of Samuel Hoare, was born at Paradise Row, Stoke Newington, 29th July 1751. Samuel Hoare was a partner in the banking firm of Barnett, Hill, Barnett and Hoare, of no. 62 Lombard Street, and was well-known as a philanthropist. He married first, in the F.M.H., Norwich, 15th May 1776, Sarah, daughter of Samuel Gurney, Esq., of Norwich and London, and of Sarah Lawrence, his wife. Arms of Gurney: Argent, a cross engrailed gules. Sarah Hoare died suddenly in Bread Street, London, 31st January 1783, and was buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, 6th February. By her Samuel Hoare had issue:—

WOODS OF LONDON, STOKE NEWINGTON, TOTTENHAM, AND LEWES.

Arms: Argent, a wolf salient sable, collared or.

I.—Margaret Hoare [1], the second daughter of Samuel and Grizell Hoare (see p. 260), was born in Dyer's Court, Aldermanbury, London, 27th January 1747-8. She married, in the F.M.H., Gracechurch Street, London, 22nd March 1769, Joseph Woods, Woollen Draper, of White Hart Court, second son of Edward Woods, of London, and Sarah Neale, his wife. Joseph Woods was born 19th September 1738. He was a man of sterling worth and unostentatious habits, and, as a great philanthropist, was one of the earliest members of the committee for the abolition of the slave-trade, and a member of the Anti-slavery Society. His literary acquirements led him to be a frequent contributor in Latin and English prose and verse to the Monthly Ledger and the Gentleman's Magazine. In the latter magazine were inserted two highly appreciative obituary notices of him. Mr. Woods seems to have transmitted his literary tastes to his descendants, for his eldest son and grandson for seventy years succeeded him as honorary agents in the selection of books for the Philadelphia library, which is one of the most comprehensive in the United States. Joseph and Margaret Woods had issue:

II. A SON, born 1773; died an infant.

III. EDMUND WOODS, born 1774; died an infant.

IV. JOSEPH WOODS, Esq., F.S.A., F.G.S., and F.L.S., of Southover, near Lewes; born at Stoke Newington, 24th August 1776. Joseph Woods was by profession an Architect, and one of the founders, and the first honorary secretary of the “London Architectural Society.”
in 1806. When this Society was merged in the "Royal Society of British Architects," Mr. Woods was admitted as an honorary member. Several tours in Italy and Greece resulted in the publication of his Letters of an Architect (2 vols. 4to, 1828), which forms a standard work of reference. Taking up natural history, and especially botany, as his favourite pursuit, he contributed many papers to the scientific societies that he joined. In 1858 he published his well-known Tourist's Flora. His conversational powers were great, and his kindness in aiding the education of young men procured him many friends. He died suddenly at Southover, 9th January 1864, aged 87, and was buried in the F.B.G., Lewes. There was a long obituary notice of him in the Gentleman's Magazine, and several contemporary scientific publications.

V. GEORGE WOODS, of whom presently (see p. 273).

I. MARGARET WOODS, of Southover, Lewes; born at Stoke Newington, 13th February 1778; died at Lewes, 15th December 1868; buried in the F.B.G. there. Margaret Woods remained a consistent and liberal-minded 'Friend' all her life, and was well-known as the compiler of her mother's journal, and as a generous benefactor.

Joseph Woods died at Stoke Newington, 27th June 1812, and was buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill, 3rd July. Margaret Woods was a highly gifted woman, and Extracts from the Journal of Margaret Woods became a standard book in Friends' libraries both in England and America. She died at Paradise Row, Stoke Newington, 5th July 1821, and was buried beside her husband, 12th July.
II.—Samuel Woods [LV], F.G.S., of George Yard, Lombard Street, London, and of Tottenham, the eldest son of Joseph Woods, was born in White Hart Court, 13th August 1772. He married, 9th March 1797, Lucy, eldest daughter of Benjamin Webb, of St. John's Square, London, and of Tottenham Green, and of Mary Gregory, his wife, and had issue:—

III.—I. Samuel Woods. See below, III.

II. Edward Woods, Civil Engineer, of Victoria Street, Westminster, and no. 45 Onslow Gardens, London; born in George Yard, 28th April 1814. Mr. Woods was formerly Resident Engineer of the Liverpool and Manchester Railway and was President of the Institute of Civil Engineers 1886-7. He married, at Edgbaston, 5th October 1840, Mary Dent, daughter of Thomas Goodman, of Peterborough and Birmingham. She was born in September 1819; died 15th April 1879. They had issue:—

i. Edward-Henry Woods, Civil Engineer, born 25th June 1841; married, 9th June 1864, Emily-Wilson, second daughter of Matthew and Susan Stow, of Leeds, and of Clifton, near Bristol. She was born 29th March 1841.

ii. Frank Woods, M.A., Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar of St. Andrew’s, Nottingham, formerly of All Saints’, Hereford; born 21st November 1846; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge; B.A. (second class Classical Tripos) 1869; first class Theological Tripos 1870; M.A. 1872; ordained Deacon 1870, and Priest 1871; married, 4th September 1872, Alice-Octavia, third daughter of Joseph Fry.
J.P., of Fairkytes, Hornchurch, co. Essex, and Alice Partridge, his wife, and granddaughter of Joseph Fry, of Plashet House, Essex (and Elizabeth Gurney, his wife, the distinguished prison philanthropist). Mrs. Woods was born 10th February 1845, and has issue:—

1. Frank - Theodore Woods, born 15th January 1874;
2. Edward - Sydney Woods, born 1st November 1877;
3. Evelyn - Mary - Alice Woods, born 7th December 1875;
4. Richenda - Margaret Woods, born 20th March 1879; and

III. Mary Woods, born 23rd August 1801; died 19th February 1854.

IV. Lucy-Maria Woods, of Nottingham; born 4th April 1805.

V. Rachel Woods, born 24th April 1807; died 29th March 1858.

VI. Emily Woods, born 29th January 1810; died an infant.

VII. Catherine Woods, of Nottingham; born 2nd April 1812.

VIII. Margaret Woods, born 14th September 1818; died 3rd December 1840.

XI. Sarah Woods, born 18th June 1821; married, at St. Mary's, Walthamstow, 20th June 1849, Phillip Edward Sewell, only son of Isaac Sewell and Mary Wright, his wife, of Catton, co. Norfolk. She died 13th December 1866. P.-E. Sewell had three sons and five daughters.

Samuel Woods was one of the founders of the short-lived scientific Askesian Society, and of the London Institution in Finsbury Circus. He was the first Honorary Secretary of the latter, and for many years its most active Director. He contributed various papers to the Geological Society. From an early age he was engaged in works of philanthropy, and was one of the first members of the Prison Discipline Committee, and a promoter of Savings Banks. He died at Liverpool, 14th March 1853, aged 81, and was buried in the F.B.G., Winchmore Hill.

III.—Samuel Woods [XII], F.R.G.S., Stockbroker, now of Draper's Gardens, London, and of Bromley, co. Kent, the eldest son of Samuel Woods, was born in George Yard, 18th May 1808. He married, at St. George's, Bloomsbury, 10th
May 1837, Emma, second daughter of Frederick-Benjamin King, of Stoke Newington, and Emma Austin, his wife. She was born 9th December 1806. Samuel Woods has had issue:—

THE SECOND HOUSE OF BRADSHAW.

E.—Joseph Hoare Bradshaw, Esq., J.P., Banker, of the firm of Hoare, Barnettts and Company, of no. 62 Lombard Street, and of Upper Hyde Park Street, London, and of Hornsey, co. Middlesex, was the fourth son of Thomas Bradshaw (see p. 276). He was born at Mile Cross, 20th February 1784, and married, 15th December 1823, Catherine, youngest daughter of Richard Stuart, Esq., of Clare, co. Antrim, and had issue:—

EE.—I. Thomas-Joseph Bradshaw. See below, EE.

III. Henry Bradshaw, Esq., M.A., a Senior Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, and Librarian of the University; born 2nd February 1831; died very suddenly, while sitting at his library table, 11th February 1886, unmarried. We cannot do more in this place than touch currente calamo upon the life of this accomplished scholar and bibliographer. We will only quote the concluding words of one of his friends, who contributed three able papers to the Cambridge Review at the time of his death, and is now engaged in preparing a memoir of him for the press. He says:—"His "best gift was himself, and dying he has left us "the noblest legacy that a man can leave, the "memory and example of a stainless life, spent "in promoting the cause of science, and in aiding "his fellowmen." Mr. Bradshaw was buried in King's College chapel, 15th February 1886, in the presence of a vast assemblage of his friends, amongst whom were the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of Ely. A simple stone marks the place of his burial.

I. Katherine Bradshaw, born 14th February 1826; married, at St. George's, Hanover Square, London, 17th February 1848, John-Henry Daniell, Esq., of Fairchild, co. Surrey (second son of Thomas Daniell, Esq., of Little Berkhamstead), and had a son, Henry-Averill Daniell (see p. 280).

II. Sarah Bradshaw, born 5th July 1827; married, at Bournemouth, 14th June 1864, the Right Reverend Ashton Oxenden, D.D., Lord Bishop of Montreal, and Metropolitan of Canada (sixth son of Sir Henry Oxenden, Bart.), and has a daughter, Mary-Ashton Oxenden, born 20th January 1867. Arms of Bishop Oxenden: Argent, a chevron gules between three oxen sable, a martlet for difference. Bishop Oxenden was born 28th September 1808, and was formerly Rector of Pluckley, co. Kent, Honorary Canon of Canterbury, etc. He is the author of many popular religious works.

III. Mary-Charlotte Bradshaw, born 29th July 1839; married, at Chelsham, co. Surrey, the Reverend Robert-Dusautoy White, M.A., Vicar of Moreton-Pinkney, co. Northampton (son of the late Robert White, Esq., of Egypt House, Cowes, Isle of Wight), by whom she has no issue.

Joseph-Hoare Bradshaw died in Upper Park Street, London, 24th May 1845. Mrs. Bradshaw was born 24th June 1800; died at Bournemouth, 23rd November 1870, and was buried there.

H.E.— Thomas—Joseph Bradshaw [XVII], Esq., of Newcastle-on-Tyne, J.P., a Judge of the County Court of Northumberland, was the eldest son of Joseph-Hoare Bradshaw. He married first, 21st January 1847, the Hon. Frances-Catherine Devereux, Maid of Honour to the Queen, and only daughter of Henry-Fleming-Lea, 14th Viscount Hereford, and had issue:—

I. Victor—Alexander Bradshaw, Sub-Lieutenant, R.N., born 13th April 1848. Her Majesty the Queen was one of the sponsors at his baptism. He died sine prole at Yan-Coomassie, Africa, on service in the Naval Brigade, 16th February 1874.

II. Wilfred—Nixian—Stewart Bradshaw, born 8th June 1850; died 10th June 1860.

I. Mabel—Frances Catherine Bradshaw, born 8th January 1853; married, 6th April 1875, her cousin-german, Henry—Averill Daniell, Esq., son of John—Henry Daniell, of Fairchild (see p. 279), and has issue.

was born 20th October 1852. The arms of his family are: Or, two bars azure between three ducal coronets gules.

III. Muriel-Frances Bradshaw, born 2nd January 1857.

Mrs. Bradshaw died 12th January 1857, and Mr. Bradshaw married secondly, 27th December 1860, Emily-Isabella, only child of Colonel Frederick Halkett (son and heir of General Sir Hugh Halkett, G.C.H., K.C.B.), and had issue:—

I. Hugh-Stewart Bradshaw, born 9th May 1868.

II. Humphrey-Stuart-Halkett Bradshaw, born 24th May 1872; died 24th March 1877.

I. Evelyn-Emily Bradshaw, born 12th December 1862.

II. Lilian Bradshaw, born 21st May 1865.

III. Winifred-Georgine-Margaret Bradshaw, born 1st November 1879.

Mr. Bradshaw died suddenly at Newcastle, 17th December 1884.

WILMER OF LONDON AND CHIGWELL.

"It is not without pleasure, and perchance it may not be without use, that we rescue some quaint old document from the dust of ages; and that we arrest the floating memories of men & things, as they pass down the stream of time toward the ocean of oblivion."

In the earlier part of the 17th century there was living in London, and at Chigwell in the south-west of Essex, a family of Wilmer, which claimed to be descended from the Wilmers of Warwickshire, although there is no record of the intermediate generations. The following is a copy of their pedigree as entered in the Visitation of Essex made in 1634 by George Owen, York Herald, and Henry Lilly, Rouge Rose, and edited in 1878 for the Harleian Society by W.-C. Metcalfe, Esq., F.S.A., from Harleian MS. 1542:

Wilmer.

Arms.—Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or. [Wilmer.]

James Wilmer of London haberdasher descended = Mary d. of William from the Wilmers of Warwickshire. | Pendred.

Thomas Wilmer of London haberdasher = Agnes d. of Richard Lake.

Elizabeth d. of Nicholas = Thomas Wilmer of Chigwell = Sarah d. of Will'm Gregory of Battersea in com. Surrey; 1 wife. | Hodges of London in com. Essex & free of the Society of the Salters of London 1634; 2 wife.

IX.—James Wilmer, the first in the above pedigree, Citizen and Haberdasher, of London, married, prior to November 1597, Mary, daughter of William Pendred, and had a son, THOMAS WILMER, of whom presently. It appears that a certain Nicholas Spackman by his will bequeathed to Mary Pendred, who married James Wilmer, three messuages in Paternoster Row, London, which were known as the sign of the Hart, the sign of the Dolphin, and the sign of Adam and Eve. On the 12th of November 1597 a Fine was passed between James Wilmer and Mary his wife, querents, and Francis Peircy and Juliana his wife and William Fynche and Mary his wife, deforciants, of a message and garden in Chigwell. James Wilmer died in or before 1610, for in thirty days from Easter in that year a Fine was passed between Mary Wilmer, his widow, querent, and a certain John Wilmer, deforciant, of premises in Chigwell. Mary Wilmer died before 1635.

IX.—Thomas Wilmer, Citizen and Haberdasher, of London, of the parish of St. Martin, Ludgate, was the son of James and Mary Wilmer. He married Agnes, daughter of Richard Lake, and had a son and heir, THOMAS WILMER (see below, XIX.) Administration of the goods of the elder Thomas was granted to his widow, Agnes Wilmer, 22nd September 1626. By an Indenture dated 31st October 1626, Agnes Wilmer conveyed the three above-mentioned messuages in Paternoster Row to the use of her son, Thomas Wilmer, and his heirs for ever, though her right to make this conveyance was disputed in 1647. Her said son, XIX.—Thomas Wilmer, of London, and of Chigwell, co. Essex, was free of the Society of the Salters in 1634. He married first, Elizabeth, daughter of Nicholas Gregory, of Battersea, co. Surrey, and had issue:

I. THOMAS WILMER. See below, II.

II. NICHOLAS WILMER, of the parish of St. Gregory, London, Silkman and Freeman of the City; married, about December 1643, Hester Clerkson, sister of Robert Clerkson, and died intestate within a month of the marriage, in his house in Paternoster Row. His relict married secondly, prior to May 1645, Robert Bagnall. On the 21st of May 1645, Robert and Hester Bagnall filed a Bill in Chancery from which we take the following extracts:—

"One Thomas Willmer late of Chigwell in the co. of Essex, deceased, father of the said Nicholas having two sons Thomas the eldest and the said Nicholas, did purchase to him & to the said Thomas his eldest son and their heirs the fee simple of three messuages in Paternoster Row, London, the purchase whereof cost the said Thomas 700£, out of which purchase money one of whom the said Thomas Willmer the father purchased the premises did appoint unto the said Nicholas by way of abatement out of the purchase money 100£. The said Thomas Willmer the father did about 16 years since become bound unto the said Nicholas in 100£.

The said Nicholas died * possessed of a personal estate of good value and (amongst other things) of two Bonds wherein his said father and brother stood respectively bound, and also a certain book whereby his dealings in the trade of a Silkman did appear.

"Letters of administration of the goods, etc., of the said Nicholas are granted unto your Oratrix and the Bonds, etc., of right belong unto your Orator in right of your Oratrix Hester. But the said Thomas Wilmer the younger did immediately upon the death of the said Nicholas cause the dead corps of the said Nicholas to be carried from his said house to Chigwell to be there buried, & procured your said Oratrix to accompany the said corps. The said Thomas Wilmer the younger entered into the aforesaid house in the time of your Oratrix Hester's absence & took or caused to be taken the said two Bonds, &c." 6

The answer of Thomas Wilmer was to the effect that the two Bonds were delivered to him by Robert Clerkson, the complainant Hester's brother. The following is the Inventory of Nicholas Wilmer's goods:

"An Inventory of all and singular the good & Chattell & debt of Nicholas Willmer Citizen of London late of the parish of S't Gregory London deceased taken valued and prized the tenth day of February Anno d[i]i stilo Anglice one Thowsand six hundred forty three by Henry Dermer and Joseph Batchelor as followeth vizt/

III. ROBERT WILMER, baptized 14th January 1623-4; ³ buried 20th January 1623-4.†

Thomas Wilmer married secondly, 12th June 1625,† Sarah, ³ daughter of William Hodges, of London, and had issue:— ³

I. WILLIAM WILMER, baptized 27th August 1626†; ³ not mentioned in the Visitation of 1634, and ³ therefore probably dead.

I. MARY WILMER. ³

III. ELIZABETH WILMER.

II. SARA WILMER. ³

IV. SUSAN WILMER.

There was the will of a Sarah Willmor of Essex, who was ³ probably the widow of Thomas Wilmer. It was dated 20th ³ September 1658, and proved 6th November 1658. She names ³ her daughter, Mary Bullman, and her son-in-law, John Bullman, ³ whom she appoints executor; her grandchildren, Elizabeth, Mary, and Thomas Bullman; her daughter, Sarah Tanner, and her son-in-law, Jonas Tanner; her daughter, Elizabeth Hill, and her son-in-law, Nicholas Hill; and her daughter, Frances Willmore7.

By an Indenture dated 30th June 1626, Thomas Wilmer acquired to himself from George Scott, Esq., Robert Clarke, Knt., and John Scott, a close of meadow and pasture, called Hammond meade, and a close and field, called Langland, in Chigwell, together containing 26 acres. For this conveyance he neglected to obtain a royal licence, and consequently we find him paying 20s. for a pardon, which was granted by letters patent dated 14th June 16328. He made his will 12th May 1634, appointing a certain John Wilmer executor. He left all his lands, which were worth 300/ a year, to his elder son Thomas, and 500/ to his younger son Nicholas8. After his death, which took place 14th August 1638, an Inquisition post mortem was taken, of which the following is an abstract:

"Inquisition taken at Stratford Langton9 in the County of Essex 26th January 14 Charles I [A.D. 1638-9] after the death of Thomas Wilmer. They [the Jurors] say that the said Thomas was seized in his demesne as of tee of seven messuages in le old Bailie in the parish of St. Sepulchre without Newegate, London; and of one messuage called the signe of the gold Ring in the parish of St. Martin within Ludgate; also of one tenement in Lamborne in the County of Essex called Bankes containing 8 acres; and of two other closes called Colliers containing 8 acres; and of one other tenement called Roles with the lands, tenements, woods, and orchard to the same pertaining in Chigwell in the County of Essex. The said Thomas was seized of 14 acres of meadow called Hamonds Meade and of one close containing 12 acres called Langlands in Chigwell.

"By his Deed bearing date 2nd November 2 Charles I [A.D. 1626] he covenanted with a certain William Lodges10 that he Thomas Wilmer and his heirs should stand and be seized of the closes called Hamondes Mead and Langlandes to the use of the same Thomas and Sarah his wife, now alive, for the term of their lives and of the longest liver of them for the jointure of the same Sarah.

"The said Thomas Wilmer on the 12th day of May 10 Charles I made his Will. John Wilmer was Executor of the Will aforesaid.

"The said Thomas died 14th August last past. Thomas Wilmer is his son and next heir of the age of 20 years and not more.

"The close called Bankes and the two closes... were held of the Lord of the manor of Lamborne by fealty and a rent of 10s. by the year for all services. The message and land called Roles were held of the Lord of the manor of Barrington in free socage by fealty and a rent of 6s., and it is worth by the year beyond reprises 20s.

"The seven messuages in le old bailie and the message called the Gold ring were held of the King in free and common socage as of his Manor of East Greenwich by fealty only for all services, and it is worth by the year beyond reprises 3l.

"The meadow called Hamondes Mead and Langlandes were held of the King in capite by knight's service." [Inq. post mortem, 14 Charles
I., part 3, no. 104.]

XV.— Thomas Wilmer, Esq., of Chigwell, a Major in the Royalist Army, "was of the age of 20 years and not more" at the death of his father, Thomas Wilmer, in 1638. He married, in or before 1640, Mary... By an Indenture, dated 16th November 1639, Thomas Wilmer for 40l. conveyed to Thomas Woodward, Esq., of Lambeth, Henry Dermer, George Nutt, Gent., of Chigwell, and Cuthbert Curwyn the capital message called Rolls, a 'parcell of medowe in Broadmeade 'conteyninge two acres,' and a 'parcell of wood or grove called 'Rolls grove conteyning four acres,' all situate in Chigwell. The grantees were probably feoffees in trust, and the deed itself executed in contemplation of Thomas Wilmer's marriage, which seems to have taken place about this date. On November the 17th in the same year Henry Jackson, Citizen and Grocer, of London, in consideration of 1900l., granted and sold to Thomas Wilmer the manor of Barringtons alias Barrington in Chigwell, Loughton, and Woodford, co. Essex. Barringtons, otherwise called Rolls, was one of the manors in Chigwell. The mansion house lay about a mile to the north of the church. By an Indenture, dated 16th November 1647, Thomas Wilmer, for 1736l., sold to William Gouge, "Doctor in Divinity and Pastor of the Church of Blackfryers," London, all his messuages "scituate in Paternoster rowe London on the south side of the said streete * that is to say * the three Cranes * the "Dolphin * heretofore * called * the halfe moone * the "Adam and Eve * and the Goate." Dr. Gouge appears to have been in some doubt as to the soundness of Thomas Wilmer's title to these messuages, for on December the 11th in the same year he petitioned in the Court of Chancery that Thomas Wilmer, and also Henry Dormer, who declared that he was privy to Wilmer's title to the premises, might be summoned to declare on their oaths that Thomas Wilmer was lawfully seized of them. The Answer of Thomas Wilmer was made December the 13th, and began as follows:—

"There still is some treaty concerning the sale of five messuages, whereof two are put into one in Paternoster row, viz.; one messuage called the Three Cranes heretofore demised to this Defendant for 21 years from William late Lord Bishop of London by his Indenture 7 June 15 Charles I, one other messuage called the sign of the Hart, one other messuage called the sign of the Dolphin, one other messuage called the sign of Adam and Eve, of all which, except the Three Cranes, this Defendant is seized to him & his heirs in fee simple & now holdeth the same exonerated from all former bargains * except the title of Dower of Mary now wife of this Defendant."

A Fine was passed in 1656 between George Lubbs and Adam Ke . . . , querents, and . . . Wilmer and Frances

14. A Fine was passed in 15 days from St. Martin's Day 15 Charles I., between Thomas Willmer, Gent., querent, and Henry Jackson, Gent., and Sarah his wife, deforciantz of the manor of Barringtons, with the appurts., and of 20 messages, 10 cottages, 20 tofts, 20 gardens, 20 orchards, 200 acres of land, 100 acres of meadow, 200 acres of pasture, 50 acres of wood, and his wife, deforciants, of land and houses in Chigwell, Woodford, Loughton 16 . . . . . If Thomas Wilmer is one of the deforciants in this Fine, he must have married a second time. It seems probable that he is the Thomas Wilmer named in a Fine passed in 1657 between Henry Barnard, querent, and Thomas Wilmer and Frances his wife, deforciants, of two messuages in the parish of St. Martin, Ludgate, London. 17

Thomas Wilmer, who, as has already been related, was an officer in the army of King Charles I., suffered heavily for his loyalty to his Sovereign, as is shown by the Royalist Composition Papers, from which the following extracts are taken.

Urgentur, ignotique, longa
Nocte, carent quia vate sacro.—Horace, Od., iv. 9, 25.

Arms borne by this branch of the Wilmer Family: Gules, a chevron vair between three eagles displayed or; crest: an eagle's head or between two wings expanded vair.

John Wilmer, Gent., of Stony Stratford, co. Buckingham, was the founder of an extensive family of Wilmer, which now flourishes in London and its neighbourhood. Much uncertainty hangs about his ancestry; it is stated by persons still living to have been within the memory of their parents that he was related to the Wilmers who resided at the neighbouring village of Moulsoe (see chap. XXII.). This belief would seem to gain some confirmation from the fact that both these branches of the family used the uncommon Christian name of Bradford. But granted proof of this relationship, we should still be no nearer John Wilmer's ancestry, for the origin of the Moulsoe Wilmers is involved in equal obscurity with his own. It has also been said that John Wilmer was an Oporto merchant. Again, it has been supposed, and, we think, with much more probability, that John Wilmer was a surgeon practising at Stony Stratford; and further, that he was identical with a certain John Wilmer, an apothecary, who was living at the neighbouring town of Olney in 1736, and who, apparently, was related to the Moulsoe Wilmers (see chap. X.VII.). The earliest evidence that we have of John Wilmer’s residence at Stony Stratford is in March 1744-5, and between the two dates he might have moved thither from Olney. Unfortunately, the Olney parish registers contain no entries relating to the family at this period. John Wilmer married Mary, and had issue:

I. William Wilmer, baptized 10th March 1744-5.

II. Bradford Wilmer. See below, III.

III. John Wilmer, Captain in the Warwickshire Fencibles; baptized 4th January 1747-8; married Miss Smart, of Stivichall, near Coventry, and had a son:

John Wilmer, Surgeon, of Derby, aged about thirty in 1821; married his first cousin, daughter of John Smart, of Stivichall, and had several children living in 1821.

John Wilmer died at Coleshill, co. Warwick, in 1816.

IV. Richard Wilmer, baptized 26th November 1750.

V. William Wilmer, baptized 5th August 1751.

VI. Robert Wilmer, baptized 28th May 1754; buried 9th June 1755.

1. The statements in italics are on the authority of a pedigree compiled in 1823 for Mrs. Field, of Upper Helmsley, by William Ratcliffe, Rouge Croix, Pursuivant of Arms.

2. The burial is not recorded in the par. reg. of Coleshill.

FROM A MINIATURE IN THE POSSESSION OF THE REVEREND JOHN WATKINS.
I. Anna-Maria Wilmer, ancestress of Watkins of Yorkshire (see chap. XXI).

Mrs. Wilmer was buried 18th November 1776*; and John Wilmer was buried 17th September 1773*. His will was as follows:—

"This is the last will and testament of John Wilmer of Stony Stratford:—I will and bequeath to my wife Mary Wilmer all my land and Estate in Cosgrove field in the county of Northampton during her natural life and after her decease I give and bequeath the said land to my son John Wilmer, my son Richard Wilmer, and my daughter Anne not as joint tenants, but tenants in common to be equally divided amongst them. If my son Bradford Wilmer does not enjoy the two houses in Stony Stratford I will that he should share the said Estate with them. I give all my personal Estate including the stock in trade of my son John Wilmer to be equally divided amongst my wife Mary Wilmer and all my children. I appoint my said wife Mary Wilmer sole executrix of this my last will and testament. Jnº X Wilmer. Signed sealed etc. this 20th day of November 1768 in the presence of us Jnº Lambert, Thoº Poulter, Wº Lambert." [Proved 28th April 1774, by the oath of Mary Wilmer, the executrix, to whom administration was granted. P.C.C. 164 Bargevare.]

II.—Bradford Wilmer, Esq., M.D., of Much Park Street, Coventry, the second son of John and Mary Wilmer, was baptized 19th March 1745-6†. He married first, by licence, 11th March 1773‡, Sarah Pickering, of the parish of St. Michael, Coventry, by whom, according to Ratcliff, he had no surviving issue. Mrs. Wilmer died 11th November 1791, aged 39, and was buried in the lady chapel of St. Michael's church, Coventry; M.I. there.

Dr. Wilmer married secondly, at Meriden, co Warwick, 22nd November 1792, Sophia, daughter of the Reverend Bartholomew

iv. Abraham Turner, born 26th and baptized 27th December 1834; educated at Rugby school under Dr. Tait (late Archbishop of Canterbury); matriculated at Worcester College, Oxford; but, outgrowing his strength, died 14th April 1858, and was buried in Mitton churchyard, beside his brother Bradford; M.I. there. He was known among his friends as “The Walking Bradshaw,” for it was one of his favourite occupations to study the working of trains on the various railways. He had a great veneration for Bradshaw, and on one occasion called upon him in Manchester, when the Quaker said, "I am proud to see thee, Friend."

i. SELINA-JANE TURNER, born 7th September 1827; died 27th January 1845.

ii. Caroline - Sarah Turner, born 21st August 1831; married, in 1862, Captain Massey, and had an only son, Captain Massey, who was on General Hicks Pasha's Staff in the Soudan, where he was killed.

Dr. Wilmer married fourthly, in 1806, Selina, sister of his third wife, and daughter of Dr. Rattray, and by her (who died at Bath, 30th April 1819) had issue:

I. Bradford Wilmer, of whom presently (see below).

II. John Wilmer, Esq., of Frankfurt, Germany, baptized 14th March 1810; married a German lady; died sine prole in December 1880.

III. William Wilmer, Esq., Lieutenant-Colonel in H.M. Royal Irish Hussars; baptized 25th October 1811. The following extract from the Gentleman's Magazine, under date 30th January 1858, records the chief events in this gallant officer's career:

"Lieut-Colonel Wilmer served with the 16th Lancers throughout the campaign in Afghanistan, including the siege and capture of Ghuznee (medal). He was also present in the action of the Maharajpore. He afterwards served with the 14th Light Dragoons, throughout the Punjaub campaign in 1848-49, including the action of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, pursuit of the enemy across the Jhelum, and of the Afghans over the Indus and through the Khyber Pass. For his services in the Punjaub he received a medal and clasps. This gallant officer was likewise employed in the Persian expeditionary force in 1857, and was present at the bombardment and capture of Mohamreh, and subsequent pursuit of the Persian army. On his promotion to his present rank, Lieut.-Col. Wilmer was transferred from the 14th Light Dragoons to the 8th Hussars, and joined that corps on its arrival at Bombay about six weeks ago. It may be added that in the action of Ramnuggur, when the shattered remains of the 14th were retiring from the Nullah, Lieut.-Colonel, then Captain Wilmer, with characteristic valour and kindness, dismounted under a heavy fire to carry off a wounded brother officer. On another occasion he had a narrow escape when attacked and surrounded by mountain robbers, when Lieutenant Inverarity was murdered."

Colonel Wilmer died at Bombay, of malignant small-pox, 30th January 1858, aged 46. He married, 26th February 1835, Margaret-Jane, daughter of William - Ramsay White, Esq., Surgeon in the 84th and 31st Regiments, and the 16th Lancers, and Staff-Surgeon (1st class). Colonel Wilmer had issue:—

Chapter XXI.

WATKINS OF YORKSHIRE.

"Through Coningsburgh's vale flows the bright river still,
And the dungeon-tower yet crowns the wood-covered hill,
And its dungeon is still yawning darkly below;
—But the ivy alone is its green banner now."—W. H. Sterndale.

Arms of Watkins: Or, on a chevron gules three horseshoes of the field, on a chief of the second as many fleur-de-lis of the first; quartering Keen: Azure, a talbot passant or, on a chief indented argent a cross flory sable; and Gibbs: Sable, three battleaxes erect argent, a bordure ermine. Crest of Watkins: A lion rampant gules, holding in his dexter paw a fleur-de-lis or. Motto: Virtute avorum.

The Reverend Henry Watkins, M.A., Clerk in Holy Orders, was the third son of Joseph Watkins, of Clapton, co. Middlesex, of Wright's Buildings, Kensington, and of Wimpole Street, London, by Magdalen, his wife, daughter and heiress of John Gibbs, Esq., by his wife, who was the daughter and co-heiress of Sir Robert Kite, Knt. Joseph Watkins, of Clapton, was the elder son of another Joseph Watkins, of Abingdon, co. Berks., who married Frances, daughter and sole heiress of John Keen, of Congersbury, the second son of Edmund Keen, of Wrington, by Frances, his wife, daughter of Christopher Locke, of Publow, co. Somerset, and aunt to John Locke, the Philosopher. Henry Watkins was born 10th June, and baptized 23rd June 1743 in the chapel of the British Factory at Lisbon, where his parents were then residing. He was educated at Christ's College, Cambridge, and took the degree of B.A. in 1764, being fourth Wrangler; and of M.A. in 1767. He was Rector of Barnborough, co. York, resident Vicar of Conisborough or Coningsburgh, in the same county, from 1770 to 1829, and Prebendary of York cathedral and Southwell collegiate churches for 57 years. Joseph Hunter, in his list of the vicars of Conisborough in 1828, says that Henry Watkins had "outnumbered the years of the "long incumbency of his predecessor Henry Saxton, and not "fallen short of him in the graces and virtues which best adorn "the ministerial character." Mr. Watkins married, 12th May 1772, Anna-Maria, only daughter of John Wilmer, Esq., of Stony Stratford, co. Buckingham, and sister of Bradford Wilmer, Esq., M.D., of Much Park Street, Coventry (see p. 297). She was born 27th September, and baptized at St. Mary's, Stony Stratford, 16th November 1752. It is said that she was married from the house of her brother, Bradford Wilmer, at Coventry, but the marriage is not recorded in the registers of any one of the Coventry churches. She died 28th May 1843, in her 91st year, and was buried, 3rd June, in a vault in the chancel of Conisborough church; M.I. Her will was dated 13th May 1834, and proved at York 26th July 1843. Henry and Anna-Maria Watkins had issue:—

EE.—I. HENRY WATKINS. See below, EE.

I. MARIA WATKINS, born at Doncaster, 8th March 1773; died unmarried, 17th July 1835; buried in a vault in the chancel of Conisborough church; M.I.

II. SARAH WATKINS, born 6th July, and baptized 9th August 1774; died unmarried, 28th July 1865, in her 92nd year; buried at Conisborough, 3rd August; will dated 25th December 1861; proved 14th October 1865.

III. Frances Watkins, born 23rd March, and baptized 13th May 1777; married first, 1st October 1807, Henry Campion, Esq., of The Deanery, South Malling, co. Sussex, who died sine prole 9th March 1836, in his 74th year. Mrs. Campion married secondly, 17th September 1838, Lieutenant-General Sir Fitzroy-Jefferies-Grafton Maclean, Bart., of Morvaren, Colonel of the 45th regiment. He died 5th July 1847; and she died sine prole 12th May 1843, and was buried in Christ church, Doncaster, 19th May.

IV. Emma Watkins, born 21st January, and baptized 1st February 1779; married, 9th December 1814, Sir Philip Francis, K.C.B. The marriage was solemnized by special licence, at night, in the drawing-room of no. 15, St. James's Square, in the parish of St. James, London. Lady Francis died sine prole 1st June 1852, and was buried at Conisborough, 8th June. Her will was dated 23rd September 1848, and proved at York 21st September 1852, and at London 1st November 1852. Sir Philip Francis was a distinguished politician, and, even apart from his supposed authorship of the Letters of Junius, a powerful pamphleteer. He was the only son of the Reverend Philip Francis, D.D., of Trinity College, Dublin, and was born in that city, 22nd October 1740. He married first, in 1762, Miss Macrabie, the daughter of a retired London merchant, and in 1773 he was appointed a member of the Supreme Council of Bengal, with a salary of 10,000/. a year. As it has been mentioned above, he is supposed to have written the Letters of Junius, but their authorship is still an open question, although Sir Philip's biographers have brought forward many and weighty reasons for assigning the letters to him. He died 23rd December 1818. His arms were: Per bend sinister sable and or, a lion rampant counterchanged, charged on the shoulder with a shamrock counterchanged of the field; crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, a demi-lion rampant sable, charged on the shoulder with a shamrock of the first, holding in his paws a garb proper.

V. Anna Watkins, born 30th June, and baptized 8th July 1781; married, 3rd September 1798, the Rev. John-Hall Clay, M.A., of Calverton, Vicar of Oxton, co. Nottingham. He died 6th September 1822, leaving a son, John Clay, who died 9th October 1822. Mrs. Clay died 21st December 1856, and was buried at Christ church, Doncaster, 26th December. Her will was proved at York 10th February 1857.

Henry Watkins died 22nd November 1829, aged 86 years, and was buried in the vault in the chancel of his church, within a stone's-cast of the historic castle of Conisborough; M.I. His will was dated 16th November 1822, and proved at York 3rd June 1830.

XX.—The Reverend Henry Watkins, Clerk in Holy Orders, J.P. for the West Riding of Yorkshire, only son of Henry Watkins and Anna-Maria Wilmer, was born 6th July 1775. He was educated at Christ's College, Cambridge, B.A., 1798; presented to the vicarage of Silkstone, near Barnsley, 23rd March 1835; Vicar of Beckingham, co. Nottingham; and Curate of Barnborough, co. York. He married, at Tickhill, near Doncaster, 15th March 1803, Frances-Mary, eldest daughter and coheiress of Freeman Bower, Esq., of Killerby Hall, Maltby, and Bawtry, co. York, by Mary, his wife, elder daughter and coheiress of Nathaniel Pearson, Esq., of Tyers Hill, near Darfield, in the same county, who married Priscilla, sister and sole heiress of Thomas Rayney, Esq., of Tyers Hill. Mrs. Watkins was born 3rd November 1779, died 24th November 1854, aged 75, and was buried in Christ church, Doncaster. She was 17th in descent from Edward III. Arms of Bower: Quarterly, 1st and 4th, Sable, a human leg couped at the thigh, pierced bendwise by a broken spear, guttée de sang, all proper, on a canton argent a tower gules, a crescent for difference (Bower); 2nd, Azure, between two pallets wavy ermine three suns or (Pearson); 3rd, Gules, two wings conjoined in lure, tips downwards, ermine, a crescent for difference (Rayney). Henry and Frances-Mary Watkins had issue:—

I. The Reverend Henry Watkins, Clerk in Holy Orders, M.A., of Peterhouse, Cambridge; Vicar of South Malling, co. Sussex, 1836; born 14th January 1807; married at St. Michael's, Lewes, 24th January 1837, Frances, second daughter of George Courthope, Esq., of Bedford Square, London, and of Whiligh, co. Sussex, by Amelia, daughter of William Campion, Esq., of Lewes, and had issue:—

i. Henry-Bower Watkins, born at Lewes, 23rd January 1840; died at Tunbridge Wells, 25th September 1864, unmarried.

1. Henry-Watkins Way, born in May 1865; died at no. 16
Calverley Park, Tunbridge-Wells, 25th November 1866.

Mrs. Way died 18th, and was buried at Tunbridge Wells, 23rd November 1867. Mr. Way was ordained Deacon in 1861, and Priest in 1862; Curate of Chipping-Camden 1861-2, Rector of Stapleton, co. Gloucester, 1869-75, and has been Rector of Duntsbourn-Abbots, Cirencester, since 1875.

Arms of Courthope: Argent, a fess azure between three estoiles of six points wavy sable. Mrs. H. Watkins died at Madeira, 23rd January 1841, and Mr. H. Watkins died at Lewes, 11th November in the same year, and was buried at South Malling.

III.—II. FREDERICK WATKINS See below, III.

III. FRANCIS-WILMER WATKINS, of whom presently (see p. 325).

I. FRANCES-MARIA WATKINS, of whom presently (see p. 329).

II. ANNA-MARY WATKINS, died an infant.

III. EMMA-CAROLINE WATKINS, born 19th November 1820; died unmarried at Doncaster, 14th April 1852; buried there in Christ church, 20th April.

Mr. Watkins died 13th December 1844, aged 69, and was buried at Silkstone, 20th December. His will was dated 24th January 1843, and proved at York 24th April 1845.

III.—The Venerable Archdeacon Frederick WATKINS, B.D., the elder surviving son of Henry Watkins, of Silkstone, was born in the old rectory-house at Barnborough, 1st April 1808. He was educated at Emmanuel College, Cambridge, where he took the degree of B.A., in 1830, being a Senior Optime and in the 2nd class of the Classical Tripos; M.A. 1833; B.D. 1840; sometime Fellow of Emmanuel College; ordained Deacon in 1837, and Priest in 1838, by the Bishop of St. David's. "His first curacy was under Archdeacon Venables, "after which he made something of the nature of the grand tour, "visiting France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, and Belgium. "In 1836 he went out as chaplain to St. Petersburg, returning to "England to take a curacy at Lewes, which he held for four years.

"In 1844 Archdeacon Watkins was appointed one of the "first H.M. Inspectors of schools, and he held that arduous office "for the long period of thirty years, securing the full retiring "pension, which no one could have better deserved. It will seem "strange to some to be told that the earliest field of his work was "the four northern counties. This was afterwards changed to "Yorkshire, Notts., and part of Lincolnshire, and it was "subsequently curtailed still more. The fact that this vast "tract of country was committed to one man shows the humble "beginnings of the present great Education Department. No "one could have been selected more likely to disarm prejudice and "win popularity for the new system than the inspector who had "been chosen. * In 1873 Mr. Watkins left Thribergh, near "Rotherham, where he had resided since 1847, to take charge of "the living of Marston, near York, to which he had been "presented by Lord Wenlock. In the same year he was chosen "by an almost unanimous vote to represent the clergy of the "archdeaconry in convocation. In the following year he was "advanced by the Crown to the archdeaconry of York, and "received from the Archbishop the prebend of Knaresborough "in the cathedral church."3 He resigned the archdeaconry in 1874.

Archdeacon Watkins married first, at Silkstone, 5th August 1847, Amelia, daughter of the Reverend George Millett, Vicar of that place. She was born in 1822, died 9th July 1872, aged 50, and was buried at Thribergh, 13th July; M.I. They had issue:—

Archdeacon Watkins died at Bournemouth, 6th February 1888, in his 80th year, and was buried on the 10th at Marston, where, nearly two-and-a-half centuries ago, the armies of the King and the Parliament joined battle. "He used to "gather his friends around him," says the writer to the Guardian, "on the anniversary of the great battle in the month of July, "and take them to the scene of the conflict, the chief landmarks "of which are still wonderfully preserved. He who summoned "us so often together has now fought his own last battle and "won it, and lies sleeping in his own quiet churchyard at the "foot of the historic hill, with his face turned towards York, "waiting for the resurrection of the just."

EXT.—Frederick-Wilmer Watkins, now in India, Major in the Royal Engineers, is the eldest surviving son of the late Archdeacon Watkins. He was born 19th June 1849.

THE SECOND HOUSE OF WATKINS.

Optima quaeque dies miseris mortalibus aevi
Prima fuit; subeunt morbi tristisque senectus
Et labor, et dum ac rapit indelentia mortis.—Virgil, Georg. 3, 66-8.

Charles-William Foster, who was born in the rectory-house at Wickersley, co. York, 10th March 1825, and baptized in the parish church 13th March, was the fourth and youngest son of the Reverend John Foster, M.A. who was for 60 years Rector of Wicklersley, and of Charlotte, his wife, daughter of George Rooke, Esq., of Langham Hall, co. Essex. Mr. Foster was educated at the Grammar School, Stamford, co.
Lincoln, and at Christ's College, Cambridge, where he gained a scholarship. He took the degree of B.A. in 1849, being a Junior Optime and in the 2nd class of the Classical Tripos;
M.A. 1852; ordained Deacon in 1849, and Priest in 1851, by the Archbishop of York. His first curacy was under the Hon. and Rev. William Howard at Whiston, near Rotherham, 1849-53; and at the latter date he became curate of Sopley, near Christchurch, in Hampshire. In 1856 he was presented by George-Savile Foljambe, Esq., to the vicarage of Dalton, near Rotherham, which he held for thirty years. He died 23rd

II. Eliza - Georgiana - Fitzmaurice Watkins, born at Nassuck, India, 23rd September 1843.

Francis-Wilmer Watkins married secondly at the cathedral, Bombay, 29th May 1852, Augusta-Marianne, daughter of Francis Swinfen, Esq., of Lapley (an officer in the 16th Light Dragoons, and son of John Swinfen, Esq., of Swinfen), and relict of Thomas-Adolphus Boyrenson, Esq., M.D., who died in 1850. Mr. Watkins had issue:—

I. Wilmer-Swinfen Watkins, born in March 1853; died 16th May 1854, at no. 5 Connaught Square, Hyde Park, London.

Mrs. F.-W. Watkins is now living at Drayton Green, co. Middlesex. Arms of Swinfen: Per chevron sable and argent, in chief three leopards’ faces or. Mr. F.-W. Watkins died at his house in the Breach Candy, Bombay, 1st April 1853, aged 43, and was buried in the neighbouring cemetery at Girghaum. The following notice is taken from the Bombay Times:—

"It is with deep regret that we have to announce the death of Dr. Watkins, civil surgeon, and formerly garrison surgeon, at the Presidency. The melancholy event took place in his house, in the Breach Candy, on the evening of Friday, the 1st of April. Dr. Watkins was in extensive private practice, and intimately known to a very large number of the members of the community. He was a man of considerable ability, and great good sense; of large and varied acquirements, sterling uprightness, and much warmth of heart. Eminently skilled in his profession, he was what may be deemed a remarkably satisfactory medical visitor; his patients felt that he understood their ailments—that he overlooked no symptom, however trivial, and slighted no explanation, however tedious—that he looked on the bright and hopeful side of things, and always left them with that sense of cheerfulness and comfort which so often so materially assists in bringing about a cure. The feeling of regard and esteem entertained for him by all who knew him, deepened into love and affection amongst those whom he visited, and his removal in the prime of life and in the midst of his usefulness, occasions a feeling of deep and general sorrow. He had been for some weeks suffering from dysentery, which, a fortnight since, took so alarming a turn, as to prevent the possibility of his being removed from the Presidency; and for the past ten days he had been so dangerously ill, that the announcement of the sad event which has now occurred, would at no time have occasioned astonishment. Dr. Watkins served with the 3rd troop H. A. during the whole campaign in Scinde and Afghanistan, under Sir John Keane, and was present at the storm and capture of Ghuznee; he received a Ghuznee medal.

II.—Frederick-William Watkins, Esq., Lieutenant R.E., elder surviving son of Francis-Wilmer Watkins, was born at Nassuck, near Bombay, 5th September 1841, and educated at Cheltenham College and Woolwich. He married, at Oxtead, co. Surrey, 16th April 1873, Katherine-Emily-Hoskins, eldest daughter of the late Charles-Hoskins Master, Esq., of Barrow Green House, Oxtead, co. Surrey. Mr. F.-W. Watkins died sine prole at Barrow Green, 17th September 1874, and was buried on the 21st at Oxtead. Arms of Master: Azure, a fess embattled between three griffins' heads erased or. Mrs. Watkins married secondly, at Upton-cum-Chalvey, co. Buckingham, 28th November 1886, Captain Ernest-Bengough Kicketts, of the Grange, Chislehurst, co. Kent, and now of Lawrence Court, Huntingdon.

III.—The Reverend John Watkins, M.A., Clerk in Holy Orders, now Rector and Vicar of Gamlingay, co. Cambridge, younger surviving son of Francis-Wilmer Watkins, was born at Seacroft Grange, in the parish of Whitkirk, co. York, 27th January 1846. He was a Dolman Exhibitioner of St. John's College, Cambridge; took the degree of B.A. in 1869, being placed in the 3rd class of the Classical Tripos; M.A. 1872; ordained Deacon 1870, and Priest 1871, by the Bishop of Ripon; Curate of Leeds parish church under Dr. Woodford (late Bishop of Ely) 1870-4; Precentor 1872-4; Vicar of Thriplow, co. Cambridge, 1874-8; presented to the vicarage of Gamlingay in 1878 by the Bishop of Ely, and to the moiety sinecure rectory of the same by Merton College, Oxford; and appointed Chaplain to the Bishop of Ely in 1877. Mr. Watkins married, at Leeds parish church, 19th August 1874, Constance, sixth daughter of the late Charles Chadwick, Esq., M.D., of Leeds.

FITZMAURICE OF DRAYTON GREEN.

"Mihi quidem nulli satis eruditi videntur quibus nostra ignota sunt."—Cicero.

Arms: Argent, a saltire gules, a chief ermine. Crest: A centaur with bow and arrow proper. Motto: Virtute non verbis.

E.—Frances-Maria Watkins, the eldest daughter of Henry Watkins and Frances-Mary Bower (see p. 321), was born 11th March 1804. She married, at Barnborough, 3rd November 1824, Major-General John FitzMaurice, K.H. He was born at Knockavallig, co. Kerry, 23rd June 1793, and was the son of John FitzMaurice, Esq., of Lixnaw, by Mary Buske, his wife, and claimed descent from John, 5th Lord of Kerry, the common ancestor of the noble houses of Lansdowne and Orkney. In 1811 General FitzMaurice joined the British army, which was then occupying the lines of Torres Vedras, as a Volunteer. He was appointed Lieutenant in the first battalion of the Rifle Brigade, then the 95th Regiment, 25th April 1811, and served with it during the remainder of the war. He was in the campaign of 1815, and led the advanced guard at Quatre Bras, where he had the honour of firing the first shot. He was appointed Captain in 1826, Major in 18..., K.H. in 1831, Colonel in 1854, and Major-General 7th May 1861. He was Adjutant of the Yeomen of the Guard in 1847, and Lieutenant in 1861. General FitzMaurice received the Waterloo medal, the Peninsula medal with eight clasps, a good-service pension, and pensions for wounds received... at Badajos and Quatre Bras. He died at his residence, Drayton Green, co. Middlesex, 24th December 1865, and was buried at Perivale, hard by, on the 29th. He had issue:—

I. MAURICE-HENRY FITZMAURICE, Captain and Adjutant of the 11th Brigade of the Royal Artillery; born 9th June 1833; died unmarried at Landour, India, 3rd August 1865.

WILMER OF OLD STRATFORD, BROUGHTON, MOULSOE, CRANFIELD, AND NEWPORT PAGNELL.

"The mere archeologist, the mere genealogist, the mere antiquary, are not the parasites of historical study, as they are too often regarded by men who find it easier to borrow than to estimate the results of their researches; they are working bees in the hive of historic knowledge." —BP. STUBBS.

John Wilmer, Gent., was living at Old Stratford, co. Northampton, a quarter of a mile from Stony Stratford, in the 18th century. His ancestry is unknown. He married Ann, who survived him, and by whom he had no issue. The following is an abstract of his will:

30th July 1736. John Wilmer, of Old Stratford, co. Northampton, Gent., being weak in body, etc.

To my wife Ann, my sole executrix, my messuage or tenement in Old Stratford. To my brother, Richard Willmer, of Broughton, co. Buckingham, 5l. To my brother, Edward Willmer, of Kislenbury, co. Northampton, yeoman, 5l. To my 2 sisters, Elizabeth Rogers and Grace Robins, 5l. each. To my niece, Patience Rogers, 20s. for mourning.

To my said wife my house in Gloucester Street, in the parish of St. George-the-Martyr, co. Middlesex, also my houses in Stanhope Street, St. Clement Danes, co. Middlesex, and at Hammersmith, in the parish of Fulham, co. Middlesex, for her life, and after her death to John Wilmer, of Olney, co. Buckingham, Apothecary, and Thomas Wilson, of West

I give to the said Thomas Wilson all such plate, household goods, and linen as my wife shall leave at her death. Witnesses:—Geo. Lawrence, Thos. Gilbert, and Maurice Vaughan. [Proved 22nd March 1739-40. P.C.C. 97 Browne.]

It will be remembered that it was suggested above (see p. 296) that John Wilmer of Olney, who is named in this will, was identical with the John Wilmer, whom we found to be residing at Stony Stratford a few years after this time. We shall now proceed to relate what is known respecting Richard Wilmer of Broughton.

XX.-Richard Wilmer, of Broughton, co. Buckingham, was brother of the above-mentioned John Willmer of Old Stratford. He married Anne , who was buried 31st August 1752†. They had issue:—

XXX.—I. Richard Wilmer. See below, XXX.

II. William Wilmer, ancestor of the Wilmers of Moulsoe (see p. 335). Richard Wilmer was Churchwarden of Broughton in 1742, 1743, and 1752, and was buried there 19th August 1753†.

III.—Richard Wilmer, Innholder, of Broughton elder son of Richard Wilmer married, by licence, 12th December 1756, Elizabeth Huggins, of Wooburn, co. Buckingham. She died at Northampton, 23rd August 1825, aged 94, and was buried 30th August; M.I. at Broughton. They had issue:—

WILMER OF CRANFIELD.

John Wilmer, Yeoman, of Cranfield, co. Buckingham, was nearly related to the first William Wilmer, of Moulsoe, but in what degree we have not been able to determine. It is not improbable that they were brothers. John Wilmer married Mary, who died 23rd March, and was buried 27th March 1796‡, aged 51; M.I. at Moulsoe. They had issue:—I. Thomas Wilmer, died 1st September 1790, aged 22; buried 4th September‡; M.I. at Moulsoe; II. Richard Wilmer, baptized 15th June 1770‡; III. John Wilmer (posthumous), born 10th August, baptized 11th August 1784‡: I. Elizabeth Wilmer, born 9th June, baptized 23rd July 1777‡; and II. Sally Wilmer, born 9th January, baptized 22nd February 1779‡.

John Wilmer, of Cranfield, died 6th May and was buried 9th May 1784‡; M.I. at Moulsoe.

WILMER OF READING.

Nec forma aeternum, aut caequiram est fortuna perennis:
Longius aut propius, mors sua quemque manet.—Propertius, 2, 28, 57.

WILLIAM WILMER, Tanner, of Reading, married Elizabeth, and had issue:—WILLIAM, EDWARD, ELIZABETH, and MARY WILMER, who were all living in 1667. The elder William Wilmer’s will was dated 17th July 1643, and proved 28th August 1643. He appointed Elizabeth his wife executrix, but on the 26th August 1643, she declared herself unable to “undergo the execution” of it, and desired that Edward Wilmer, a ward and kinsman, and principal creditor of her late husband, might take out letters of administration. The witnesses to the will were:—Edward Wilmer, Scrivener, James hall his apprentice, John Lipscombe, and Anne Johnsone. Elizabeth Wilmer, “being sick of that sickness whereof she dyed within a few days,” made a nuncupative will, dated 17th June 1667, and proved 26th April 1669, administration being granted to her son William, the sole executor.

EDWARD WILMER, Scrivener, of the parish of St. Mary’s, Reading, married, at St. Lawrence’s, Reading, 29th June 1640, Anne Iremonger, and had a daughter, ANN WILMER,

1. Inferior Court of Berkshire at Somerset House.
who was baptized at that church 16th April 1641. Administration of the goods of Edward Wilmer was granted to Anne his relict, 28th February 1672-3. He seems to be the Edward Wilmer who was mentioned above as being a kinsman and ward of William Wilmer of Reading.

WILLIAM WILMER, of Reading, was perhaps the son of the above William Wilmer, Tanner, of Reading. He married Martha, eldest daughter of Thomas Kenrick, Esq., of Reading, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Sir Henry Davy, and had issue:

I. WILLIAM WILMER, living in 1700.

I. MARY WILMER, married John Brooke, junior, and died before 1732. They had, with other issue:

i. RICHARD BROOKE, living in 1732; administrator of the goods of his mother, and of his aunt, Martha Wilmer.

i. AN ELDEST DAUGHTER, living in 1700.

II. MARTHA WILMER, of Burghfield, in Berkshire; will dated 7th August 1700; proved 16th March 1732-3; administration granted to Richard Brooke, son and administrator of the goods of Mary Brooke, the administratrix appointed in the will of Martha Wilmer. Martha Wilmer desires to be buried near her mother in St. Mary's church, Reading.

Administration of the goods of William Wilmer, senior, Gent., of Sulhamstead-Bannister, was granted to William Wilmer, his son, 10th April 1730.

Administration of the goods of Mary Wilmer, Spinster, of Salemstead [Sulhamstead], co. Berks., was granted to her nieces and next-of-kin, Margaret Chair and Mary Chair, 10th July 1762.

EDWARD WILMER, Yeoman, of Reading, married Elinor, and had an only daughter:

I. LETITIA WILMER, who married William Reeve, Gent., of Burghfield, co. Berks. A licence was obtained 14th April 1669 for the marriage of "William Reeve, of Burfield, Berks., Gent., "Bach", ab. 26, & Mrs. Letticia Wilmer, of "Reading, s. co., Sp", ab. 21; consent of her "guardian; at Brinsfield or Burfield, s. co." In an indenture of lease, dated 1st May 1669, she is described as of Reading, Spinster. William Reeve was a party to a deed of conveyance, dated 2nd February 1675, of one acre of land in Tilehurst, co. Berks., which his father-in-law, "Edward Willmer the elder later of Reading "Gent. dece'd" purchased from "Sir Francis Knollys late of Reading Knt. dece'd and since "settled upon William Reeve."
Edward Wilmer's will was dated 28th October 1652, and proved 1st June 1653. He appoints his wife Ellinor sole executrix, leaves to his daughter Letitia 100l, and bequeaths to his wife and her heirs three messuages in Fisher Rowe, Readinge, two little messuages in Hosiers Lane, Readinge, and his free lands in Tilehurst, Whitley, and Reading. Elinor Wilmer's will was dated 14th April 1661. She bequeaths all her lands, etc. (for life) to her daughter, Letitia Wylmer, when she comes to the age of 21 years, remainder to William Wylmer, eldest son of her brother-in-law, Daniell Wylmer; to John Wylmer, second son of Daniell Wylmer, two houses in Fishers Rewe, Reading; to Edward Wylmer, third son of Daniell Wylmer, residue of lands in Tilehurst, Reading, and Whitley. She names Mary Restall, maidservant; Martha Crutchfield, Clement Went, Taylor; her kinswoman, Jane Kirsell; her brother, John Corker; Edward Crutchfield, son of Edward Crutchfield, Clothier; and her cousin, Mrs. Sarah Fagg. She wills that her brother-in-law, Mr. Danielle Wylmer, Mr. Thomas Seikes, of Reading, Gent., and James Hall, of Reading, Yeoman, have the sole management of all her estate during the minority of her daughter. A commission to administer was granted to Daniell Wylmer 29th June 1661, and the will was proved by Letitia Wylmer in 1669.

Miscellaneous Notices of the Names of Wilmer, Wilmore, &c.

"Sed nos immensus spatis conuersus agnos, Et jam tempus eunom fumantia solvere colla."

Virgil, Georg. 2, 541-2.

During our researches, we have met with notices of many persons bearing the surnames of Wilmer, Wilmore, etc., to whom no place can be assigned in the pedigree of the family. These notices we shall proceed to give in order.

John Wilmore, of London, Merchant.

At the Midsummer Quarter Sessions for the county of Middlesex in 1681, John Wilmore, Merchant, of Jewen Street, London, was the foreman of the grand jury, before which Stephen Colledge was tried on a charge of high treason. The jurymen unanimously returned the verdict Ignoramus, with which Wilmore endorsed the indictment. This verdict was very unacceptable at Whitehall, and "King Charles," says Wilmore¹, "was in a great Rage, and angry with me," and ¹ We quote from a pamphlet published by John Wilmore, containing an account of his troubles and persecution, under the title, The Legacy of John Wilmer, Citizen, and late Merchant of London; Humbly offered to the Lords and Commons of England (London: Printed for the Author, MDCXCL.). He states that he is nearly 54 years of age, and intends shortly to go to Jamaica, where he has some plantations, in order to make some provision for his wife and children.

"throwing his Hat and Periwig on the Ground, he was heard to express himself to this effect: *This Rogue Wilmer has broke all my Measures; God's Fish I will have his Blood, or ruine him; although it cost me ten thousand Pounds."

"August 1681. On the 13th, Mr. John Wilmore (who was foreman of the grand jury that found the bill preferred against Stephen Colledge, Ignoramus) was taken into custody on an accusation of high treason, and was carried to Hampton Court the 15th, and examined in council, and then committed by warrant to the Tower."

With respect to this accusation Wilmore writes:—

"I was carried before the King and Council at Hampton-Court; and being very sick with an Ague and Fever, the Lord Chancellor said to me at my coming in, You come in like an Ignoramus: upon which the King pulled him by the Sleeve, and wink'd on him; which seemed to intimate, that though my giving the Ignoramus Verdict upon the Indictment against Colledg, was in truth the Crime which brought me thither, yet it should not be published.

"In the time of my Imprisonment several Stratagems were used to destroy me; diligent Enquiry was made in most of the neighbouring Counties about London, to find whether I had been in any of them, to the end that they might pack me out of London, and get me indicted and murdered as Colledg was at Oxford: they endeavoured to suborn English Witnesses against me, the Irish being become infamous.*
Moreover, they had it under consideration to cut my Throat in the Tower; for Major Hawley (in whose house the Earl of Essex's Throat was cut) being enquired of, what would be done with Wilmer? he made answer, He is a stubborn Rogue, his Throat must be cut."

24th October 1681. John Wilmore made his prayer "by "council to be either bailed or tried, according to the act of "habeas corpus."*

28th November 1681. He was "brought by habeas corpus "from the Tower to the kings bench bar," and set at liberty on bail."

23rd January 1681-2, being the first day of the term, John Wilmore appeared at the bar of the King's Bench, to save forfeiture of his recognizances.

13th February 1681-2, being the last day of term, he was discharged from his bail, there being no further prosecution against him.

Shortly after this, according to Wilmore's own account, his "fast Friends at Court" employed "two wicked and infamous persons, Vavasor and Beaumont," who brought a new indictment against him, and, upon its failure, threatened that they would never leave him till they had 'Colledg'd' him. A few days afterwards, on May 10th 1682, they delivered to the sheriffs of London "a writ de homine replegiando," accusing him of "haveing kidnapped a boy of 13 years of age to Jamaica." Wilmore, it appears, concealed himself, and the sheriffs made the return, non est inventus; but on "The 23rd [May 1682], was a tryall at the Kings bench barr upon an indictment against Mr. John Wilmore, for spiriting or kidnapping away a young boy under the age of 13 years, called Richard Siviter, and sending him to Jamaica: the jury was a very good one, returned out of the county of Kent: the witnesses against him were to prove that there was in generall such a trade as kidnapping or spiriting away children; then that Mr. Wilmore had been a practiser of that trade, and particularly had sent away this child to Jamaica. * On the other side, Mr. Wilmore's witnesses urged on his behalf, that the child was very willing to goe with him, * that he bound himself apprentice to Wilmore voluntarily at Gravesend in the presence of the mayor, who testified the same thing. * Then the lord cheif justice summ'd up the evidence. * so that the jury, without goeing from the barr, brought him in guilty."

"June 1682. Mr. Wilmore * * hath sent an expresse to Jamaica for the said boy, to bring him away as soon as possible, in hopes to mitigate his fine, which will be sett on him for the said offence."

"January 1682-3. The boy that Mr. Wilmore Kidnapped away to Jamaica, and for which a homine replegiando was issued against him, is lately brought over by his order."
In the same year Wilmore published his defence under the title, The Case of John Wilmore Truly and Impartially Related: or, a Looking-Glass for all Merchants and Planters That are concerned in the American Plantations. (London, Printed for Edw. Powell at the White Swan in Little Brittain MDCLXXXII).

In section 12 of his Legacy, he says,

"From the time of this Verdict I was advised by Counsel, and persuade by Friends, to keep out of the Reach of those who were bent upon my Ruin, and thirsted after my Blood; and I secreted myself in England for about a Year's space; in which time, Messengers with Constables would come at all hours of the Night to search my House for me. I then retired into Holland, whither about a Year after my Wife and Children followed me. I continued there five or six Years, until the Expedition of his Highness the Prince of Orange, in which I attended him, having pawned my Plate and Wife's Jewels, to equip myself and Servant, as a Volunteer of Horse."

"21st February 1692-3. Yesterday the lords read severall bills; and were going on the advice on that head about the lieutenancy of London, when one Wilmor (a kidnapper) delivering at the door a seditious libell reflecting on the mag of state for making such a lieutenancy; on which their lordship[s] voted the paper an insolent libell, and ordered the usher of the black rod to take him into custody; but he slipt away, and escaped.""

APPENDIX II.

SIR WILLIAM WILMER, KNIGHT, OF SYWELL.

Extracts from the Journals of the Houses of Lords and Commons, relating to Sir William Wilmer, Knight:

"Die Mercurii, 16° Martii 1641.

Peter Lord of the Parish of Welby and John James of Barten of the County of Northampton were called in; touching a Warrant, received from the High Sheriff, for publishing of a Book containing all Petitions and Messages from the Parliaments, and his Majesty's several & respective Answers to the same, concerning the Militia: And Peter Lord said. That having on Saturday last, received such a Warrant, he repaired on Monday, to the High Sheriff, and told him 'I came to know his mind about it': Said he 'Have not you published it? I will send you to the Gaol:—You are to publish it in the Church, and to every one of the Inhabitants of the Town:—Have not you the Book; the King's Hand, Charles Rex; and my Hand. William Wilmore, High Sheriff?—This is to hinder the Militia, That is the end of it.—You go contrary to all Men; and think yourself wiser than others.—The King must be obeyed, for all the Parliament.' Then I told him, I durst not publish it without Consent of Parliament. He said, I must do it.

"Then John James, being examined said, He was present when all this, informed of by Peter Lord, was spoken by the High Sheriff; and can testify the Truth thereof; And saith farther, That the High Sheriff did check him for not causing the book to be read.

"Sir Christ. Yelverton, Mr. Hollis, Mr. Strode, Sir H. Vane, Junior, are appointed to withdraw forthwith to examine Peter Lord and Jno James; and to report their examinations to the House.

"Resolved, upon the Question that Sir Wm Willmer Knight, the High Sheriff of the County of Northampton, shall be forthwith sent for as a Delinquent, by the Serjeant at Arms attending on this House. Resolved, upon the question that Mr. Speaker shall direct these two persons of Northamptonshire, before mentioned, that they forbear to publish the Book, sent to the Sheriff of that County by his Majesty, containing the Petitions and Answers touching the Militia, until the business be further examined, and the House shall give further Order therein. The Persons aforesaid were called in; and Mr. Speaker, by the Commands of the House, took notice of their Care and Respect to this House, in not publishing anything that concerned the Passages of this House, without the Privity and Directions of this House, and gave them Thanks therefore. Ordered that Sir Ro. Pye do pay five Pounds to Peter Lord and John James, from this House, to defray their charges in this Journey: And this to be paid out of the Poll money here at Westminster.

"Die Lunæ 28° Martii 1642.

"Sir Ch. Yelverton, Mr. Hollis, Sir Jo. Evelyn are appointed to examine the High Sheriff of the County of Northampton who is a Delinquent, under the restraint of this House; but by reason of great Weakness, at * * * * "Die Jovis 7° Aprilis 1642.

"The Sheriff of Northamptonshire, being called in, kneeled at the Bar; and afterwards standing up said, That he had given his Answer in Writing to the Information given against him, to which he did refer himself. Resolved, upon the Question that Sir Wm Willmer Knight, the High Sheriff of the County of Northampton, hath broken the Privilege of Parliament; and hath endeavoured to disturb the Peace of the Kingdom, by seditious words and actions. Ordered That this Charge against the High Sheriffs of the County of Northampton, shall be transmitted to the Lords by Word of Mouth, and that the Person of the said Sheriff shall be transmitted with the Cause; And Sir Jo. Evelyn is appointed to carry up this charge, And that the Serjeant in whose Custody he now is, shall deliver him over to the Custody of the officer of the Lords' house. Ordered that Sir Jo. Evelyn, when he carries up the charge against the High Sheriffs of the County of Northampton do move the Lords to give Directions speedily to put the ordinance concerning the Militia in Execution.” [Journals of the House of Commons.]

"Die Jovis, 7° die Aprilis, post meridiem, Ao 1642.

"A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Sir John Evelyn Kt. who said he was commanded by the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, of the House of Commons, to impeach and did in their name impeach Sir William Willmore, Knight, now High Sheriff of the County of North'ton, of High Crimes and Misdemeanours for breaking the Privileges of Parliament, and for endeavouring to disturb the Peace of the Kingdom, by seditious words and actions: that the said Sir Wm. Willmore, being now in the custody of the Sergeant of the House of Commons, they do transmit both him and the cause, together with the examinations, unto this house, desiring that such punishment may be inflicted upon him as their Lordships in Justice shall think fit. 2. The House of Commons desires that their Lordships would put the ordinance for the Militia into execution. Next were read the Informations & Examinations concerning Sir William Willmore: videlicet, The Information given by Peter Lord upon oath; that upon Saturday the 12th of March last, being Constable of the town of Wilbie in Northamptonshire, the High Sheriff of the County, Sir William Willmore, sent unto this Informant's House, a printed book, intituled The several Petitions and Messages of Parliament concerning the Militia of the Kingdom, with his Majesty's answers thereunto: which, together with a copy of the King's warrant, and withall a Warrant of his own, requiring and demanding this Informant to publish the book to the Inhabitants in the Town. Whereupon the Monday after, being the 14th, he repaired unto the High Sheriff, desiring his direction what he would have done with the Book; to whom the Sheriff answered, That it was to be published; and, understanding that the Informant had not done it, he said unto him, That he would send him to the Gaol; and, the Informant desiring still to be directed by him what was to be done in it, replied still, You will to the gaol; and said further, Have you not the printed book. Have you not a copy of the King's Warrant.
(William Willmore, High Sheriff) my own hand to it? You might have given it Mr. Pentlow, in the Church, And this informant, desiring to know for what end it should be read, the Sheriff answered, It is to hinder the Militia, that is the end; and added, The King is to be obeyed for all the Parliament, and said besides to this informant, pressing him still for further direction, You Wilbymen go a contrary way to all the world; are you wiser than all men?

"Peter Lord."

"The Information of John James, Constable of the Town of Earl's Barton, in the same County, Saith, that he went in company with Peter Lord, to the High Sheriff, and heard the Sheriff threaten Lord, to send him to the Gaol, because he had not published that book; and that he told Lord, that the end of publishing that Book was, to hinder the Militia; and that the King must be obeyed for all the Parliament; and that Wilbymen would go contrary to all men; and further referred himself to the examination of Peter Lord.

"John James."

"March 18th 1641.—The Examination of Sir William Willmore, Knight, High Sheriff of the County of North'ton. This Examinant saith, That the Copy shewed him was the Copy of the King's Warrant, and the direction under it was his own handwriting, That he had no other directions nor instructions than that Warrant from the King, whereof this was a true Copy. That one who called himself the Constable of Wilby, did, after the receipt of his warrant, repair to him, but did not, as he remembers, desire any directions from him what to do; but this examinant told him, he was to do according to the King's warrant.
That, understanding he had not done it, he asked him, if he longed to lie by the heels. That he told him, they had but the copy of the King's warrant, subscribed by his own hand. That he only asked where Mr.
Pentlowe was; but did not say they might have given it him in the Church. That they never asked him to what intent it should be read or published; nor did he say it was to hinder the Militia, nor any Thing to that purpose. That he said, The King must be obeyed, but not said, that it must be obeyed for all the Parliament. That he never said the Wilbymen went contrary to all the World, nor any Thing to that Purpose.

"William Willmore."

"The House taking this Message into consideration; ordered, That the Gentleman Usher, attending this House, or his deputy, shall forthwith receive into safe custody, from the Sergeant at Arms attending the House of Commons, the body of Sir William Wilmer Knight, High Sheriff of the County of North'ton, being transmitted by the said House of Commons, unto the Lords in Parliament; and him safely to keep until the pleasure of this house be further known. The answer returned to the aforesaid message was: that their Lordships had ordered the Gentleman Usher to receive Sir William Willmer, Knight, High Sheriff of the County of North'ton, into safe custody; and they would take the Impeachment into consideration in Convenient Time. As for putting the Ordinance for the Militia into execution, divers ordinances have already been delivered to several Lords Lieutenants, and their Lordships will speedily deliver the rest.

"Die Sabbati, videlicet, 9° die Aprilis 18 Car. 1642.

"Ordered that Sir William Willmer, Knight, High Sheriff of the County of North'ton, now in the custody of the Gentleman Usher, attending this House, upon a Transmission of the House of Commons, shall be freed of his present restraint or Imprisonment, upon entering recognizance of Two Thousand Pounds, unto our Sovereign Lord the King, before the Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, to attend this House, de Die in Diem, upon Notice given him from this house by the Gentleman Usher, or his deputy, or left at his Lodging in Town." [Journals of the House of Lords.]

The following extract from the Royalist Composition Papers (vol. 113, fo. 301), being unindexed, was not included in the extracts given at pp. 58 to 63.

Parish Registers of Round Alne, co. Warwick.

1746 Ap. 23 Simon Cole and Mary Wilmore, both of Stratford-on-Avon, mar. by licence.

1758. Draft of a Lease from Joseph Willmoore of Stratford-on-Avon, Dyer, and Jane his wife, to John Pearshouse of Stratford-on-Avon, Brasier, of a close called Sling in the parish of Old Stratford. The said close was purchased of Jos. Haddock by Sarah Willmore, grandmother of the said Joseph Willmoore. [Stratford and Shakespearean MSS., no. 88.]

In a manuscript pedigree in the possession of H.-F.-J. Vaughan, Esq., it is stated that Ruth, daughter of Thomas Leigh, of Sutton Coldfield, co. Warwick, by his wife, who was a daughter of Thomas and Martha Wilmer, married Edward Turner, of Sutton Coldfield; and that Henry Turner, a grandchild of this marriage, wedded Catherine Lea, sister and coheiress of Ferdinando - Dudley Lea, Lord Dudley. Catherine Lea was twice married, her other husband being Thomas Jordan; but whether she married him first or second is uncertain.
Addenda et Corrigenda.

Page 6, lines 35-6. For Bishop of Chester read Bishop Stubbs.

,, 36, lines 29-31. The following is a correct copy of the M.I. in Staverton church, as taken from a rubbing:—

"Here under Resteh the body of Thomas Wylmer Gent' who had to wyfe Elizabethe Crudge & had issue by her six sons and foure daughters wch Thomas deceased ye 31 day of January Anno Domini 1580."

,, 40, line 6. For Canarvon read Carnarvon.

,, 84, line 25. Yoziugest read toutigesl.

,, 130, line 27. Frances, the wife of J.-H. Gossip, was born 5th Sept. 1804.

,, 136, line 4. Anne, the wife of Wilmer Wilmer, was born 13th Jan. 1806.

,, 145, line 26. E.-F. Duncombe was baptized at Kilnwick Percy, 11th Nov. 1846.

,, 149, lines 4 and 28, and page 151, lines 17 and 19. In the square brackets, for H read J.

,, 167-168. Note 1 should read:—The parish churches of Haseley and Hatton lie within a stone's cast of one another, and the registers of both parishes for this period were entered in one book at Hatton. Haseley has a copy of its own register, but we were unable to refer to it.

,, 224, line 24. The arms of Corrance are: Argent, on a chevron between three ravens sable as many leopards' faces or.

,, 224, 3rd line from the bottom. Miss Watts-Russell is a daughter of Mr. Watts-Russell, of Ilam Hall, co. Stafford.

,, 237, line 8. For Susannah-Crafton read Susannah Cra/ton.

,, 238, line 12. For F.M.H. read parish church.

,, 245, line 13 and note 2. Henry Watson, father to Mrs. Joshua Green, was the fourth son of Joshua Watson, who, it appears, never assumed the title of baronet. We are informed that Sir Anthony Watson of Huntwell, the great-grandfather of this Joshua Watson, was the last member of the family who styled himself a baronet.

,, 246, line 29. For Jane Dunkin read Jane-Dunkin.

,, 254, line 17. Rachel-Elizabeth Tuckett is now living.

Robert Rookes, the elder, was the captain of the trained band of the hundred of Becontree, co. Essex. He was a member of the ancient family of Rookes, of Rooke Hall, in West Ham, was twice married, and had seven children. He died 5th Oct. 1630, and was buried in West Ham church, where there is a monument to his memory, with effigies of himself, his two wives, three sons, and four daughters, in postures of devotion. It does not appear that Elizabeth Wilmer was the mother of his son, Robert Rookes, who is mentioned in the text.—[History of the Parishes of East and West Ham, by Katherine Fry, edited and revised by G. Pagenstecher, pp. 203, 231.]

Constance Wilmer was living in October 1684 (see below).

For secondly read thirdly. An entry that has just been discovered in the registers of the Society of Friends shows that John Wilmer [VIII J], married secondly, 30th Oct. 1684, at the F.M.H., Devonshire House, Phoebe Knight, late of Dover, co. Kent, daughter of Nicolas Knight, of Good Mersham, co. Kent, deceased; her mother also being deceased. John Wilmer is described as of Friday Street, Silkman, son of Nathaniel Wilmer, of London, Grocer, deceased, and it is stated that John Wilmer's mother was expected to send in a certificate of consent at the second time of asking.

Sarah Willmore, daughter of John Willmore, of Hatfield Street, in the parish of St. Giles Cripplegate, London, married George Taylor, of London, at the F.M.H., Peel, St. John Street, 5th Oct. 1710.
